

AN ARMY OF STARVING MEN IN CHICAGO.

Pitiable Scenes in the City Hall—The French Chamber of Deputies the Scene of a Frightful Crime—Is Cleveland a Sick Man?

Told in a Few Words.

The number of unemployed in Chicago is apparently growing with every hour. Sunday night over 1,500 men lay upon the bare stone corridors of the City Hall...

Anarchy has struck its most fearful blow in Paris. It is reported in the French Chamber of Deputies Saturday afternoon. About 300 members were in their seats and the galleries were filled.

Trade of all kind is waiting. There is no visible improvement, and on the whole indications are a little less satisfactory than a few days ago.

Seven hundred families have applied to the township authorities at Springfield, Ohio, for aid.

Charles Herron, who killed his wife and attempted suicide at Atlanta, Ga., will be imprisoned for life.

Ann L. Mahan was burned to death at Atlanta, Ga., by a dress caught fire from the kitchen stove.

Commercial Bank at Milwaukee will resume the County Board agreement to a proposition to that effect.

Requisitions are out for Louis Ludlum and Cameron Hostetter, who swindled Indiana farmers out of $50,000.

Franklin D. Young, who was indicted for killing the Koesters at Indianapolis.

For using coins as an advertising agent two Terre Haute merchants were indicted for counterfeiting to make a test case.

Wants of the suffering Gogebic miners have been temporarily relieved, but the men and families will need help all winter.

The Torrey bankruptcy bill was killed in the House, members fearing it offered opportunity for looting.

Sub-committee of the House Banking Committee presented a measure repealing the State bank tax.

Democratic members of the Senate Finance Committee are getting ready to consider the tariff measure.

The Pan-American Bureau is tottering. With its fall—the last vestige of Mr. Blaine's scheme will disappear.

Great Britain and Argentine have entered into a treaty and Swindler Jabez Spencer Balfour will be sent to England.

Henry Cohn, traveling salesman for a Chicago firm, short by his accounts, committed suicide at St. Louis.

Robert T. Lincoln and John C. New were witnesses in the Howard case at Jacksonville, Tenn.

Zella Nicolaus, who is suing Geo. Gould, is a blackmailer according to Superintendent Byrne.

Relatives of Henry F. Page at Circleville are suing to secure the land he gave to the Ohio State University.

Fourteen days was a big success at the Aug. 24 Exposition.

In Marion Township, Mercer County, Ohio, it is found public school children are receiving sectarian instruction.

CRIME AND CASUALTY.

William Kater, a baker, was shot and killed at his place of business in Camden, N. J., by a burglar.

The schooner Avon, Capt. Crouse, from Lunenburg, went ashore at Liscomb, N. S. The crew was saved, but the schooner is badly damaged.

One of the crew reached shore from the wreck of the schooner Jason at Boston in a life boat.

Curt Davidson, the murderer of Birdie Baugh, the daughter of his employer, died in his cell in the county jail at Canton, Ohio.

Thirteen freight cars went into a river by a Louisville and Nashville bridge jumping near Boston, Ky.

Harpier Whitmer murdered his mother-in-law, and then disappeared in the hills at Butler, Pa.

R. F. Colburn, 70-year-old trapper, was found dead at Columbia, S. D., with an iron rod run through his head.

A locomotive on the Texas and Pacific exploded near the mile west of Eastland, Texas. The engine was running at that time at the rate of about eighteen miles an hour.

Frank Tansy, colporteur, who is wanted in Dayton, Ohio, for alleged complicity in the brutal murder of two ex-soldiers, was arrested at Chicago, Wednesday.

Patrick Eugene Prendergast was placed on trial for his life before Judge Brentano in the Criminal Court at Chicago Wednesday for the murder of Mayor Harrison on the evening of Oct. 28.

William C. Olds, a civil war veteran with a heroic record, died at his Chicago home.

James J. Van Allen, who was appointed Minister to Italy and then denied to serve, sailed for Europe on the Majestic.

Obituary: At Haslemere, England, Prof. John Tyndall, aged 73.

Obituary: At Oakbrook, Ill., Mrs. M. Allen, aged 60.

Obituary: At Bloomington, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

Obituary: At Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, aged 85.

THE FIRE RECORD.

John Davis was horribly burned and his life almost cremated in a prairie fire in the Cherokee strip.

Steamer Waldo A. Avery, grain laden, Chicago to Buffalo, was destroyed at Mackinac Straits. Loss $80,000.

Crystal Ridge mine, at Hazelton, Pa., is on fire. Four men are supposed to be impaled in the shaft.

