Buck has more second-hand stoves and will sell them cheaper than anyone. Parker, the tailor, has moved to part of the building occupied by Harry Lawrence. All articles for the holidays engraved nicely at J. C. Lewis' jewelry store in Dwight.

Don't let it escape your memory that Austin sells the finest, tenderest meats in town. The Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean and Dwight STAR AND HERALD for $1.50 per year. Mesdames Joe and Carl Miller are entertaining their sister, Mrs. Stone, this week.

Elmer Fenn is now prepared to serve oysters in any style. His stews are the very best. The oil wagon is the handiest and cheapest place to get your supplies in that line. If you want an elegant double or single carriage please call at this office right away.

Columbian piano, $165 cash; organs, $35, $50 and $58 cash. All new. Call at this office. The best place to get your watch repairing done at reasonable prices, is at Guardianer's. Bertie Waters returned Saturday from a week's visit with friends in Joliet and Morris.

Ernest Owens manipulated the fruit department on the accommodation seven days this week. Beef, pork, veal, mutton, chickens, turkeys, salt meats, ham, etc., all the best at Austin's. All kind of warm lined goods and holiday slippers in all the choicest styles at Leach & Reeb.

STAR AND HERALD, and you get a double benefit. Andrew Doherty was able to be out one day this week. He is looking rather peaked but will soon be able to collect drafts, etc. Special sale of genuine Indian made baskets. Many styles and patterns well made at reasonable prices. Baker's Furniture Bazar.

The snow storm last Saturday and Sunday was certainly a good old-fashioned one. The snow was over a foot deep in Dwight. Weather like this the stove question should be the foremost one, and your every wish can be gratified at the south end hardware store. Take the Big 4 route for points east Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Louisville, etc. For rates apply to O. C. Minor, Gardner, Ill.

B. A. Buck spent Thanksgiving in McLean county with relatives and friends visiting and hunting. He returned home Monday. Will J. Leach visited Emington Campus and Redick Wednesday in the interests of the STAR AND HERALD. He is meeting with good success. Mrs. W. M. Weese spent a portion of the past week with home folks in Joliet. She was accompanied home by her sister, Miss Sadie Saddler.

Anyone wishing to purchase a brand new organ or piano at a very low figure will do well to call at this office without delay. Nice Christmas present. It will pay the ladies to call at Mrs. Fenn's millinery parlors while she is disposing of her large stock of millinery at reduced prices. Call soon. The Lexington Unit issued a very fine Thanksgiving number this year. The proprietors and the business men of Lexington are very enterprising.

The only place that you can get stout snag proof boots and overs is at Leach & Reeb's; they have the exclusive sale of those goods and they are the best made. Miss Addie Fenn has returned from Gardner, where she has been conducting millinery business for her mother. She intends to return there early in the spring. Winter tourist rates to points in the south and California are on sale by the C. & A. R. R. at very low round trip rates, apply at the ticket office for information.

The good sleighing has caused some increase in trade. Everyone should do his trading in Dwight, and the STAR AND HERALD will tell you all about it next week. ADVERTISED LETTERS—Dr. J. E. Beperan, E. G. Carleste, A. B. Hearst, John Kennedten, William Leatherwood, Clara Parish, Frank Stephens, Frank N. Smith. Nelson Bach, manager of the Free Press bindery, Streator, will be in Dwight on Saturday, Dec. 16, soliciting for bindery work. All orders may be left at this office.

Mickelson's photograph gallery, over Barr & Davis' drug store, will be open Sundays from 1 to 4 p. m., for the accommodation of those who cannot come during the week. J. A. Webster has just received a carload each of egg, range and chestnut coal, which he is selling rapidly and at very reasonable prices. It is all Old Lee Pennsylvania coal. Lewis, the Dwight jeweler, book and stationery dealer, has the largest assortment of Christmas goods and the finest store in Livingston county. Prices to suit the times.

Young men sending poetry to this office will please enclose their names and addresses, not for publication, but as an evidence of their insanity in case they are arrested for murder. The branch train did not get in until about 12 o'clock Saturday night on account of the snow, and then only brought two cars. The trains on the main line were not delayed much. Sunday morning Rev. Ayling will occupy the pulpit in the M. E. church at the usual hour. In the evening Prof. W. T. Wilson will deliver an address on the Epworth League State Convention. At the Congregational church last Sunday the choir consisted of eleven girls from twelve to fifteen years of age, and the singing was very good. Miss Cora Adams presided at the organ.

