ANNOUNCEMENTS.

REPUBLICAN.

FOR SHERIFF.

We are hereby authorized to announce Edward O. Bond, of Pontiac, as a candidate for Sheriff of Livingston County, Illinois, subject to decision of the Republican county convention.

The woolen mills at Lacon started up this week. A general cut in wages of fifteen per cent. was made and the mill will run to fill orders, but not to manufacture any surplus.

There have been several failures in Streator during the hard times. Streator is one of the places where the saloon keeper gets the money and the merchant gets the finger. We have no failures in Dwight.

The case of Daniel Murphy, of Morris, for murder, was settled last week by the jury bringing in a verdict for fifteen years in the penitentiary. It was the outcome of a saloon row in which he was engaged and got the worst of it until he threw a bottle at some one and killed the man Stevenson, who had nothing to do with the row, but was in the saloon.

Several newspapers round about us came out with yellow covers and called them Easter numbers, probably because they were about the color of the yolk of an egg. These covers were furnished by a patent medicine firm in Indiana, and all they asked was for the publisher to pay the express and circulate about fifteen columns of free advertising on the cover. It was a great scheme for the p. m. m., and he found lots of sucker publishers. The publisher gave about $150 worth of advertising for a $20 cover.

The next election in Dwight is the municipal election, which takes place Tuesday, the 17th. It is very evident to close observers that the anti-license ticket, headed by Frank A. Haise, will be elected by a large majority. The ticket is composed of excellent material from top to bottom, and would administer the affairs of the city for the interests of all. Dwight has now been in the anti-license column for thirteen years and the people will run no chances for the future by voting for anyone who is not a known anti-license man.

More Room.

It will be noticed by the readers of the STAR and HERALD that owing to our increased patronage in advertising it has become necessary for us to have more room for home reading matter and now six pages of our paper are printed at home, and the whole cut into two sheets so that it is not necessary for you to dislocate your arms to see what is on the inside pages. We hope in the near future to be able to print all our paper at home. The merchants of Dwight are coming more and more to appreciate the benefits of advertising, properly conducted, and the readers of our paper inform us that they save money by trading with liberal advertisers, so that in time the space will be taken, sufficiently so we can print all at home. Two years ago we only printed two pages at home, now we print six.

Pontiac Pick-ups.

Saunemin elected a straight republican ticket. Jim Morrow beat E. I. Johnson 399 majority. Jim is a republican sprinter from away back. Chas. L. Bigelow, of our city, is a republican candidate for the nomination for county clerk.

Henry Brennan, of Sunbury, and Ellen Moran, of Nevada, were granted a license to wed, this week.

The 'Temple of Fame' was given in Pontiac last night by the young ladies' society of M. E. church.

The result in the county as regards the board of supervisors is still democratic by one majority. It stands as follows: Democrats 16, Republicans 14. Prohibitionists 1. In Newtown J. P. Gueaney, democratic and Fred Ide, republican, were a tie, and the former won by casting lots. Ide had won the prohibitionist would have been the biggest man in the county for a year. Mike Cleary will probably be chairman again.

The old race track and handsome shady grounds be owing to Mr. Vance, have been leased and Pontiac is to have races again this year. A political year is a good one for races and there will be lots of entries. A recent meeting was held at the Phoenix hotel, and judging from the officers elected it is thought the new venture should be successful. They are as follows: President, J. E. Morrow; vice-president, R. M. John; secretary, R. F. Branford; treasurer, C. F. Cook; executive committee, N. M. Kirkpatrick, Lee Calkins, John B. Cook, W. T. Ament and George Klies. It is proposed to allow the public to use the grounds for driving purposes.

Odell.

The Congregational church was presented with a handsome piano recently which is greatly appreciated.

The Gebhardt were convicted of keeping a disorderly house and their fines and costs will amount to about $400.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Baker celebrating their golden wedding last Friday evening. They were married 50 years ago at Cross Roads, Prince Edwards Island.

There will be the same dirty fight over license and anti-license this year. One of our foremost citizens, a gentleman of wealth and standing, declares if license is granted he will move away. He don't propose to have his family reside in a place where saloons have sway and the tough element rules the town.

