

The Wrecked Silver Dollar.

(Columbus Dispatch)

'Twas a lonesome silver dollar rolling westward in the night,

It was going out, it muttered, to a little town called Dwight,

A town that's situated in the State of Illinois. Where for small consideration they are straightening up the boys.

"I've been upon an awful tear," the silver dollar said.

"I need to straighten up a bit and rest this aching head,

And want, if it is possible, this habit to abate Of saying I'm a hundred when I'm only fifty-eight.

"I want to be a dollar and find an honest place, My feet upon the par line, no lie upon my face,

And so I'm rolling westward on this sultry August night To submit me to the gold cure they are giving out at Dwight.

The "Missing Link" is a busted community, as it were.

Prof. F. H. Granger made a good talk to the League Sunday morning.

The golden part of the link seems to have been found in the president's pocket.

W. E. Dick, a prominent member of the League, was elected president Thursday.

Remember to examine the little slip on the wrapper of your paper this week. If you owe us anything pay it. We need it.

Mrs. Tee, the lady who has so kindly assisted in the musical programs at the league, left for home Monday with the best wishes of all.

We are sending the STAR AND HERALD to a great many away from home that should pay for it. The little slip on the wrapper tells you when your subscription expired.

Every member of League No. 1 should purchase their autograph books of Secretary Brown or Harry Lawrence. By so doing you contribute a few cents to the treasury of the league.

Chas. Eugene Banks, of the Banner of Gold, Chicago, and Colonel Will Vissler, of Seattle, Washington, have been in Dwight all this week. They both addressed the League Thursday morning, their speeches meeting with enthusiasm. They always make good speeches.

The only wonder to honest Keeley League men is that the official organ of the "Missing Link" association did not uphold Davis when he used the money for private purposes which was raised in old No. 12 to buy a wedding present for Mr. and Mrs. Willard S. Brown. It has done worse.

The entertainment Thursday evening was particularly interesting on account of the presence of Col. Will Vissler and Chas. E. Banks. They made remarks and gave recitations which were highly appreciated. Several of the home league also furnished music and otherwise assisted in the program.

W. C. Davis, president of old No. 12 Keeley League, of Chicago, and president of the "Missing Link" association, has been expelled, so says the official organ, for using money belonging to No. 12, and money raised to purchase Mr. and Mrs. Willard S. Brown a wedding present. Give them rope.

We are in receipt of the Western Jewel, of Topeka, Kan., and it is a jewel sure. It is devoted to interests of secret and benevolent societies, and a large part of it to Keeley Leagues and Auxiliaries. It is one of the best papers of the kind we have yet seen and is but $1 a year. Mrs. Allie L. Sullivan has charge of the "Woman's Keeley Department," and Mr. E. G. Moore of the "Keeley Department," and they are both ably conducted.

Every Keeley League in the country should have the STAR AND HERALD souvenir autograph book. They cost but $3 a hundred, and already sixteen leagues are using them. They contain sixty four pages, and on the first is Dr. Leslie E. Keeley's autograph and on the cover his portrait. The Dwight League has one thousand of them, and the men here for treatment buy them and exchange autographs, and then it makes a handsome souvenir of days of the commencement of the new life.

We are in receipt of a handsome little volume of poems by Charles Eugene Banks, of Chicago. He has chosen an appropriate title "Where Brooks Go Softly." The pleasing rhymes contained in the book are just what would be expected from the author by those who are personally acquainted with him. He has a kind, gentle nature, which is clearly portrayed in many ways in his poetical writings. We intend to publish several selections from the work later on, which, we feel sure, will be very interesting to our readers. Mr. J. C. Lewis has the agency for Mr. Banks' poetical works in Dwight.

E. B. Bennett, the secretary, and several other members of old No. 12, of Chicago, have left the "Missing Link," and the alleged great national organization, composed of about a dozen members, as was predicted, is about played out. Now is the time to organize a Keeley League in Chicago for the benefit of those members of No. 12 who all through the disagreeable trouble have been honest with themselves, and done what they thought was right, but were misled by three or four sleek, designing rascals and a blackguard organ. For a large majority of the members of old No. 12, Keeley League members, from the national board down, have great sympathy and would take pleasure in welcoming them back into their ranks.

