John T. Nixon, vice-president Continental Printing company, St. Louis, Mo., a graduate of '91, was in town Sunday with a friend, who is now getting along nicely, and will go back to St. Louis a new man in four weeks. Mr. Nixon is a firm Keeley man and says any man that drinks after taking the cure "does so through pure cussedness, and not because the appetite returns."

Mrs. Ives, of Bloomington, Ill., State president of the Keeley League Auxiliary, was in Dwight Wednesday, on her way home from organizing an auxiliary at Morris, Ill. She was a guest of Dr. and Mrs. Broughton, and several friends were invited to dinner by Mrs. Broughton to meet Mrs. Ives. She reports a very successful organization in Morris, and is very enthusiastic regarding the work in general. The organization in Bloomington is doing nicely.

There was a large audience in attendance at the club entertainment Tuesday evening and it was conceded by all to have been a most excellent entertainment. Charles Eugene Banks of the Banner of Gold, was present and after making a brief address he gave several of his limber recitations.