A locomotive on the Texas and Pacific exploded near the mile west of Eastland, Texas. The engine was running at that time at the rate of about eighteen miles an hour.

At Langdon, Pa., fire swept away six dwellings. Four were occupied. Jacob Cunniff, 60-year-old child perished in the flames.

Wellington Hotel at Peoria, Ill., was damaged. One of the guests jumped from a third-story window. Fire in the navy yard killed two men.

Methodist elders, in convention at Fort Wayne, Ind., adopted resolutions against time limit in naming pastors.

Minnesota courts decided ex-Gov. Pillsbury and relatives may pay the State for timber lands.

Mexican rebels attacked the Government troops near Ascension and killed one of the officers.

Gov. Rich, of Michigan, will issue another proclamation calling for help for the suffering miners.

Liquor can no longer be sold in canteens in military camps in Canada.

Steamers made their way through the ice blockade at the west end of Lake Erie.

Four miners, hemmed in by fire at the Crystal Ridge mine, Hazelton, were rescued.

The Canadian customs cruiser Constance was caught in the ice sixty miles below Quebec.

More passenger conductors on the Chesapeake, Ohio and Northwestern were discharged.

Ministers in St. Louis have started a movement looking to the taxing of church property.

Three hundred men will resume work in the Pullman repair shops at Wilmington, Del., at a reduction of 20 per cent in wages.

The Tontine Investment Company, of Des Moines, has quit business, and President G. W. Stone and Secretary F. C. Brock have left town.

S. Hirschberg & Co., Boston, wholesale boot and shoe dealers, have made an assignment. The liabilities are about $160,000.

Brotherhood men rejoice over the outcome of the Lehigh Valley strike, which they claim is a victory for organized labor.

The Nelson Glass Company, at Muncie, Ind., has started its plant making bottles. All of Muncie's eight glass factories are now at work.

Anderson, Ind., the large dry goods house of G. G. Grimes & Co. was closed by creditors. Small sales owing to the hard times is said to be the cause.

The Georgia House passed the bill providing for the issue of currency notes by State banks.

The Grand Trunk receipts for last week show a decrease of $14,421.

Wholesale expulsions of students from Des Moines are being made as the result of investigation of acts of vandalism.

Overseers of Harvard decided to call the annex Radcliffe College, and to bestow degrees on girl graduates.

Howard W. Ream, who posed as a nephew of Norman R. Ream and victimized a Chicago housekeeper some time ago, is much wanted by the Herschoffs, the Rhode Island boatbuilders.

Rosa Crawford was picked up in Indianapolis shouting for food. Her mind is unbalanced from hunger.

Governor Lewelling, of Kansas, says he was once a tramp in Chicago, in the present acceptance of the term.

Friends of R. B. E. Pierce are working to save his Chicago home from the bank cases at Indianapolis.

Register Malone, of the Perry, O. T. land office, says an investigation will show no frauds were committed.

Old Mother Hubbard, notorious thief, has gone insane in Toledo's jail and will be kept in a hospital.

Queen Empress, monster English locomotive at the World's Fair, made a mile in fifty-two seconds near New York.

For subsidizing a noisy youth at his church Elder Disney was fined $32 in Clay County, Ind.

Four cases of typhoid fever have been discovered by the Chicago health officers, who are keeping close watch for the disease.

Mrs. George H. Williams, Portland, Ore., religious enthusiast, has finished a forty-day fast and resumed eating.

Only half a dozen have been received by General Fliegler, chief of ordnance of the United States army, and these were offered in accordance with the usual rules.

One of the widows was from Virginia, another from Wilmington, Del., another from

A SMOOTH SKIN GAME.

San Francisco, and a fourth from Boston. The first purchase is comprised 10,000 rounds of ammunition which is intended for the thirty-caliber small arms.

At the request of the miners' convention Gov. Richards has called an extra session of the Colorado Legislature.

At New York Clarence Handyside, the actor, has obtained an attachment against William E. Cody (Buffalo Bill) and Katherine Clemmons for salary which he claims is due him as an artist in the play 'A Lady of Venice.'

The Western Union will place underground its wires at Cleveland.

Ex-resourcer O. W. Crawford, ex-Auditor W. W. Place, W. W. Sutton, O. B. Ramsey and H. Gerdeeman were indicted for embezzlement of Putnam County, Ohio, funds.

A meeting was held at Washington to plan for the military encampment of the Knights of Pythias in August, 1914.

For the first time in many years, gambling-houses at Sioux City were raided and $100,000 worth of paraphernalia confiscated. Fifty arrests were made.