Patrick Brady, an old resident of Emington, died at his late home early Tuesday morning. His death was not known to any member of the family until his grandson came to wake him up in the morning. The body was brought here Wednesday and buried in the Catholic cemetery by the side of his daughter who died at the home of Hon. M. Cleary a few months ago.—Odell paper.

Dead.

Capt. Geo. W. Wentz, well known in Dwight, died at Garwin, Ia., March 28. We have a paper from there which was received too late to publish the full account, but will do so next week.

Visited Our Schools.

Wednesday and Thursday of this week our schools were visited by assistant county superintendent, Miss Hamilton, of Pontiac. Each department was taken up in turn. Miss Hamilton has been engaged in this business for many years and is very efficient in her duties. She spoke very highly of the Dwight schools generally.

Sad Death.

Mrs. Mary Ivens, wife of Capt. Ivens, of the baggage service on the C. & A. R. R., and mother of Bert and Miss Mamie Ivens, of Dwight, strayed away from her home in Chicago on Friday last during an aberration of the mind, and was not recovered by her relatives until Tuesday morning, when the afflicted woman was found among entire strangers in a distant part of the city. She died soon after being taken home from the exposure she had undergone. The remains were brought here yesterday, and were interred in the afternoon, the funeral services being held in the M. E. Church. The sympathy of the public is extended to the bereaved ones.

Death of Claude W. Thompson.

The above named young man, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thompson, of Union departed this life last Tuesday, at the early age of sixteen years, after a sickness of about two weeks with pneumonia. Claude was a young man of great promise, and was just about to turn the scale from boyhood to manhood, full of hope for the future. He was the pride of his family and his death was a terrible blow to them all. The funeral was held Friday at 10 a. m., at the residence, and was largely attended, many from Dwight being present. The burial took place at McDowell's cemetery. The sorrowing family have the sympathy of all.

Death of Nicholas Minster.

The above gentleman, father of Mrs. Geo. L. Kern, of Dwight, passed quietly away at his home in Ottawa, Ill., Friday, March 30, and the funeral was held Sunday, being largely attended by many relatives and friends. The deceased was sixty-seven years of age.

Mr. Minster lived on a fine farm near Ransom for many years, and was often a visitor to his daughter in Dwight. He moved to Ottawa a few years since. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Kern were summoned to Ottawa Monday week, and at the time of death the deceased was surrounded by all his family. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Kern, of Dwight, and Mrs. Bowermaster, of Ottawa. Mr. and Mrs. Kern returned from their sad visit Tuesday. The many friends of the family extend sympathy to the bereaved ones.

A New Postmaster.

Wednesday's Chicago papers announced the appointment of a new postmaster at Pontiac, Dr. James J. Pearson. The doctor is an old resident of Pontiac and has done a great deal of work for the democratic party, having served as chairman of the county central committee.

The circumstances at Pontiac were as follows: The republican postmaster died there about two years ago and the present incumbent, Ralph Bradford, republican, was appointed for four years, while his predecessor had already served two. The question arose as to whether Mr. Bradford would be allowed to serve a full term or not, giving the republicans six years control. It was generally believed in Pontiac that he would, because every effort possible had been made to get him out by the democrats, and nothing apparently had been done. But just as the republicans are celebrating their big victory, news comes of Pearson's appointment and the democrats are made happy. Mr. Bradford was an excellent official, and has the good will of all.

ELECTION.

The Republicans seem to have Made Almost a Clean Sweep.

The election in Dwight passed off very quietly, as it generally does under the Australian system. The result was a surprise to those not posted, but it was predicted by those who had felt the public pulse, that the Republican ticket would be elected by from 75 to 100 majority. As the STAR and HERALD predicted, the Republicans voted pretty straight, they casting 203 straight ballots, and the Democrats only 83. The result is as follows:

Table with columns for candidates and vote counts for Supervisor, Town Clerk, Assessor, Collector, and School Trustee.

NOTES.

E. T. Miller is getting to be a great runner. Both tickets were composed of good material.

The average Republican majority is about 118.

Ketcham, Trunnell and Gemmill ran about even.

It is reported that Lee Reeder has not stopped yet.

There were 463 votes cast. There are about 550 in the township.

Geo. S. Baker did not want the clerkship, and said if he was elected he would not qualify.

ROUND GROVE.

