Mrs. Frank Bell visited friends in Pontiac this week. Fox is running on the "shade tree" platform this year.

Largest line of books ever in Dwight at the book auction. The polls open at 7 and close at 4 o'clock next Tuesday.

We received a pleasant call from W. E. Morris Wednesday. Notice the announcement of the book auction this week.

Vote the straight anti-license ticket, and be on the safe side. If you want a bargain in gasoline stoves call at Luther's.

Head-light oil and gasoline oil 12c. per gallon—at Luther's. Miss Rose Miller is visiting relatives and friends in Chicago.

Paste this in your hat. Haise elected by 60 majority at least. One week more to get books at your own price at the auction.

Fresh cows for sale, inquire at this office for further information. Single harness for $10 and $12, all hand made at Leach & Reeb's.

Ice Cream constantly on hand at the Normandie. Miller & Thornton. "If Christ Came to Chicago," Stead's great book, at the book auction.

There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday as usual. White Miller flour, every sack guaranteed, $1.10 per 50 lbs., at Luther's.

The largest and best line of confectionery in Dwight. Miller & Thornton. Mrs. Wheatley has been quite sick, but we are pleased to announce is much better.

House to rent. Four rooms, $5 per month. Inquire of Will Scott at meat market. Jesse Snyder, Sr., left Tuesday for a three months visit with his son in Denver, Colo.

Good house wanted, not less than seven rooms. Apply to Mr. Mezger at the elevator. Large assortment of corsets. We sell the best corset in town for 50 cts. at E. T. Miller's.

Vote for Smith. Book auction every night. Honey syrup only 4c. at Luther's. Buy your fine shoes at Leach & Reeb's.

Vote for Flagler. Shelf hardware and sporting goods at Luther's. Paints, oils, varnishes and brushes at Luther's.

Sam Boyer was made happy Wednesday by Mrs. Boyer presenting him with a bouncing baby boy. This is the fourth boy. For a few days we will make a special price on flour in large quantities, as we are expecting a large invoice very soon. Liggett & Liggett.

Read over the ticket published in the STAR AND HERALD and when you vote just put a cross in the anti-license ticket and you will be happy. Burt Ivens, his father and family wish to return their sincere thanks to all who so kindly assisted them during the funeral of the wife and mother.

There is a store rented in this town with the understanding that it is to be vacated if a license ticket is elected next Tuesday. What does it mean? All patrons of the old postoffice who used lock drawers and have keys, can now get their money back by calling on postmaster Kelagher or his assistants.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Boyer are contemplating an extended visit to their old home in Pennsylvania. They will probably go in May or the last of this month. Harry Seelye is now a full fledged marble cutter and letterer and is employed by the Dwight Marble and Granite Company, Luther & Co., proprietors.

We understand W. H. Taylor will sell farm machinery this year. Mr. Taylor knows all about the business and would make a competent and popular agent. Village Clerk Haise is the most thoroughly posted man as to the financial and business standing of Dwight of any man in it. He will make a splendid president.

John Pettett and daughter, Miss Tillie, left on the branch Monday, for a week's visit with the former's brothers at Lacon and Chillicothe. They will return next Monday. J. S. Guardenier, since he has moved into his new building, has put in a nice line of stringed instruments and strings. Those interested in music should call and examine his stock.

There is one thing that cannot be denied, whether the so-called "citizens" ticket is in favor of license or not, it will receive the support of every man who wants to start a saloon. The Moody quartette, of Chicago, will soon give a concert in Congregational church in Dwight. They are exceptionally fine musicians and the entertainment will be very fine.

When you want a lunch, don't forget that the coffee at E. E. Fenn's lunch counter is Mocha and Java; the pies are home made, and the sandwiches are out of sight—when you eat them. It is well known that some of the "citizens" ticket are license men, at least two of them. Two of the women and two of the men are in favor of license or not, it will receive the support of every man who wants to start a saloon.

Rev. Ayling will preach a temperance sermon at the M. E. church tomorrow (Sunday) night. This will be a union meeting and all are invited. The two choir will join together and some excellent music can be expected. It is said there was great rejoicing in Lord Scully's castle when he received the cablegram that his American representative was again a candidate for mayor. Scully probably thought Fox would knock out the alien law if elected.

Decoration Day this year comes on Wednesday. A committee from the Grand Army Post has been appointed and others will be appointed from the Sons of Veterans and the United Brethren to co-operate with the Post, and the day will be duly observed. There were eleven brothers of the Ivens family present at the last tribute to a loving mother. They are all healthy and fine looking young men. The father made a friendly call at this office Saturday. He has been a baggageman on the C. & A. railroad for about thirty years.

