Ladies' fine shoes in all the latest styles and in all widths, from A to E E., at Leach & Reeb's. The following letter remains uncalled for in the Dwight postoffice on Dec. 1: Wm. Leatherwood. It is reported that Mrs. H. Fox was quite sick yesterday. Her many friends hope for a speedy recovery. Myron Tambling recently made a ploring trip to Iowa. He found lots of sheepskins and some land. Mrs. Wm. Brown is reported as gaining in strength. Her many friends will be pleased to hear this. If you are going to buy a stove or any kind you will find the largest and best assortment at Buck's. Don't forget the STAR AND HERALD when in need of auction bills. We do them cheap and satisfactory. Misses Vineyard and Bain, of Streator, are spending the week and Thanksgiving with Mrs. Robert Orr. Jimmie Gregory and Jas. Nelson attended the club party in Gardner last week and enjoyed the occasion. "In time of peace prepare for war," used to be a trite saying, but it is a back number. All is peace now. Mrs. Goodspeed, familiarly known by her many friends as Aunt Emily, has been dangerously ill this week. FOR SALE—Marseilles four hole sheller and eight-horse power; almost new. Wm. M. Burkhardt, Dwight Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wilks entertained their daughter, Mrs. Russell and daughter, of Bloomington, last week. Miss Hattie Miller returned from Chicago Saturday evening and began her school duties Monday in District No. 6. If you want a pair of very nice warm-lined shoes, Leach & Reeb have the best and most complete line in Dwight. Anyone wanting a first-class international dictionary—no cheap edition—will do well to call upon us before purchasing. Mr. Nomsen, the groceryman has moved into the Kelagher block, and Mr. Cane has moved into the Ford building. Prices on flour have advanced, but we are selling standard brands at hard times prices. Give us a trial, Baker Bros. Weather like this the stove question should be the foremost one, and your every wish can be gratified at the south end hardware store. Oscar L. Nord visited his old stamping ground last week. He has been working under Charles Baker, of the Postal Telegraph Co. Take the Big 4 route for points east Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Louisville, etc. For rates apply to O. C. Minor, Gardner, Ill. We notice that in a neighboring town all the girls have stopped chewing gum and donated the amount thus saved to charity. A pointer, girls. Mr. Charles Cornell, a former resident of Dwight, now of Kaukauna, Wis., spent Thanksgiving with relatives and old time friends in Dwight. Col. J. B. Parsons, J. R. Oughton, Chas. L. Romberger and Joe Miller were in Joliet attending Commandery meeting Wednesday evening. Anyone wishing to purchase a brand new organ or piano at a very low figure will do well to call at this office without delay. Nice Christmas present. Will Sargent will probably make his home in Dwight for a year or more in the employ of a harvester firm. Will is an expert in farming machinery. Come to Dwight to buy your holiday goods. By perusing the columns of the STAR AND HERALD you will find the best places to make your purchases. Miss Bradford, sister-in-law of Bert Adams, and Bert's little daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. Bert Adams for several days. They returned to Joliet Wednesday. Harry Lawrence received a very nice present of a two bushel bag of fine Missouri hickory nuts, as large as walnuts, last week, from his old friend, John Russell. The K. P. ball was well attended and a very pleasant evening enjoyed, and all "gave thanks" for a good time. The boys are good entertainers and make things pleasant for all. Mickelson's photograph gallery, over Barr & Davis' drug store, will be open Sundays from 1 to 4 p. m., for the accommodation of those who cannot come during the week. S. T. K. Prime, of Dwight, has been honored by an appointment by Gov. Altgelt as delegate to the National Farmers' Congress, which meets in Savannah, Ga., Dec. 12, 1893. There is to be another photograph gallery in Dwight. Chas. Crandall, Sr., is erecting one on the McWilliams property on Chippewa street for Chas. Crandall, Jr., and Frank Evans. Read N. T. Nommensen's announcement in this issue. He has a handsome store in the Kelagher block, and is prepared to supply his customers with the best the market affords in the grocery line. Profs. Wilson and Meneley attended the Round Table meeting at Pontiac Saturday. They report a very interesting meeting, mostly devoted to new ideas regarding the conducting of institutes. Andrew Doherty will soon be able to resume his duties as assistant cashier of the Bank of Dwight. He has had a long and serious sickness and his many friends will be pleased to learn of his return to duty. Did you ever hear of such a thing? A metropolitan weekly and home paper for $1.50 per year. That's our figure for the Weekly Chicago Inter Ocean and STAR AND HERALD. Subscribe yourself and tell your friends. Carl Schmidt has removed his shoe shop from his residence to the auction store room corner of Prairie Avenue and Delaware street, and is prepared to do all repair work in his line. Liberal prices and good work guaranteed. Merchants and business men are invited to call at the STAR AND HERALD office and inspect our subscription list. It contains more good names than any two newspapers ever published in Dwight ever did. Advertising in it pays. Miss Jane Martin wishes to return

