Squire Thompson moved his office Thursday from the room in the Baker building to rooms over McWilliams & Smith's store. He has been located in the old place for many years. Long Gong Chinese laundry has been moved to the basement in Hagerty Block, recently occupied by Ed. Keel. He is prepared to do wash, wash, cheap and good. Give him a call. The regular weekly prayer meeting of the Epworth League next Sunday evening at 6.30, will be led by Mrs. E. T. Miller. Every young person especially invited. Fannie Conner, Sec. The band boys are getting along nicely, practicing most every night. They should receive the encouragement of all, and ought to be donated enough money for an appropriate uniform. Mr. John Binzen, of Joliet, visited over Sunday with the family of H. Groll. Mrs. Binzen has been in Dwight several weeks' taking care of her sister, Mrs. Groll, who is in very poor health. Bill Nye, the funny bald-headed man, and William Hawley Smith, author and poet, will be at the opera house on the 13th. That will be a great treat, and undoubtedly the opera house will be jammed. We notice among the marriage licenses at Pontiac that of Paul C. Heier and Ceslie M. Mickelson, of Dwight. We join the young couples' many friends in wishing them much joy and happiness. Are you going to get "Side Tracked" next Monday evening? The above is said to be one of the best plays on the road. See it Monday night at the opera house. Get your tickets at Barr & Davis' drug store. The STAR and HERALD is the only newspaper in this section of the state that offers the Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean with it for $1.50, or with the latter and the Weekly N. Y. Tribune for $2. Bear that in mind. Read Miller Bros.' advertisement on the first page. They are enterprising gentlemen, and that's the kind of people to trade with. Our readers will find something interesting in their space every week from this time on. Don't waste time talking about your neighbor. It doesn't count. He has already told the same thing about you that you tell about him, and people pay no attention to either one of you for they are talking about both of you. Rev. Tracey, of Chicago, occupied the pulpit at Congregational church Sunday morning and evening, and will preach to-morrow at the usual hours. Mr. Tracy is now engaged in seminary work and is a young man of excellent ability. Having placed a large order for wall paper with the Warren, Fuller Mfg. Co., of New York City, we find it necessary to reduce our stock to make room for our new goods. In order to do so we will give you bargains in wall paper for the next thirty days. W. H. Cain, Dwight. "Chip of the Old Block" Wednesday night was very good. It pleased some and some it didn't. It was fun from beginning to end, but the fun that pleases one will disgust another. It is hard to please all. The next is "Side Tracked" next Monday night. Get your seats reserved at Barr & Davis'. The English shire horse Noble Tom No. 2221 (10067) will be at Joe Eyke's in Emington, on Mondays and Tuesdays of each week at Tom Carnies in Emington, on Wednesdays and Thursdays at Reel's in Dwight on Fridays and Saturdays. Call and see him. John Filbisen and Chas. Grant, Odell. Thursday evening Miss Louise Leach gave a party to her friends and thus celebrated her eighth birthday. The young people were in attendance from 5 to 8 o'clock, and enjoyed a social visit and a more social entertainment in the way of games and other amusements. At 6 o'clock the young folks were invited to partake of the abundance of eatables prepared by the hostess' mother. After another hour of enjoyment, the young people left their best wishes with Miss Louise and departed for their homes.

We are in receipt of a handsome invitation to attend the commencement exercises of the Louisville Medical college, at Louisville, Ky., to be held Tuesday, March 6, 1894, at 2 o'clock, at Macaulay's theater. We notice among the graduating class the name of Dr. W. W. Weld, formerly of Dwight, and a graduate of about three years' standing. The doctor was at one time in the employ of The Leslie E. Keeley company. The annual business meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent Society of the Congregational church, met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Spencer. The officers for the coming year are: President, Mrs. Lewis; vice-president, Mrs. Buck; secretary, Mrs. Koshler; treasurer, Mrs. Adams; executive committee, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Doty. A pleasant hour was spent, after which a dainty lunch was served by the hostess. Homer Kenyon, of Chicago, is now occupying the position of secretary of The Leslie E. Keeley Co., in the absence of Major C. J. Judd, who is ill. Mr. Kenyon is a former postmaster of Dwight, is well known in this community, and has many friends who will be pleased to welcome him back, but at the same time hope to see Major Judd back soon with his health permanently improved. Mr. Kenyon's large and increasing business in Chicago is under the management of his son. Figures Won't Lie. There are people in Dwight who seem to take a delight in hatching up something continually that will belittle their own home. It is impossible to judge why people with property will persist in saying things, that if believed, would tend to lessen the price of property. Someone is circulating the story that eighty families in Dwight have been receiving support as paupers from the county. That is a false statement and the persons that made it knew it and were making it for the effect. It is not only a mean slur on Dwight but a mean slur on the people. It is a well-known fact that the hard times have been less felt in Dwight than any town in the state of Illinois of its size. Why? Because The Leslie E. Keeley Co's employees and patients here for treatment have kept a large amount of money in circulation all the time—at least $1,500 every week—going into the channels of trade. Another reason is that those that have money in Dwight and can spare it are very liberal and not a soul in this community is ever in need if the conditions are known. In other towns factories are closed and many handiworks are endured, and in some places saloon keepers get what little money there is in circulation, but in Dwight there has not been a business failure and the people generally are prosperous and happy. Supervisor J. Thompson informs us that no more than seven families have received assistance through him, which is not any more than in former years during general prosperous times, and that Dwight is wonderfully free from destitution. We have taken the pains to get the figures so that people may form no false opinion regarding Dwight and its condition. Following are towns, and it will be noticed that Odell and Chatsworth with half the population of Dwight, leads us in expenses, and that Indian Grove, with not more than 500 more population than Dwight, has expended more than three times as much in 1893: Round Grove $ 333 04 Newtown 479 79 Reading 481 12 Dwight 528 69 Chatsworth 540 56 Nebraska 573 83 Odell 707 20 Pontiac 1147 71 Indian Grove 1736 39

