

Entered at the Postoffice in Dwight, as second class mail matter.

DWIGHT LOCAL NEWS.

Milk 4 cents a quart.
 Picture frames at W. H. Cain's.
 Fine new buggy for sale cheap.
 Eyes tested free at J. C. Lewis'.
 Go to W. H. Cain's for wall paper.
 A nice hat for $1 at E. T. Miller's.
 Meat for Sunday at W. E. Austin's.
 Easter cards and novelties at Baker's.
 Jim Seibert was in Chicago Sunday.
 Mrs. Anna Barr was in Chicago Tuesday.
 Peter Hansen was in Gardner, Thursday.
 William Taylor was in Gardner last Sunday.
 Geo. Hader, of Gardner, was here Monday.
 Mrs. Dr. McLean visited Chicago Monday.
 Leonard Howlett was in Joliet last Tuesday.
 A few seeders at cost to close out at Luther's.
 Geo. Flagler was in Joliet on business Thursday.
 Art Portfolios absolutely free at E. T. Miller's.
 Mrs. John Leach has been sick for some days.
 Rev. J. A. Fisher was in Chicago Wednesday.
 Mrs. Mary A. Gould was in Chicago last Sunday.
 Send your work to the Dwight Artisan laundry.
 Wm. Luther was in Gardner on business, Thursday.
 Miss Birdie Waters was taken ill on Wednesday last.
 Tony Kern spent several days in Indiana this week.
 Miss Bechtold spent a few days in Streator this week.
 Yardmaster Jas. J. Cronin spent Sunday in Chicago.
 Mrs. Stuck, of Odell, was in town several days this week.
 W. E. Austin has everything in the line of good meats.
 Mrs. Jas. Kelagher visited friends in Odell last Saturday.
 Ketcham & Smith have a small drug stock for sale or trade.
 Miss Mabel Owen is quite sick with the 'grippe and quinzey'.
 Fresh meal, graham and buckwheat flour at the Star Grocery.
 N. P. Knudsen, of Goodfarm, made us a call on Tuesday last.
 Miss Pauline DeVoir spent several days in Chicago this week.
 Chipped dried beef, boneless bacon and ham at the Star Grocery.
 Choice early Ohio seed potatoes and onion sets at the Star Grocery.
 Prices lower than ever, besides an elegant premium, at E. T. Miller's.
 Harry Lawrence's teas and coffees are giving excellent satisfaction.
 Albert Yates has returned from Iowa and will work here for the present.
 Call and see Leach and Reeb's line of ladies Oxfords, the finest in Dwight.
 Sons of Veterans meeting next Tuesday evening. All should be present.
 FOR SALE—One first-class seeder, used one season. Apply to T. Weldon.
 B. A. Duck says he has a very large trade on Radiant Home base burners.
 The best of canned and dried fruits at Rock bottom prices at the Star Grocery.
 Paints, oils, varnishes, porcelain enamel, varnish and oil stains at W. H. Cain's.
 Mrs. W. E. Fenn has been in Chicago this week, buying new spring goods.
 Harry Lawrence is selling the best grades of teas and coffees at wholesale prices.
 Miss McAllister, of Odell, visited several days this week with friends in Dwight.
 Joe Buffham and Wm. Taylor jr. attended lodge in Gardner Wednesday evening.
 The oil wagon is the handiest and cheapest place to get your supplies in that line.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. Gallup, of Emington, visited friends in town the first of the week.
 A few farm implements of the J. W. Sargent stock at cost to close out at Luther's.
 If you want an elegant double or single carriage please call at this office right away.
 Will Leach attended a reception by the Q. A. T. club in Gardner Wednesday evening.
 Remember ye who look for nice fresh meat, that Austin carries the very nicest meats.
 The best place to get your watch repairing done at reasonable prices is at Guardner's.
 The new seamstress sewing machine does not have a superior. Call and see at Baker's.
 "Snag proof" rubber boots are the same price as last year and are sold by Leach & Reeb.

C. Y. Trice, the hustling land advocate, was in Dwight for a short time last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Baker, who have been visiting in Delivan, returned home Thursday.

Mrs. J. Clausen is prepared to weave carpets and rugs in all styles and at reasonable prices.

Mrs. O. F. Pearce returned to Pontiac this week after a visit with her niece, Mrs. Theo. Hayes.

"Snag proof" boots, Leach & Reeb's, $25 takes one of Leach & Reeb's best team harness.

The largest stock of wall paper and decorations in Dwight at prices to suit the times at Baker's.

