 The Fairbury Fair Dealer, is publishing a very neat paper well filled with spicy local and prohibition news. The prohibitionists of this neighborhood ought to give it a warm support.
 Long Gong Chinese laundry has been moved to the basement in Hagerty Block, recently occupied by Ed. Reeb. He is prepared to do washy, washy, cheap and good. Give him a call.
 An amusing feature of the Chicago papers is to read on the editorial pages articles of condemnation of prize fighting, and then publish an eight or ten column report of the Corbett-Mitchell fight.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Leach, Thomas Weldon, S. V. Allison and Lafayette Tanner went to Gardner yesterday to attend the funeral of George Allison, which occurred there at 11 o'clock yesterday.
 Monday being Leila Barr's seventh birthday, three of her little friends surprised her by bringing many pleasant remembrances of the day, and taking tea with her. Miss Leila entertained right royally.
 W. H. Taylor will accept all kinds of silver money for coal at his 3-1 yards. It makes no difference whether they are 16 to 1, 20 to 1, or any other kind of dollars. They all go for coal at a reasonable price and 2,000 pounds to the ton every time.

Mrs. Mabel Huey returned home Thursday from Topeka, Kan., after a three month's visit with her brother Howard and other relatives. She enjoyed her visit greatly, but is pleased to get home again.
 A. R. Zimmerman, of the Lemont Observer, wants to know what "honorable" means. Several people in Dwight wish he would find out and act accordingly. This should be a pointer to the people of Lemont.
 Mrs. J. C. Lewis and Mrs. L. A. Naffziger went to Bloomington Thursday to attend the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Kern. Mrs. Kern died Wednesday evening, and the funeral was held Friday, and was largely attended.
 Marie Heath and her combination of artists gave a very nice entertainment at the opera house Monday evening, presenting "A Turkish Bath," to a good audience. There is nothing to the play but fun, and there is lots of that.
 Rev. France occupied the pulpit morning and evening at Congregational church and preached two excellent sermons, and his old friends were all pleased to meet him. He visited among them Monday and left for Sycamore Tuesday morning.
 It has gone up! not the price of coal, or Corbett, but Ed Reeb has gone up, and now occupies A. J. Deifenbach's old stand. Reeb & Reoder will be pleased to have all their old and new customers give them a call. They have smokers' supplies and clean bath tubs.
 The state encampment of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. will be held in Rockford, Ill., in April. It is very likely that Major Robert Mann Wood, of Galesburg, will be elected commander. He was the first adjutant general in the order, and no better selection could be made.
 If you want to keep posted in the east, west, north and south, the world over, take the Weekly Inter Ocean, Weekly N. Y. Tribune. Then, of course you want the home news. This paper and the above two for $2 a year. Please call your neighbor, if you don't want them.
 An Eastern paper says: "A young man in Carmel, Me., took his girl for a sleighride. She fell out and he drove a mile before noticing it." Well they don't sleighride that way out West. The young men all drive with one hand and sometimes the girl drives and leaves both arms loose to prevent accidents.
 See William Wykes & Co. before you contract your ice for next season. They are in the business to stay and will make a lower price than anyone will offer to secure the trade. They have contracted northern Wisconsin ice enough to supply the trade of the town and will sell at lowest prices, regardless of profit.
 Those who are posted upon the plays and players of the day need not be told of the sensation The Kendalls have created in their production of The Second Mrs. Tanqueray. The play is now running at Hooley's, in Chicago. The story of the play and a stinging criticism by Emil Friend will appear in the February number of The Chicago Magazine of Current Topics. Price 15c, $1.50 a year.
 We are in receipt of an invitation to attend a select dancing party given by the "E. O. T. Club," of Gardner, Ill., Friday evening, Feb. 9, 1894, in Jones's Opera house. McFarlane's orchestra of Joliet will furnish the music, and the tickets are but $1. Following are the officers of this club, C. A. Kewin, president; W. F. Peck, secretary; F. L. Root, treasurer. Their parties are all great successes.
 The Danish Lutheran church was crowded to its utmost capacity last Sabbath, both morning and evening. Rev. Grundtvig is a son of one of the most brilliant bishops in Denmark, and a man of great ability, and he preached two very fine sermons. Rev. Bekker and other gentlemen, who understand the Danish language, speak very highly of the prominent visitor.
 We are indebted to the Illinois Pure Aluminum Co., of Lemont, Ill., through their agent here, B. A. Buck, for a fine sample of the work they are turning out. Aluminum will surely take the place of tin and heavier material used for utensils, etc., on account of durability and lightness. Call at Mr. Buck's and see his samples. The Lemont Co. is one of the largest in the country.
 H. J. Clark, of the Pontiac Sentinel, and W. G. Dustin attended the meeting of Republican editors Tuesday and Wednesday at Peoria, Ill. There was a large attendance and much enthusiasm. The people of Peoria gave the association a warm welcome, the Board of Trade extending an invitation to their meeting Wednesday, and the editors were taken about the beautiful city in carriages Wednesday afternoon.
 Yesterday was ground hog day and up to the time of going to press it would be the animal to see his shadow any to speak of, unless he got up with the birds, but the g. h. is no bird. If the g. h. stands in and believes with Mr. Hicks, the weather man, he will go back in his hole and pull it in after him for six weeks. On the other hand if the g. h. wishes and persists in being his own weather prophet we will have an early spring.