Death of Robert Miller. The following notice appeared in the Chicago Herald last Sunday: MILLER—Feb. 23, at 983 West Fifteenth st., Robert, beloved husband of Lydia E. Miller, and member of Unique Lodge, No. 343, K. P., aged 42 years and 2 months. Funeral Sunday, at 10.30 a. m. by carriage to Wisconsin Central depot, thence to Forest Home. It is hard, so hard, To break the cord, When love has bound the heart: 'Tis hard, so hard, To speak the word, We must forever part. The deceased was a son of John S. Miller, of Dwight, and had resided in Chicago for about twelve years. He was formerly a resident of Dwight, and for a long time an employee of the C. & A. Railroad. He had many friends here who will mourn his demise, and extend sympathy to his family. He was a brother of Marshall Miller. Up to the time of his death he had charge of the switchmen in the Wisconsin Central yards in the city, a responsible and remunerative position. Coming Attractions. "Side Tracked," Monday, March 5th. Bill Nye and Wm. Hawley Smith Tuesday, March 13th. For Sale. A Prince & Co. Automatic organ. Good mahogany case and everything in fair condition. Address me or call and see it. Will sell for $12. W. H. GRANT, Agent I. I. & I. R. Co., Wilson, Ill. Pay Your Taxes. The township collector wishes to inform all that he will be at his office at the Star Grocery every day from now until March 10, when the books will be closed. Please call at your earliest opportunity. THOS HARFORD, Collector.

The Ys. The Dwight Y. W. C. T. U. organization is increasing its membership rapidly, and their organization meetings are largely attended. There were over forty present at the last meeting, and the young ladies are working to become the banner Y of the district, with fair prospects of winning. The Odell Y is also trying for the honor. The young people of the latter are expected in Dwight next Friday evening, and the Dwight young ladies will give them a warm welcome. The Ys gave a fine social at the home of Miss Myrtle Wheatly last Friday evening. After the arrival of about fifty, the following program was rendered: Solo, Elmer Fenn; reading, Bessie Adams; duet, Misses Minnie and Addie Barr; recitation, Addie B. Fenn; solo, Miss Minnie Lower; recitation, Kittie C. L. Martin; quartette, Misses Barr and Huey, Messrs. Fenn and Meneely. After the reading of the pledge ten brave young men gave their names to the society. The rest of the evening was spent with games and other social ways. The Ys are booming. Neenah, Wis. Situated on Lake Winnebago, on the Wisconsin Central line, is a delightful place to spend a summer vacation. It is good boating and fishing and the hotels furnish good accommodations at very reasonable rates. This here that the famous "Roberts Resort" is located, overlooking the lake and containing all conveniences necessary to make an "outing" healthful and enjoyable. Located along this popular route are numerous other summer resorts, and those contemplating a summer outing will do well to drop a line to Jas. C. Pond, G. M. Pass. Agt., Milwaukee, Wis., and receive free copy of guide book, giving full information as to rates, hotel accommodations, etc.

"Hot Stuff." The advertisement of Miller Bros. last week woke the people up and woke some of the merchants up, and things were lively along East street all day Tuesday. A rival business house put out signs on dry goods boxes lowering prices, but Miller Bros. met them and went one better every time, and their store was crowded with customers. It all came about by advertising, but some people think it don't pay. Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
