If you want to see the Midwinter Fair at San Francisco or go to California, take advantage of the cut rates and get now. The indications are that the war in rates will not last much longer. Call at C. & A. ticket office for information. Mrs. W. E. Austin and son returned from their sad journey to Maple Park, where the burial of Mr. Austin took place Sunday. They will remain in Dwight during the summer probably. Mrs. Austin's mother accompanied her to Dwight. I wish to extend my hearty thanks to the young people of the district for their faithfulness and kindness in assisting at the entertainment mentioned last week, feeling that to them the success of the effort is largely due. Clay D. Parker. Lee McConnell was in town visiting his wife's folks this week. He has sold out his billiard hall in Campus and expects to go into business in Clark City in the near future. Lee thinks Clark City has a bright future and will be a great town for the next five years. Miller Bros.' cloak sale this week was a grand success, they disposed of a large number of elegant spring and summer wraps of all varieties. Their sales are very popular and attract the attention of all. Their prices and goods are right and that's what counts. W. H. Cain this week announces his business in a fine display "ad" in the STAR AND HERALD. Mr. Cain is doing some first-class work in Dwight, which we are glad to testify to. He is using the right method of bringing his business before the people—by advertising. Percy Denton's minstrels gave a very fair show at the opera house Wednesday evening. It was purely minstrel and specialty and averaged up fairly with all minstrel shows. They take well everywhere once in a while. The next show is Dr. Bill and comes highly recommended. Notice the change in Gordon Bros. ad. this week. The new firm has opened a prettily arranged store and seem to have a very nice assortment of goods. They are unassuming but believe in advertising and letting the people know "where they are at" and what they are here for. The performance of "Dr. Bill" at the Academy of Music yesterday proved most enjoyable. The play is immensely amusing and is a good effort in the line of legitimate comedy. Its complications are logical, though improbable, and they are numerous and rapid. —Washington Star. Here the 29th. Ame Orr returned from Chicago Saturday with the Dwight Kennels. He has had one complete round of successes, having taken nearly everything in sight in the Gordon setter classes in all the bench shows in the country. Mr. Oughton has a very valuable lot of dogs and there is no better in the country. We have brought to Dwight this season one of the largest, best and cheapest lines of men's boys' and children's suits at phenomenally low prices. We will put them out at prices that no other dealer will dare to attempt to meet. All we ask is for you to step in and see what we have. Miller Bros. Charlie Wheeler, who has been with the popular firm of Miller Bros. in Dwight, for the past two and a half years, will a few days take the road as traveling salesman for R. P. Smith & Sons' Co., manufacturers and wholesalers of fine shoes. Charlie's many Dwight friends wish him immediate and unbounded success. Easter services at the M. E. church next Sunday. The pastor will preach an appropriate sermon in the morning. An evening there will be an Easter missionary concert, rendered by the Sunday school. The church will be tastefully decorated. Sunday school convenes at 9:30 a. m. Epworth league led by Miss Mary Conrad, at 6:30. The readers of the STAR AND HERALD can do no better anywhere than to look over the columns of the STAR AND HERALD before making purchases. Our advertising columns include nearly every kind of business in Dwight and you will find them all first class people to trade with, and people that sell goods and do business on the principal of "live and let live." Probably our readers will notice that our advertising pronounage at present is very good. It is easily explained by the fact that people are reading advertisements in the STAR AND HERALD for bargains, and they are finding them and saving money by it. It pays to keep before the people and we can prove it, because farmers have told us they have saved money by reading the ads. in this paper. The very funny English comedy, "Dr. Bill" was brought out the first time in Buffalo at the Academy of Music last evening and was enjoyed by a large audience. The piece certainly made a hit if the constant mirth and merriment of the spectators was any criterion. It is extremely amusing, and some of the situations were quite novel.—Buffalo Commercial. At opera house Thursday evening, March 29. "Dr. Bill," a comedy in three acts, by Hamilton Alde, was presented at the Lyceum last evening by a very good company. It is not too much to say that this is one of the best farce-comedies ever written. The tangle in the second act is as complicated as it well could be, and the climaxes succeeded each other in a very desirable way for those that came to laugh.