AUXILIARY NOTES.

The visiting committee are Mrs. Dr. Barr and Mrs. Chas. Romberger.

A very pleasant meeting was held with Mrs. Dr. Barr last Friday evening.

The Auxiliary will hold a fair the second week in December, for which arrangements are now being made. It is proposed to open the fair with a six o'clock supper.

The auxiliary met at the handsome residence of Mrs. Romberger Thursday evening, there being eighteen members present. The meeting next Thursday evening will be held at Mrs. Joe Miller's pretty home, and every member is requested to be present.

The members of the society will be very thankful for the donation of anything salable for the fair to be held the second week in December. Anyone wishing to donate anything for the booths can leave articles at the residence of Mrs. Dr. Broughton.

Arthur's New Home Magazine is a publications that always finds a welcome in every home-circle. It is essentially a home monthly, and no household is complete without it. A glance at the November number will convince anyone of this. Its opening story, "A Fatal Number," is the most realistic narrative of Italian life since Adolphus Trollope's Tuscan novels, and is beautifully illustrated. Melville Phillips, literary editor of the "Philadelphia Press," continues his novel "Was She Fairly Won," and its interest increases with each installment. Among other capital stories are "Cousin William" and "The Veiled Isis." "Flora Culture" ought to be read by every amateur gardener. The Boys' and Girls' corner will charm the young folks, while the Home Circle, with its hints and suggestions, will greatly interest the older members of the household. The Woman's World is a complete and profuse description with illustrations of the newest and prettiest styles in dress. Altogether, the number is a storehouse of interesting and instructive reading from the pens of popular writers, and we are not surprised to learn that its circulation is rapidly growing; it cannot be otherwise at the low subscription price of $1.00 a year. Handsome premiums are offered to those who will get up clubs for 1894. A sample copy will be sent for five cents. Address Arthur's New Home Magazine, Philadelphia, Penn.

A Fact Worth Knowing.

For a distance of 79 miles, the Nickel Plate Road is a perfect air line. This is the longest tangent in the U.S.

Holiday Souvenirs.

Any of our merchants of Dwight, or neighboring towns, who are thinking of buying seat souvenir cards or customers Christmas or New Years will do well and save money by calling on us before purchasing. We can furnish the cards, printing and all for less than you can buy the cards alone anywhere else. Don't forget that the STAR AND HERALD offers to print anything. There is no good reason for sending away for anything in the printing line, no matter what it is.

Are your children subject to croup? If so, you should never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. If given freely as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is the sole reliance with thousands of mothers who have croupy children, and never disappoints them. There is no danger in giving this Remedy in large and frequent doses, as it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Dr. Barr, Dwight, and W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Castle, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his Stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by Dr. Barr, Dwight, and at Augustine's Drug Store, Braceville.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by Dr. Barr, Dwight, and W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Dr. Barr, Dwight and W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville, Druggists.

Take the Big Four for points east. Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Louisville, etc. For rates apply to O. C. Minor, Gardner, Ill.

THE BEST PLASTER.—Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the luns are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. C. H. Barr, Dwight, and W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville.

SAVANNAH, GA., April 16, 1889. Having used three bottles of P. P. P. for impure blood and general weakness, and having derived great benefits from the same, having gained 11 pounds in four weeks. I take great pleasure in recommending it to all unfortunates like myself. Yours truly,

OFFICE OF J. N. McELROY, Druggist, Orlando, Fla., April 20, 1891. MESSRS. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga. DEAR SIRS—I sold three bottles of P. P. P., large size yesterday, and one bottle small size today.

The P. P. P. cured my wife of rheumatism before she was last. It came back on her the past winter and a half bottle, $1.00 size, relieved her again, and she has not had a symptom since.

I sold a bottle of P. P. P. to a friend of mine, one of his turkeys, a small one, look sick, and his wife gave it a teaspoonful, that was in the evening, and the little fellow turned over like he was dead, but next morning was up hallowing and well. Yours respectfully,

J. N. McELROY.
