We, Clark City citizens, are pleased to learn that the Essex correspondent for the Democrat is of that nature as to know when things have gone far enough and hope there will be no further cause for such wrangling and do not think there will be providing people leave us alone. One cannot blame another for sticking up for their own town and belongings. But when we read it we thought it was a great deal of noise from a weak stomach. (Although we do not feel quite so insignificant since the election) we think it would be much better for both sides to remember that a close mouth makes a wise head.

Pope property and has moved into the property formerly occupied by Thomas Reay. The Braceville Volunteer Fire Department held its general meeting Thursday evening. Mrs. Harry May returned last Monday from her California trip, and although she was very glad to get home again she enjoyed her visit to the Midwinter fair. Mr. Marvin, living near Gardner, had the misfortune to lose a very fine colt last Sunday. The animal, while running in the pasture, was badly cut by running into a fence. Nibbe's Burlesque Co., who played at the opera house last Friday evening, had a good house and gave a fair show. Their entertainment consisted chiefly of variety. T. T. Smith has more store room now that the postoffice has been removed and has the space well filled with a new stock of shelf hardware which makes a nice display. The Chicago Herald man was here Wednesday, booming the circulation of his paper. We did not learn with what success he met, but we judge it was abundant for we of Braceville are a reading people. 28th Annual Encampment of Illinois Dept. G. A. R. and W. R. C. at Rockford, Ill., May 15-17, 1894. Excursion tickets will be sold on May 14 to 17 inclusive. Final limit May 18, 1894. One and one third fare for round trip.

The Braceville Cornet Band was entertained at the home of Robert Glasgow last Saturday evening. They enjoyed a social dance and a splendid supper, and had a very nice time all around. The band is doing good work and lots of it, and they deserve the encouragement they are receiving on every hand. The Pythian Sisters gave a very enjoyable entertainment in the shape of an "apron and necktie" social, given in Malcolm's hall, last Tuesday evening. All the sisters and a goodly number of knights were present and every one enjoyed a delightful evening and will always answer an invitation from the sisterhood. David Abram, our hustling tonsorial artist, left here Tuesday for Morris, and the gossips said he went there for the express purpose of being married. How they came by all this knowledge, we do not attempt to say, but if it is not so we will apologize next week. The young lady is Miss Mary Granger, of this place. It has been rumored that David Treharne intends to move his tailor shop to Coal City. The many friends of Mr. Treharne are sorry to learn that we are so soon to lose one of our best and most popular business men. The gentleman has for a number of years conducted a large tailoring business and every customer was a warm friend. We wish him success wherever he goes.

Campus.

It will be ready for use about the middle of June. There will be a dance in Peehery's hall next Friday night. Music will be furnished by Winn Bros., of Galesburg, Ill. M. R. Walsh shipped a car load of hogs this week. Mike is a hustler and pays the highest market prices for hogs and grain. Has anybody heard anything about our marshal? It seems strange for a man to live in Emington and draw a salary from this town. That is some more of corrupt government. Have you heard about the second caucus held in this village? The people have had enough of one sided ruling in this village and it will be shown at the polls next Tuesday. What's the matter with our street lamps these dark nights? When the head of our village board allows the funds to be expended in this way it is about time to look for a man that will not. It has been rumored that our old village board is coming out for low license this year. Why did they not do this when they had full power to act? Because they thought then they had everything their own way, now when they see a low-license party they think the only show is to do the same. But they come too late. They cannot gain the badly needed votes in that way.