Jos. K. Buffham returned from Iowa last Saturday, where he has been employed for the past three or four months. He is looking well and hearty and says republicans are a good crop this year. Mary F. Graves and Turner D. Harris were quietly married a few days since. They are employed by the Leslie E. Kesley Co. and received many congratulations from friends. We wish them joy. We would be pleased to receive the reports of the election of officers in the different orders in Dwight. If the secretaries will kindly send them in as soon as they occur, they will confer a favor on us. Holiday ticket rates by C. & A. R. R. will be one fare and one third for the round trip to all stations within 200 miles. Tickets will be sold Dec. 23, 24, 25, 30, 31 and Jan. 1, good to return up to and including Jan. 3.

J. H. Mohler, of Bloomington, the gentleman who has charge of the repair department of the C. & A., and who superintended the drilling of the well at the depot in our city, was in Dwight last Saturday on business. Merchants and business men are invited to call at the STAR AND HERALD office and inspect our subscription list. It contains more good names than any two newspapers ever published in Dwight ever did. Advertising in it pays. W. H. Taylor will accept all kinds of silver money for coal at his 3-1 yards. It makes no difference whether they are 16 to 1, 20 to 1, or any other kind of dollars. They all go for coal at a reasonable price and 2000 pounds to the ton every time.

A new fad in the way of entertainments has broken out in the neighboring cities. It is called the Midway Plaisance Masquerade, and when properly managed is said to be very amusing. The fad will undoubtedly strike Dwight before long. Watches, silverware, jewelry, gold pens and holders, silver plated goods, solid silver goods, and everything nice for Christmas to be found in a first-class jewelry store, can be found at J. C. Lewis' handsome store in Dwight, and for sale at very low figures. The Fairbury Blade comes to us each week much improved. The new proprietors are hustlers. The republicans have a splendid organ in Fairbury. The prohibitionists are also ably represented by their organ. There is a good opening however for a democratic paper in Fairbury.

The newspapers along the line of the C. & A. are giving the road fits for running the accommodation so early in the morning, and intimate that the accommodation does not accommodate any more. It is rather early and deprives a person of his morning snooze, if he catches the train. Wm. Miller is now night marshal and night engineer at the water works and wears the star. Freeman Spencer has resigned on account of his health. He was taken sick three times and thought he had better quit. He has made an excellent man for the place and has been careful and accommodating. He has not decided what he will do yet.

J. R. Oughton's Dwight kennels will be sent to Chicago Tuesday, where he has eight of his fine dogs entered at the great bench show next week. This includes Heather Lad, the finest Gordon setter in the world, and is valued very highly. The STAR AND HERALD will contain a short history of the Dwight Kennel next week. Ame Orr goes to Chicago in charge. A fine entertainment will be given under the auspices of the Keeley League next Thursday evening. The play is the comical one of "The Irish Doctor," and the cast includes many of our local and professional talent. There will also be several musical and literary selections. Tickets only 25c and 35c. On sale at Barr & Davis' drug store.

Owing to the remarkable growth of our schools it has become necessary to employ another teacher, and the Board of Education has already ordered E. T. Miller, the clerk, to correspond with parties. The new teacher will assist Mrs. Gould in the grammar department. Her room is crowded, having sixty eight scholars, and in some cases three in a seat. The bottom may have fallen out of some booms, but the Dwight public school is booming. Daniel Schott, of Union Hill, son-in-law of A. G. Potter, came to Dwight Wednesday and went to the residence of Mrs. Goodman. It was noticed a short time after he arrived that his mind was deranged, and it was found necessary to place him in charge of an officer. He has been ailing for some time. Mr. Schott bears an excellent reputation and no trouble is known of by his friends. He and his family have the sympathy of all under the sad circumstances. He was taken Tuesday to Kankakee for examination. It is hoped he will soon recover.

Left for Collection. The book accounts of J. W. Sargent & Son are left with the undersigned for collection. Those knowing themselves indebted to the above firm must call at once and settle. KETCHAM & SMITH. For Sale. D. B. Stevens has some choice building lots that he will sell cheap or trade for horses. Notice. Dr. Conway has purchased a stock of drugs and intends furnishing his own medicines hereafter in the Keppinger block, upstairs.

Great Fall. We have about 50 Hats that we have been selling for $2.50 and $3.00, which we will dispose of all next week for $1.00. This is the best and most liberal offer ever made in Dwight—come early in the week and take them away to wear during the Holidays. We are always up to the times. MILLER BROS., Dwight, Ill.