Evening papers printed in El Paso, Texas, are to circulate in Mexico, but the edition of the Morning Times was seized for printing news of the revolution.

The Morgan Engineering Company of Alliance, Ohio, has sued the Columbian Exposition Company for $25,000 damages for failure to supply sufficient power for the running of its overhead traveling cranes in Machinery Hall during the Fair, and injury to the machinery by reason of snow and rain coming through the roof.

Methodist elders, in convention at Fort Wayne, Ind., adopted resolutions against time limit in naming pastors.

Danbury (Conn.) hatmakers packed a town meeting and appropriated $30,000 to aid the unemployed.

George J. Gould has retained Bourke Cockran to defend him in Mrs. Nicolaus' suit for $50,000. The woman is in hiding.

Minnesota courts decided ex-Gov. Pillsbury and relatives may pay the State for timber lands.

Mexican rebels attacked the Government troops near Ascension and killed one of the officers.

Gov. Rich, of Michigan, will issue another proclamation calling for help for the suffering miners.

Liquor can no longer be sold in canteens in military camps in Canada.

Steamers made their way through the ice blockade at the west end of Lake Erie.

Four miners, hemmed in by fire at the Crystal Ridge mine, Hazelton, were rescued.

The Canadian customs cruiser Constance was caught in the ice sixty miles below Quebec.

More passenger conductors on the Chesapeake, Ohio and Northwestern were discharged.

Ministers in St. Louis have started a movement looking to the taxing of church property.

Three hundred men will resume work in the Pullman repair shops at Wilmington, Del., at a reduction of 20 per cent in wages.

The Tontine Investment Company, of Des Moines, has quit business, and President G. W. Stone and Secretary F. C. Brock have left town.

S. Hirschberg & Co., Boston, wholesale boot and shoe dealers, have made an assignment. The liabilities are about $160,000.

Brotherhood men rejoice over the outcome of the Lehigh Valley strike, which they claim is a victory for organized labor.

The Nelson Glass Company, at Muncie, Ind., has started its plant making bottles. All of Muncie's eight glass factories are now at work.

Anderson, Ind., the large dry goods house of G. G. Grimes & Co. was closed by creditors. Small sales owing to the hard times is said to be the cause.

The Georgia House passed the bill providing for the issue of currency notes by State banks.

The Grand Trunk receipts for last week show a decrease of $14,421.

Wholesale expulsions of students from Des Moines are being made as the result of investigation of acts of vandalism.

Overseers of Harvard decided to call the annex Radcliffe College, and to bestow degrees on girl graduates.

Howard W. Ream, who posed as a nephew of Norman R. Ream and victimized a Chicago housekeeper some time ago, is much wanted by the Herschoffs, the Rhode Island boatbuilders.

Rosa Crawford was picked up in Indianapolis shouting for food. Her mind is unbalanced from hunger.

Governor Lewelling, of Kansas, says he was once a tramp in Chicago, in the present acceptance of the term.

Friends of R. B. E. Pierce are working to save his Chicago home from the bank cases at Indianapolis.

Register Malone, of the Perry, O. T. land office, says an investigation will show no frauds were committed.

Old Mother Hubbard, notorious thief, has gone insane in Toledo's jail and will be kept in a hospital.

Queen Empress, monster English locomotive at the World's Fair, made a mile in fifty-two seconds near New York.

CONGRESS IS OPENED.

Farif, Silver, and Hawaii Among the Topics to Come Up—Galleries Crowded by Society People—Incidents in the Senate and House.

Scenes on the First Day. Washington correspondence.

THE 53d Congress is now in regular session assembled. The stars and stripes float over each end of the capitol—which signifies that both houses are doing business at the old site.

The same time. His scheme is to call on Harvard men, tell a plausible story of losing all his ready money, and borrow $40 or $50 by rail road tickets for himself and wife.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

CONGRESS IS OPENED.

Farif, Silver, and Hawaii Among the Topics to Come Up—Galleries Crowded by Society People—Incidents in the Senate and House.

Scenes on the First Day. Washington correspondence.

THE 53d Congress is now in regular session assembled. The stars and stripes float over each end of the capitol—which signifies that both houses are doing business at the old site.

The same time. His scheme is to call on Harvard men, tell a plausible story of losing all his ready money, and borrow $40 or $50 by rail road tickets for himself and wife.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity in the swindling case Ferdinand J. Thru.

The senatorial Thru case came to a close at Wausau, Wis., Friday forenoon, when the jury, who had been out nearly twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of acquittal.

This was in the case of Hanson, Robert F. Hanson, and all of these the now cleared from any complicity