

Fair Tuesday.

Get your supper at Keppinger hall next Tuesday evening. Only 25 cents.

President Cox has made an excellent presiding officer, and has worked hard for the success of the league.

Dr. Milton Keeley addressed the League Wednesday morning. His address are always instructive and interesting.

Secretary and Mrs. Willard Brown spent Thanksgiving with the former's relatives in Kirkwood, Ill., and enjoyed a very pleasant visit.

Auxiliary fair next Tuesday afternoon and evening at Keppinger hall. A very nice place to buy Christmas presents for the little ones.

Dr. Blaine delivered one of his splendid lectures to the league Saturday morning. Every patient feels better after listening to them and is better prepared to face the world than ever.

We are indebted to Major Harry E. Insey, of Colorado Springs, for copies of the Evening Telegraph, of that place, containing valuable information regarding gold and silver, the location of mines, maps, etc., and also some excellent Keeley news.

President Al Burkhardt, of Bloomington, was in Dwight Monday with a patient for the Keeley Institute. Mr. B. is the president of the State Keeley League, and is a member of one of the liveliest leagues in the state.

A particularly interesting meeting was held Thanksgiving morning, which was opened by singing the Doxology, followed by a few interesting remarks by president Cox, who is a very fine gentleman, who has the knack of saying the right thing at the right time.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of the state during a recent blizzard.

AUXILIARY NOTES.

Mrs. Bower and Mrs. Koehler were new members at the last meeting.

Go to the fair next Tuesday afternoon and evening in Keppinger hall. There will be a Gipsy booth, fortune telling, fish pond, candy booth, and many other attractions at the fair next Tuesday afternoon and evening.

The price of the supper at the fair next Tuesday evening will be 25 cents, or 50 cents a couple. It will be a nice place to eat. Supper commences at 5.30.

Mrs. Harry Lawrence left Thanksgiving day to spend the winter in Missouri and Tennessee for her health. She is a member who will be greatly missed.

Already nearly $100 worth of articles, useful and ornamental, have been donated for the fair next week.

Two shaving mirrors and two handsome picture frames were donated to the Auxiliary for the fair by W. P. McGlenn. The Doctor says he wishes to add his mite to the noble cause of raising sufficient money to give some poor unfortunate the benefit of the Keeley cure for a Christmas present.

We do job work cheaper and give better satisfaction than any printing office in this part of the state.

REDDICK ROBBERY.

The Grant Robbery Creates Considerable Excitement.

The residence of Alex Grant, near Reddick, was robbed on Sunday, Oct. 1, of about $450 belonging to Mr. Grant and $2 belonging to the hired girl. The thing has hung fire and suspicion has rested on several parties for some time.

The preliminary hearing was set to come off Tuesday before Justice John Thompson. There were quite a number from Reddick present when the case was called at 1.30.

The witnesses examined for the prosecution were Geo. Hulbert, James Reilly, Chas. Grant, Wm. Chapel, Peter Mallon, Alex. Grant, Bob McNeil, Martin Smith, and Constable Jenkins.

On Oct. 1, it seems, the Grant family left home about 2.30 p. m. to attend church, and came back about 4 p. m. and found the house had been ransacked and the money taken as above.