Mrs. Thos. Wilson and little daughter are here from Chicago, the guests of Mrs. Thos. Weldon.

Mrs. Bell, who recently had the misfortune of dislocating her thigh, is gradually improving.

Hon. Robert S. McIllduff, of Pontiac, was attending to legal business in Dwight last Tuesday.

Miss Frank Baker occupied the pulpit at the M. E. church last Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. Frank L. Smith starts Monday for Ogden, Utah, for a six weeks' visit with her parents.

Mrs. J. C. Lewis has been quite sick the first part of the week, but is feeling some better at present.

Peter Eldred was over from Wilson on Wednesday and made the STAR AND HERALD a profitable call.

Mrs. W. J. Hagerty, who has been troubled with erysipelas for the past week, is now much better.

To parties and socials I will furnish ice cream in quantities of five gallons and over for $1 per gallon.

Leach & Reeb have the exclusive sale, in Dwight, of the celebrated "Snag proof" rubber boots.

Messrs. J. R. Oughton, L. Howlett, John and Ed McWilliams went up to Chicago Tuesday afternoon.

Spring overcoats made to order at Miller Bros.' big merchant tailoring establishment from $15 to $18.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker have been here this week packing their household goods to remove them to Peoria.

Edward R. Morgan and wife, of Bloomington, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dwight C. Morgan here.

Henry Siegert sealed his hand quite badly while working about the boilers at the electric light engine house.

For sale cheap, a barber's outfit, consisting of three chairs, mirrors, stands and mug case. Anton Deifenbach.

Mr. J. D. Rutan died very suddenly at his home in Estherville, Iowa on the eighth inst. Particulars next week.

John Weldon, of Kentland, Indiana, spent a few days of the past week visiting his son, Thos. Weldon, of Dwight.

Teas, coffees, spices at Harry Lawrence's store in Dwight, next to Keeley laboratory. He is selling at wholesale prices.

Some of our citizens have already begun to make garden. The early work is liable to run abreast a late snow storm.

Ketcham & Smith have a nice neat house in good location and $500 in money to trade for a good residence in Dwight.

The side walks on Franklin st. from North st. to the 3-1 R. R. has been moved from the west to the east side of the street.

Mrs. James McIllduff, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, has regained her health and is now able to be around.

John W. Hurlay was out hunting at the swamps along the Johnny Run Creek a few days this week and returned well ducked.

Eugene Seymour left Wednesday for South Dakota, where he will remain for some time looking after the interests of his real estate.

At the council meeting last Tuesday evening an ordinance was passed, increasing the salary of the village clerk from $50 to $100.

For Sale, one-half interest in a Keeley Institute. This is a good layout for right party. Address, STAR AND HERALD, Dwight, Ill.

The street and alley committee were authorized last Tuesday evening to order a car load of lumber for use in building side walks.

Fancy Loaf flour 85 cents per sack, Minnesota Patent $1.15 per sack, Kosuth and Electric Light $1.25 per sack at the Star Grocery.

The band boys are putting in all their spare time practicing and if they keep on as they have begun Dwight will be proud of them.

A beautiful little ten pound daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mayes, last Friday night, and now that household is happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hayes departed Thursday for California, to enjoy a season in that glorious climate, and to visit the Midwinter fair.

John R. Oughton spent a day or two in Chicago this week reviewing the bench show, where several of his thoroughbreds are on exhibition.

Miss Fannie Wassen was compelled this week to give up her studies in the high school and return to her home in Nevada, on account of sickness.

An entertainment will be given with a phonograph at the club house tonight, under the auspices of the league. Over 100 choice selections will be given.

Farmers can get Chicago prices for produce, such as butter, eggs, etc., at Harry Lawrence's store in Dwight, in exchange for teas, coffees and spices.

H. F. Boyer removed Monday from Dwight to the home farm, and his father, G. W. Boyer, removed from the farm to the house vacated by H. F. in town.

M. Gordon, of the new firm of general merchants, arrived Thursday morning with some goods, and is getting his store room in order to open up on the 28th.

The judges for the coming village elections are Jesse Delfenbaugh, Lou Trunell and George Orr. The clerks are Chas. Crandall, Jr., and Frank L. Smith.

The first thunder storm of the year in this vicinity occurred on Wednesday night last. Thunder and lightning were very prominent factors in the storm.

Advertised letters.—L. F. Abbott, Mrs. J. G. Baker, Mrs. Ann Brown, C. Christensen, Mrs. S. P. Harrington, M. O. Raeton, Will Smith, Mr. W. A. Steiner.

