

History of Dwight.

The first week in May we will commence the publication of the "History of Dwight." This will include everything of importance since the city was settled, up to the present. We propose to publish about one column each week, and if a sufficient number will leave their names at the office during the next two weeks and agree to pay fifty cents per copy, we will publish the same in pamphlet form, neatly bound.

If you want one it must be attended to before May 4.

Delegates to the Presbyterian General Assembly at Saratoga, N. Y., should not purchase their tickets without first obtaining rates on the Nickel Plate Road, which are always the lowest. For further information call on any agent of that company or address J. Y. Cahalan, General Agent, 199 Clark St. Chicago, Ill. 15m.

We understand Jack Reeb has patented a coupler or some kind of arrangement whereby a quick change can be made from poles to shafts on a wagon. This will most surely be a valuable patent. Jack is a genius and has made some wonderful discoveries, which if properly handled would have made fortunes.

Remember the Odd Fellow celebration and lecture at the opera house next Thursday evening. Besides the entertaining lecture by Hon. W. H. Crocker, of Chicago, there will be music by the Dwight quartette and instrumental music by Mrs. J. C. Lewis. All free and every body invited.

We understand a peddler who has been boarding at the Lower house at different times, was arrested and taken to Pontiac Thursday. It is said that he gave a worthless note in payment for board, and Sam Lower found out there was no such man as the name signed to the note, and had him arrested. That's business.

The seventy-fifth anniversary of Odd Fellowship will be duly celebrated on the 26th of April—next Thursday evening, at the opera house. The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock. The lodge has engaged one of the best speakers in the order, Hon. W. H. Crocker, of Chicago. The lecture will be free to all and the Odd Fellows of Dwight hope to see all their members and friends present.

That $50,000 color press of the Chicago Inter Ocean is being utilized in a unique and instructive manner by that great newspaper. It is being used to print a "Little Paper for Little People" with four full pages in colors, and beginning with Sunday, April 29th, this paper will contain the first installment of a Children's story, written especially for it by a Chicago newspaper man, Sam Clover. A unique feature of this story is that it is to be named by Chicago school children after reading. This with the "Musical Supplement," a new art feature, makes the Sunday Inter Ocean a most interesting and welcome visitor for every member of the family.

Engaged Rev. Wright. There was a large meeting of members and supporters of the Congregational church, Monday evening, to decide upon engaging a pastor for the ensuing year. The matter was thoroughly talked over and it was decided to engage Rev. Wright, who preached two weeks ago. Mr. Wright is a man of ability and will undoubtedly well make an excellent pastor. He is a grand army man and is state chaplain of the M. W. of A. He possesses those genial, social qualities which will assist in building up the church spiritually and numerically. We believe the meeting made an excellent choice, and shall take pleasure in welcoming Rev. Wright to our community.