The election in Round Grove resulted as follows:

Table with columns for candidates and vote counts for Clerk, Assessor, Collector, Road Commissioner, and School Trustee.

NEVADA.

The following democratic ticket was elected in Nevada by the usual majorities: Supervisor, Austin Gibbins; clerk, P. H. Langan; assessor, Owen Feehen; collector, P. H. Ready; commissioner, P. E. Bjordand; justice of the peace, Samuel Ribumbach; constables, Frank Lyons, Wm. Gutel; school trustee, Jerry Turner.

GOODFARM.

The following republican ticket was elected by a majority of 22, with the exception of Alex Preston, who ran a little behind: Supervisor, Wm. Conant; clerk, Theodore Zingrebe; assessor, Alex Preston; collector, E. L. Henry; commissioner of highways, Adolph Bark; constable, Geo. Hoffmann; school trustee, J. A. Hayes.

FAIRBURY.

The republican ticket was elected by majorities ranging from 74 to 340. Those elected are town clerk, Smith Olney; assessor, Geo. W. Bennett; collector, W. M. Robinson; commissioner of highways, George Crouch; school trustee, Ben Cumpston.

AVOCA.

Supervisor, J. W. McDowell, republican; collector, B. Pearson, democrat; assessor, L. Hutchinson; commissioner of highways, A. Morrison; town clerk, T. Stockham, republicans.

ODELL.

M. Cleary, supervisor, and E. T. Metz, assessor, democrats, were elected, and the balance of the republican ticket was elected by good majorities. Cleary seems to be invincible.

PONTIAC.

The following straight republican ticket was elected in Pontiac Tuesday by majorities ranging from 50 to 400: Supervisor, James E. Morrow; clerk, W. S. Lacey; assessor, E. M. Shroyer; collector, Wilson Pettenger; commissioner of highways, C. C. Allen; constable, D. W. Herbert. The ticket was elected by the largest average majority for years. Ed. Johnson, democratic candidate for supervisor, was defeated by a large majority.

Streator elected the entire republican ticket for the first time in years.

Ottawa elected a democratic ticket with the exception of collector and highway commissioner. The democratic majority of 449 was cut down to 30. Braidwood went republican.

E. L. Henry, of Goodfarm, was in town Wednesday with cigars. He was elected collector in his town by 23 majority out of 114 votes.

Will Probably Die.

An unfortunate man whose name is supposed to be M. J. Madigan, fell from an Alton train two miles south of Dwight some time in the night of Wednesday, and was badly mangled. His jaw was broken on both sides and hung down, his skull fractured in two or three places, and he was otherwise badly bruised, the wonder being that he has lived so long. The engineer on the early morning train north notified the depot people here that the man was injured or killed, and yardmaster Cronin went out with an engine and brought the unfortunate man in. He was taken to the town house, the road physician, Dr. Barr, was called and made the man as comfortable as possible. He lay there all day Thursday gasping, and was expected to die most any time, but still he may live. From letters it was discovered that he had relatives in Baltimore, where word was sent. An answer was received from his brother to send his remains to him if he died. Of course there are many ways the accident may have happened, but probably no one will ever know how it did occur. Madigan is a bookbinder, having a card in his pocket from the St. Louis union, and had about $3 in money.

School Notes.

There has been a re-arrangement of the program this week. Prof. Wilson needing more time to visit the other departments. Frank Donigan has left school and is now employed at well drilling. Howe Parker has been absent this week on account of sickness.

The Zoology class dissected a land terrapin Tuesday.

George Kern Jr. presented the high school with a live turtle on last Monday morning. We wish others would follow his example.

John Goodspeed returned to school Thursday.

There was quite a shooting tournament held at Cabery last Thursday and Friday, at which were teams from Dwight, Kankakee, Gilman and Cabery, representing Kankakee, Livingston, Iroquois and Ford counties. We notice by the Cabery Enterprise that Bob Orr divided second money in the first, second, third and fourth shoots. Sleszer, of Dwight, divided third money in the first and second, and got first in the fifth shoot. Geo. Tate, of Dwight, divided third money in the third and fourth shoot. In the team shoot the Kankakee team won first, Gilman second, Cabery third, and Dwight brought up the rear. Boys, brace up.