Harry Lawrence has a cheap counter in his store, which takes in most everything needed by farmers. He will sell them cheap for cash or trade for farm produce.

Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean, New York Weekly Tribune and this paper one whole year to any subscriber who pays in advance, $2. Is that cheap enough?

Monday evening Henry Seigert had the misfortune of having his right arm badly scalded. Dr. Barr was called and immediately attended the unfortunate member.

A number of friends of Mrs. Carl and Joe Miller attended a party held at the home of Mrs. Joe Miller in honor of Miss Heinesfurther who has been visiting them.

Try International Stock and Poultry Food, at Gregg & Sterrett's, it is fully warranted to do just as advertised, or your money refunded. It will pay you to investigate.

All the old negatives for ten years back are preserved at Mickelson's gallery in the Keeley block, and duplicates can be secured at any time at very reasonable prices.

Home Seekers' Excursion, to Texas points at very reasonable rates on Feb 13, Mar. 13, Apr. 10 and May 8, 1894. For rates and information, apply to ALTON AGENT.

Miller Bros. are still making extremely low prices on tailor made suits. You can get a fine spring suit from $15 to $25. Fit, workmanship and goods guaranteed.

C. H. Lovewell, of Eldorado, Kansas, who is working for Ketcham & Smith in the real estate business, was in Dwight last Monday in consultation with his employers.

Cut rates to California and all western points by C. & A. R. R. You can go to San Francisco and return for $52.40 if you go now. Call at ticket office for information.

I have the exclusive sale of the Collins Ice Cream Co.'s goods, which are the best in Chicago. This company furnished over $100,000 worth to the World's Fair. D. F. Miller.

Owing to the severe sickness of Mr. Dustin for the past week, the shortage of help, and a big rush of job printing, we are not bragging much on the excellence of this particular issue.

We undertake to predict that if St. Patrick could make a visit in our neighboring towns the day after St. Patrick's Day, he would get another chance of showing his skill in ejecting reptiles.

Mr. Louis Schaefer, manager of the Livingston Hotel, is having the hotel office enlarged by removing the partition wall between the office and reading room and throwing the two rooms into one.

Miss Hainesfurther who has been visiting with her sisters, Mrs. Carl and Joe Miller, for two weeks left for Chicago Wednesday morning, where she will visit relatives and then return home.

Sore eyes, no matter how severe or long standing, are cured by Dr. Jackson's eye salve. It soothes and removes the inflammation and granulations at once. Can be had at any drug store at 25 cents a box.

J. M. Maguire, the thrifty and hustling general merchant of Wilson, makes his spring announcement in this issue to the farmers and buyers generally. Look at the advertisement and then go and see Mr. Maguire.

Two of our young hunters ransacked the swamps between Dwight and Nevada Tuesday, and according to their reports, which of course are true, this section presents an excellent opportunity for the study of zoology.

All the latest makes in hats, such as Knox and Dunlap shapes, at Miller Bros. big establishment. No use sending to the city for hats as we guarantee satisfaction, and will save you a dollar on every hat. Miller Bros.

The Prohibitionists have a county mass meeting advertised to take place at the court house in Pontiac, on Tuesday next at two and half past seven p. m. Rev. Joe Bell and Rev. O. M. Stewart are to be the principal speakers.

W. H. Cain has given unlimited care to the selection of his line which includes innumerable makes and grades of wall paper. White blanks from 10 cents a double roll up. Fine gilt paper from 12 1/2 to 75 cents per double roll.

Now is the time to go to California while the railroad war is on, $52.40 from Dwight to San Francisco and return, good to return inside of sixty days. Cut rates to intermediate points single and round trip. Call at C. & A. ticket office.

If you want to see the Midwinter Fair at San Francisco or go to California, take advantage of the cut rates and go now. The indications are that the war in rates will not last much longer. Call at C. & A. ticket office for information.

The Republican State central committee will meet in Chicago on April 10th to fix a date for their state convention and to make arrangements to attack the constitutionality of the late re-districting of the state into senatorial districts.

There will be regular services at the Congregational church Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Mr. Gould, of Chicago, who made a very favorable impression when he filled the pulpit five weeks ago, will again preach. All are invited.

Misses Maymie Barnum, Myrtle E. Wheatley, Gertrude Baker and Mrs. Willard S. Brown are in Chicago this week studying the spring styles in the millinery department of Gage's wholesale house, for the benefit of the customers of Miller Bros.

Very low rates for advertising in the "Dwight Herald" of newspapers—STAR AND HERALD, Gardner Tribune and Braceville Tribune. Twenty miles square of good territory covered. Address or call on Dustin & Wassell, publishers and printers, Dwight, Ill.