her sincere thanks to the fire company and all those who so kindly assisted her in many ways at the time of the recent fire. A large number of our people visited away Thanksgiving, and on the other hand many Dwightites from away ate turkey and spent a pleasant day with relatives and friends here. The Ys will meet next Friday evening at the residence of Miss Cora Adams. A very nice literary and musical programme is being arranged for the occasion and all members, honoraries and others, are particularly requested to be present. W. H. Taylor will accept all kinds of silver money for coal at his 3-1 yards. It makes no difference whether they are 16 to 1, 20 to 1, or any other kind of dollars. They all go for coal at a reasonable price and 2000 pounds to the ton every time. Rob Eldredge is home from Chicago, where he was employed at the world's fair. He is looking well and feels like a four time winner. He informs us that Clarence Rabe is cashier in the Staunton restaurant on Clark street and is doing well. The "Board of Health" says wet feet, sore throat, etc., will result on the coming of cold weather. Might it not be well for the "Board of Health" to add an inch or two to some of the crossings as a precautionary measure against wet feet, and consequently sore throats and other diseases? It will be noticed in another column that Dr. Palm has commenced active practice here again. The doctor was located here for many years and has lots of friends in the neighborhood who will be pleased to note that he is to make his home among us and practice medicine again. The gun club had their regular Thanksgiving shoot Thursday. Messrs. Frank Ford, Ame and Bob Orr, Chris Long, Charlie McWilliams, Ed McWilliams, Will Sargent, Burt Adams, shot black birds and live pigeons in spite of the bad weather. The shooting was done in the Hahn pasture. Sunday excursion tickets to Chicago, $2.25 round trip. Good on all trains Saturday p. m. and Sunday morning, except accommodation, leaving at 8:15 a. m., Sundays, on which train rate is $1.50 round trip, good to return on all trains Sunday night or on train leaving Chicago at 9 a. m. Monday. There is one great need in Dwight, and that is a public library. That there should be one there is no question, and it is a great wonder to us that steps have not been taken long ago by our monied men to have one. There was a movement on foot at one time, and quite an amount of money ready, but it fell through. Several towns around us have good libraries, which are not needed as greatly as is one here. "Do the world move?" Will J. Leach is now home and in the employ of the STAR AND HERALD and BRACEVILLE TRIBUNE. He is the editor of the latter paper and will have full charge of our business at that point. Will is a bright, honorable young man, and we consider ourselves fortunate in securing his services. Any favors shown him in Dwight, Braceville or neighboring towns, will be appreciated by us. He has full authority to transact business for us in all localities. The W. D. Boyce Co., of Chicago, want a good hustling boy or girl in every town in the United States and Canada to sell their famous weekly illustrated papers, the Saturday Blade and the Chicago Ledger. They are to be sold on the streets, in shops, stores, etc. Thousands of boys are now making money doing this, as it is an easy matter after once fairly started. No expense to begin. Send name to above address, and receive instructions and stationery. During his sermon on one Sunday morning, Rev. Ayling related a story, which had come to my notice, regarding holding a prayer meeting at the home of a sick brother. During the prayers a knock was heard at the door. On opening a boy stood there, and on being interrogated as to what he wanted, said: "Pa couldn't come to prayer meeting to night so he sent his prayers in a cart." The cart was inspected and in it was found coal, flour, meat, etc. During Thanksgiving and holiday time "prayers in a cart" are what knocks. The STAR AND HERALD is in receipt of the fifth and sixth parts of Hubert Howe Bancroft's fine work, "The Book of the Fair." The beauty of the engravings and the interest of the text of the former parts is fully sustained, and though the work seems a wonderful undertaking, yet there is every evidence that the work will be carried to a successful completion. It is the best and most beautiful book upon the Exposition and in it, with remarkable accuracy, will be preserved the artistic features of the Fair, as well as a complete history of this wonderful achievement of man. Drops of wisdom now and then drip from off the flying pen, such as "Care will spoil a cat," "Quiet felines catch the rat," "Wait not till to-morrow's sun if the work can now be done," "Frightened sheep will seek the fold," "Detter wisdom is than gold," "Of making books there is no end," "Make a loan and lose a friend;" but of all the gems of thought ever in a quarry wrought, shaped with care and skill and then dropped from off the tongues of men, suited to the whole year through, ever timely, ever true, whether in the autumn haze, winter's cold or summer's days, nothing is there, we surmise, half so trite or half so wise as "Now is the time to advertise."