Every subscriber of the STAR AND HERALD can have the CHICAGO WEEKLY INTER OCEAN one year free if they want it. How? Just get us one new subscriber paid in advance for one year and we will give it to you.
 The alleged editor of the Lemont Observer, Zimmerman, recently remarked in Dwight that he was glad "the Keeley Co. had no string on him." It's very doubtful if he knew what he meant when he said it, but one thing is sure, The Keeley Co. has befriended him in many ways and no person except one with the stamp of Judas Iscariot on him would ever do or say things against them that he has since he left Dwight. But it is no surprise to us.
 The young ladies of the Beatus Decem Club gave their first reception Saturday evening, Jan. 27th, at the home of Miss Mamie Ivens, and a very enjoyable evening was spent telling stories that a doctor would not offer as a prescription to promote sleep, and playing games of the season. At 9:30 refreshments were served by the pretty little hostess. At 10 o'clock they played their parting respects to Miss Ivens, and adjourned to meet at Miss Mable Trunnel's next Saturday evening.
 Prendergast, the murderer of Mayor Carter Harrison, was recently sentenced to be hung. In the February number of The Chicago Magazine of Current Topics, Dr. Daniel R. Brower throws some new light on the case, which will cast doubt upon the justice of the sentence. Those who have followed the interesting case, and especially those who read Attorney Trude's article in this magazine recently, should secure this article of Dr. Brower's. It is illustrated with numerous cuts. 15c a copy, $1.50 a year.
 We are in receipt of a handsome invitation to attend the first annual ball of Rescue Lodge, No. 406, K. of P., of Verona, Ill., to be given Thursday evening, Feb. 8, 1894, in Beal & Renne's Hall. The music will be furnished by McFarlane's full orchestra, of Joliet. Tickets including supper, $1.50. The committees in charge are: Executive R. G. Thompson, W. J. Kilmer, D. S. Beal; reception, G. Van Densen, N. Peterson, G. W. Smith, J. C. Pety; invitation J. D. Knibbs, J. D. Empie, L. S. Ward; floor, E. T. Hyslop, T. B. Allen, W. S. Pierce. The committees are composed of all wide awake gentlemen and everything will be done for the comfort and pleasure of all who attend.
 It should be understood by all that there was no time while the recent Lemont paper was published in Dwight that the proprietors of the STAR AND HERALD could not have stopped the issue by injunction proceedings, simply because A. R. Zimmerman violated his agreement in the bill of sale of half of this office to J. F. Wassell. The bill of sale provided that A. R. Zimmerman should not go into, canvas or in any manner, do printing business in Dwight. He immediately induced people here to start a paper and took the work at cost and went to Chicago and made the arrangements for patents in his own name, and made his brags how he would do us up. We know him, and knew he was not responsible, morally or mentally, and that we had nothing to fear. The Lemont people will soon find him out the same as he has been here. He gave his word in the presence of three citizens of Dwight to Mr. Wassell, that he would pay all his debts before he left Dwight. He did the same as he always did. Paid those who forced him to.
 The worst people on earth are the people who go into the stores, barber shops, pick up a paper, after they read it about half a day, drop it an say, "Oh, there is nothing in this paper, it ain't worth taking." If you want the paper to be interesting, help the editor out by giving him all the news you know of. If you are about to commit suicide and want it written up in a sensational manner, tell the editor; if you are married and contemplate eloping with the red-headed hired girl, tell the editor, and through his paper he will break the perhaps glad tidings to your wife; if you are laid up with rheumatism because it is too hot to work, tell the editor and he will make it just as serious as possible so that your prying neighbor across the way won't have an opening to say that you are a trifle lazy; if the baby cuts a tooth, or someone steals your umbrella, or in fact, anything, tell the editor, and you will find your paper as interesting as any of them, and you have the satisfaction of knowing that it is all so because you told it, although an editor's reputation for truth and veracity should never be questioned.—Ex.

COLLINS AGUE CURE.

A WARRANTED CURE FOR BILIOUSNESS.

Sick headache, constipation, jaundice, a coated tongue, foul breath, pains between shoulder blades, yellow skin and eyes, poor appetite, a dull heavy feeling, fever or chills, diarrhoea or flux, show that you are bilious and your liver is out of order. We warrant this medicine to cure it or the money will be refunded. It will cure the worst case of jaundice inside of a week. It is sold by all druggists with an absolute warranty. COLLINS BROS., MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, Mo.

ASTHMA. CROSBY'S ASTHMA CURE.

Cures ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, HAY FEVER, CATARRH and BRONCHITIS. Long experience proves that it never fails where the case is a curable one. It averts the most violent attacks immediately. Send for us for a free sample by mail. We do not want you to buy it unless it helps you. The thousands of chronic cases already cured by it are its strongest recommendation. It cures these where all other remedies and modes of treatment have had little if any effect. This is the only original Swedish treatment. Numerous attempts have been made to imitate it but without success. Price, $1.00 at druggists, or by mail. It will cost you nothing to try it. COLLINS BROS., MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, Mo.