The Oasis Club held its regular meeting at the rooms of S. Thornton K. Prime. The evening was very enjoyably spent in playing progressive cinch, and after the prizes were awarded to the winners, the participants adjourned to Kyle's restaurant, where an excellent lunch was served them.

We have brought to Dwight this season one of the largest, best and cheapest lines of men's boys' and children's suits at phenomenally low prices. We will put them out at prices that no other dealer will dare to attempt to meet. All we ask is for you to step in and see what we have. Miller Bros.

"Dr. Bill" had about as many patients as he could well attend to last night at the Haymarket. The doctor's prescription was laughter in allopathic doses. The performance was an excellent one in every respect, the characters throughout being well sustained by an excellent company.—Chicago Journal

The Dwight Amusement Club gave its bi-weekly dance Friday evening, at the Lyceum Hall, and the usual good time, which characterizes the doings of this club, was enjoyed. The music was furnished by Evan's full orchestra, and about thirty couples were present.

Regular meeting of Dwight Post No. 626, G. A. R., at the usual place, Tuesday evening, March 20, open promptly at 7:30. All comrades are earnestly requested to be present.

F. W. FORD, C. W. AYLING, Adj. Com.

Mr. Peter Hansen, who has been farming two miles west of town for twenty years, last Tuesday removed to Dwight, and is occupying one of Mr. Grush's dwelling houses. Mr. Hansen's health has been such as to compel him to lead a life of quiet and rest for some time to come.

Anyone wanting carriage painting done nicely, apply at the store of W. W. Cain, in the Frank Ford store, Dwight. Mr. Cain has with him Mr. Mack, late of Studebaker's great carriage depository, in Chicago, a very fine workman. All kinds of carriage and buggy work done at reasonable rates and on short notice. Give us a call.

For the third time during the present season "Dr. Bill" last evening consulted with his Brooklyn patients. His monster brass sign was hung out on Lee avenue. A friendly audience filled the playhouse and applauded vociferously the mirth-provoking incidents of the piece. The play was interpreted by the strong and well arranged company, which has hitherto performed in this city.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A Dwight citizen who is a little jealous of the promiscuous use of military titles, upbraided a certain citizen the other day for assuming a fellow citizen as "General." "What do you mean," said he, "by calling him General? Why he was never in the war nor belonged to any military organization." "I know all that," said the upbraided man, "but all the same he is commonly known as General—general liar of the town."

Our readers' attention is again called to the big advertisement of Miller Bros. These gentlemen have an immense establishment filled with the choicest goods in the market, at prices which close up all competitors, and they are taking the right method of checking the trade which has been going from Dwight, but rightfully belongs here and bringing it back once more, by telling the buyers what they have and what they can get it for, in neat advertisements in this paper. They are the readers out for trade.

New New New
GORDON BROS.
 Will open
A New Store in Dwight
 ABOUT
MARCH 24, 1894, in the Ed. Breen Building, East Street, where we will present a fine selected stock of DRY GOODS. HATS, CAPS, LADIES' & GENTS' NOTIONS. CHILDREN'S FURNISHING BOOTS and SHOES, CLOTHING, GOODS.

Wait for the Opening!
 We will show a large line of Spring Goods.

Prices will be the lowest. Talk is cheap, but remember our opening is to be on or about MARCH 24. We hope to be ready to show goods and convince you all that we MEAN EVERY WORD WE SAY. DON'T FORGET OUR GRAND OPENING, on or about MARCH 24.

GORDON BROS., Dwight, Ill.

J. M. MAGUIRE,
 WILSON, ILL.,
 Dealer in General Merchandise,
 FARMING IMPLEMENTS, BUGGIES, WAGONS, COAL, ETC.

John Deere Plows and Cultivators, Deere & Mansur Cutaway and Disc Harrows, Rock Island Superior Cultivators, Plows and Harrows, Hoosier and Bloomington Seeders, "Wild Irishman" Riding Plows, Corn Planters, Eagle Claws, (King & Hamilton Gophers.) Call and examine and get prices before you buy.

Buckeye Binders and Mowers
 Agent for CARRINGTON, HANNAH & CO., Grain Dealers, of Chicago.

CLOSING SALE OF WALL PAPER

We will close out our entire stock of WALL PAPER at the following price a double roll:

Former Price	Closing Price
10c	7c
15c	9c
20c	10c
25c	15c
30c	18c
35c	20c
50c	35c

LIGGITT & LIGGITT,
 GROCERS.
 EAST STREET, DWIGHT, ILL.