—Detroit News. Dwight Opera House Thursday evening, March 29. Two hundred and thirty feet of flagging arrived Tuesday to be put down George Z. Flagler, a joint enterprise of the city and Mr. Flagler. The same number of feet will soon arrive to be put down in front of Geo. N. Flagler's home. It will pay private individuals to inquire into the cost of these enterprises and act accordingly. There is no wear out to flagging, no nails to come loose and ends to fly up, etc. They are permanent and secure. The closing of the dancing school Thursday evening at Lyceum hall, was a very pretty and entertaining affair. The little ones were many of them in evening costume and looked very pretty. That the school has been a success there is no doubt in the mind of any who have seen the dancing. It was indeed wonderful to see the little folks take their places on the waxed floor and go through the lancers or any quadrille very gracefully and without mistakes. There were a large number of parents and friends present, who seemed to enjoy the occasion as much the younger ones. After repeated visits to "Dr. Bill," who is practicing at the Garden Theatre, the public appears to be quite unanimous in praise of its merits and merits and amendments. The wit, the satire, the situations and dances are keenly appreciated and warmly applauded. Indeed, the fun which begins with the Kangaroo Dance by Miss Fauntleroy to perfection, and goes on until it reaches the key down the back of Miss Norton, finishing with Dr. Bill's ludicrous exclamation, "Oh! the supper I ordered for £20 and not there to eat it!" has seldom, if ever, been equaled on the New York stage. The stage setting of "Dr. Bill" is fine.—Times, New York. Here the 29th. Religious Services. The regular Evangelicals will hold their next meeting April 1, at 3 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Petersen, where the undersigned lives. This will be the last meeting before the session of the annual Ill. Conference, which will convene at Barrington, Ill., the following week. B. C. WAGNER. New Firm. Will Scott and Sam McDonald this week purchased the meat market plant of the late W. B. Austin, which they now are running under the firm name of Scott & McDonald. The latter has closed up his market in the Mickelson Block, and now there are only two in town. Will Scott has been in the grocery business for a long time in Dwight, and is an accommodating and pleasant man to do business with and has lots of friends. Sam McDonald is a first-class butcher and buyer and has made lots of friends during his residence in Dwight. The new firm are hustlers and will undoubtedly get their share of the trade. Many Thanks. We wish to return many thanks to those of our subscribers who have kindly remembered us with their subscriptions, and hope all others will do likewise as soon as convenient. The times are hard, and as our income comes principally from $1.25 from each one of our subscribers it is important that each one attend to the matter. We are still offering, and will continue to do so for a few weeks, the Weekly Inter Ocean one year for only 25c. extra—$1.50 for the two—or $2 for the Weekly New York Tribune, the Weekly Inter Ocean and our paper. This will only last a short time. Elevator Improvements. Hahn Bros. & Co. are constantly making improvements in their buildings and business. The latest is an 8-horse power gasoline engine, which has been placed in position in the south elevator. They have also a new oats and corn cleaner, and have added capacity for 20,000 bushels of oats, total capacity now for 85,000 bushels. They have five dumps, so there is no delay regarding different colored oats. The boys pay the highest market prices and are accommodating and pleasant people to deal with. They are progressive and right up to the times, and are meeting with excellent success. The Sewer Case. The sewer case which J. A. Hayes instituted on Dwight is now before the supreme court of Illinois. Northern Grand Division and is set for this month. The briefs and arguments have been filed and there is not much doubt but the case will be reversed. Messrs. Mayo & Widmer, one of the best law firms of Ottawa, Ill., have charge of the case for the Village of Dwight, and the arguments presented by them are very fine, and they certainly bring out points that have not been brought out before, and prove conclusively that Mr. Hayes encouraged the building of the sewer at a meeting of the town board when the subject was first broached, and even went so far as to state how the village could get around McWilliams' land if he, (McW) objected. The argument of the attorneys for the village is very complete and convincing, and with those who have read it, there is no doubt of a decision for the village. There never has yet a similar sewer case been finally decided against a corporation and there probably never will be.