Fox says he is a license man, but not for Dwight. Fox knows if there was the least show of being elected on a license ticket, that's where he would be found, in Dwight, or anywhere else. Such people are not safe. We want a man for mayor who is no license on principle. A meeting of the members and supporters of the Congregational church has been called for Monday evening, April 16, to ascertain if it is the wish of the church to extend a call to Rev. E. F. Wright, who upon certain conditions will consider a call. Your attendance is urgently requested in this and other important matters.

Brick and stone sidewalks are becoming quite popular of late in Dwight. The brick walks have been laid on Chippewa street, in front of the property of J. C. Lewis, the Masons, Miss Leake and Mr. Clove. There is no doubt but that they will prove cheap in the long run, and it is to be hoped they will be adopted as soon as new sidewalks are needed by other residents. There are also good brick walks through both parks.

Vote for Gela. Vote for Naffziger. Vote for Thompson. Look out for the Moody quartette. This is a pretty fair week for weddings. Miss Maymie Ivans is visiting in Streator.

Dr. Ubellar called on friends here this week. Mrs. Sam McLane has been quite sick this week. Read Miller Bros.' announcement in this issue, and grant their request. G. M. Hahn, an old and highly respected citizen, is reported as very sick.

Remember the Moody Quartette at the Congregational church, Friday eve, April 27. Robt. H. Nicol, editor of the Mail, of Milford, Iowa, made us a pleasant call Thursday. Rev. Ayling will lead the league meeting at the M. E. church next Sunday evening.

The Moody Quartette will be in the Congregational church, Friday evening, April 27. E. E. Fenn will handle cream this season. His parlors re-modeled and is fit for a queen. Wm. Kelch made us a pleasant call Thursday. He is about to move to Streator for a while.

We are in receipt of a communication regarding the Morrissey-Hagerty wedding, too late for this week. Communications, to insure publication, must be at this office by Thursday morning, and before that, if possible. There are candidates on the Fox ticket who would willingly withdraw if they could do so without causing hard feeling.

The new train on the C. & A. gets the Chicago papers to Dwight at 8:00 a. m. What's the matter with Dwight? PASTURAGE.—Parties desiring good pasturage for stock, will do well to secure it at once. Call on or address, C. M. Baker. E. E. Fenn is agent for the Reid & Co. ice cream, of Chicago, and will furnish the same to parties; socials, etc., at $1.00 per gallon.

A letter from Al. Boyer who is visiting relatives in Pennsylvania, says he is having a pleasant visit. He expects to return to Dwight in May. Prof. Hardin, former principle of the Gardner schools, made us a pleasant call Wednesday. He is now engaged in Building and Loan business. For nice candies and fruit, buy of E. E. Fenn. He has the largest and finest assortment in the city. Fresh marsh-mellow and chocolates just received.

An Alleged Shortage. Fox was not smart when he could not find where the shortage in the delinquent taxes was. He blustered around and wanted the finance committee to explain. They informed him very quickly that the amount, about $700 delinquent tax not received, was in litigation with the 3-I road. Fox tumbled after while and got it through his head. That's like a good many more of his charges. He's always looking for trouble, and "makes a mountain out of a mole hill."

Look Out for Circulars. Fox has made threats that he would "give the devil" to the editor of this paper next Monday. That means that he is going to put some of his meanness into print. As far as the editor is concerned, he will take care of himself, and while he believes Fox has plenty of devil in him to spare he needn't mind giving us any. But the people should be prepared for anything.

Claud W. Thompson. The death of Claud W., only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thompson, of Union, has caused great sorrow with all who knew him. He lacked two months and fourteen days of being sixteen years old, but he possessed many traits of manly Christian character. He was a devoted son, an affectionate brother, and was held in high esteem by all with whom he mingled. The family have lived for years at the home from which death has called the son, and the bereaved family have the sympathy of a host of loving friends.

The funeral services were conducted at the family residence by Rev. D. K. Campbell, of the Presbyterian church, of Odell. The ceremony was rendered very impressive by the large gathering of neighbors and friends, whose grief told more eloquently than words, how much he would be missed. Rent for School Elections. At a meeting of the village board some time since, Fox proposed that the matter of rent for holding school elections in the town house be looked into, and suggested that the judiciary committee collect $5 a year for the past five years. Fox undoubtedly wanted some glory, but he was checkmated by a motion that the chairman of the finance committee be instructed to collect the rent. Fox is chairman of that committee himself and he began to see that he had put his foot in it. Now he claims he didn't bring the matter up at all. Every member of the board and all present know he did, however, and now instead of staidness by it, he tries to crawl out of it.

Ice Wagon. J. A. Webster will start his Ice Wagon next Monday. Ice delivered to all parts of the city. Fine ice at reasonable charges.
