WRIGHT ILLINOIS
ESCAPED FROM JAIL

EMBEZZLER ARMSTRONG GETS AWAY AT KOKOMO.

Convicted of Using the County's Funds and Sentenced to the Penitentiary, He Saws Off a Bar on His Cell Door and Eludes the Jail Officials.

Wright, arrested on the charge of embezzling $4,000 of the public funds, escaped from jail at Kokomo, Ind., the other evening. While the jailer was feeding the prisoners he pretended to be asleep, and while the Sheriff was in a remote part of the jail he slipped out a bar previously secured on the second floor of the street entrance and was gone. He was not missed until morning. Watson Pitzer, of Tipton, who was in the conspiracy to release Cal before, was arrested suspected of a part in the plot. Armstrong was being attended at the trial. Armstrong was to have been taken to the prison on the day of his escape.

The Board of Trade, Duluth, Minn., was destroyed by fire. Loss, $200,000. Five men injured, two of whom were handicapped for life.

Melvern Crossworth, a mining man, claims to have found a deserted city in an unvisited section of Mexico.

Mike Gorman, express robber, caught at Salem, Ohio, will return to Saltillo, Pa., without a requisition.

Thirteen lives were lost in a mine at Plymouth, Pa. The men were caught by a cave-in. All the victims, with the exception of two, have families. One of those lost his wife only a month ago, and four little children survive them. Consequently the disaster may be even more grievous to the parents than to the children on the world's charity.

At Cedar Rapids, Iowa, in the case of Mrs. Artie Goovin of Chicago against the Provident Saving Life Assurance Society of New York and the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association, held by her husband, Matt Goovin, amounting to $5,000 at the time of his death in Chicago in November, 1891, the jury returned a verdict of $5,000, with interest amounting to $600. The trial comprised two days and the court session was engaged on both sides.

Delegates from all United States territory west of the Mississippi River and of the portion of Louisiana lying east of that river assembled at San Francisco in the special annual session of the Mississippi Commercial Congress. The object of the Congress is to consider questions relating to irrigation, arid lands, the silver issue, mining laws, public lands, matters relating to the department of the interior and the general commerce of the territory. Representatives from twenty-two States were present. W. J. McConnelly, of Boise City, Idaho, was the President of the Congress.

Hans Guido von Bulow, the distinguished German diplomat and nonagenarian, died in Cairo, Egypt. Von Bulow's career is one of the most remarkable among those of the great modern masters of music in Europe. He was born on the 22d of August, 1832. He had many other famous artists and creators in his field of art he did not give in early childhood the slightest indication of the remarkable gifts with which nature had endowed him. He was not until after a year that he evidenced a taste for musical study.

Admiral Saldanha Da Gama, the Brazilian rebel commander, who was wounded during the battle of Armaro, is in critical condition. It was at first supposed that the Admiral's wounds were insignificant; but it is now said that he is so seriously injured that he may die. Every effort is being made to save the Admiral's life. Admiral Da Gama was not one of those who originally rebelled against President Peixoto's authority. Previous to September of last year there had been rev. olutionary movements in various portions of the Grande do Sul and other provinces, but the insurrection against Peixoto's government was precipitated by Admiral De Gama, and his defection deprived Peixoto of his entire naval force.

The discovery of numerous $2 and $10 bills raised from $1 leads to the belief that a gang of counterfeiters is working McKeesport, Pa.

FRIGATE AND A 'SHIP OF THE LINE.'

A ship of the line, or battle-ship, as we should call it now, was a full-rigged ship, carrying 70 to 120 guns—the ship carrying 120—the line seems to have had a seventy-four-gun ship. It was heavily enough to form part of the line of battle. A frigate was a ship of the line, carrying 30 to 40 guns, and heavily enough to form part of the line of battle.