—Cana-joharie Radii. The STAR AND HERALD is read by 3,000 people. Happy Children. What is prettier than a literary and musical entertainment given for the pleasure and instruction of the little ones? Last Sunday evening the children of the Congregational Sunday-school and those interested gave a very pretty program at the church. The opening was a song "Ring the Bells of Heaven," following by prayer by the pastor, Rev. Fisher. Paraphrase of the Scriptures, by the little ones of Cora Thompson's class. Solo and chorus, "Come," nicely rendered by Clara De Clercq and Ottilie Jones. Recitation by little Celia Miller. Nice song by Mrs. Spencer's class "Cast Thy Bread Upon the Waters." Appropriate remarks by the pastor. A pretty solo by little Annie De Clercq. Reading by Miss Cora Adams. Reading by little Clara Doty. Solo by Miss Lizzie Winkler, "Jesus lover of my soul." Reading, The Two Thanksgivings, by Mrs. Gould. Song, "Precious Jewels." The program was arranged by Misses Cora Adams and Cora Thompson, and Miss Bessie Baker took charge. Miss Adams presided at the piano. During the evening the little mite kegs, given out some time since were returned and as each little one or big one reported they recited a verse in Scripture. The amounts reported were good and amounting in all to about $25. The classes reporting were Miss Thompson, Miss Cora Thompson, Miss Adams, Miss Brubaker, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Van Eman. Lembrich-Diefenbach. There was a quiet, happy wedding at Pontiac Tuesday morning, which proved a surprise to the many friends of the contracting parties, but all wish them much joy and future happiness and prosperity. Miss Josephine Lembrich and Mr. Anton Diefenbach are the parties of whom we speak. Mrs. Diefenbach has been in Dwight for some time and is a very agreeable and pretty young lady and has made many friends here. Mr. Diefenbach, or "Tony," as he is familiarly called, is the tonsorial artist who has run the barber shop in the Hagerty block for so long, and bears the reputation of being an honorable young business man. We join the friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Diefenbach a long, happy and prosperous future. Public Sale. C. J. Brown, of Round Grove, has concluded to quit farming and offers for sale a large number of good horses and cattle, full-blooded Poland-China shoats, and a large lot of farming tools, most all as good as new, and lots of other articles. This is a good opportunity to buy cheap. The sale will commence at 10 o'clock a. m. Monday, Dec. 11, 1893, on the Al Haynes farm, four miles east and one mile south of Dwight, Ill. The terms are five dollars and under, cash, etc. New Time-Card. The changes in the C. & A. time are as follows: Accommodation now leaves at 6 a. m.; hummer, north, at 7:27 a. m.; night express leaves Chicago at 8:45 p. m., and arrives at Dwight at 11:25 p. m., instead of 11:15. Branch freight leaves at 6:30 a. m. All other trains same as heretofore. A Great Offer. The Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean and STAR AND HERALD for $1.50 per year. This applies to new and old subscribers who pay in advance, and will give the STAR AND HERALD FREE from now to Jan. 1, 94. This will not last long and you better get in the band wagon without delay. It's very cheap reading. Sample copies at this office. Join the Woodmen. Many have asked us the cost of joining the Woodmen. It costs $5 membership fee, in advance; $4 a year, payable quarterly in advance, dues; and from 25 cents to 55 cents per month for each $1,000, according to age. Any one of good character, between the ages of 18 and 45 years, is eligible for membership. It is very reasonable insurance. For further particulars inquire at this office. No Halse in Price. Some of our subscribers have told us that owing to the hard times they do not feel able to pay $1.50 per year for the STAR AND HERALD. As we do not desire to make it a hardship to any man to read our paper, we will not raise the price this year. The price will remain at $1.25 per year, and subscriptions that are now due and past due will be thankfully received. Notice. Dr. Conway has purchased a stock of drugs and intends furnishing his own medicines hereafter in the Kepplinger block, upstairs.
