

KEELEY LEAGUE NEWS. State convention. State convention K. L. and A. K. L. June 12 and 13, 1894.

The following officers were elected Tuesday: president, Daniel E. Butts, 1st vice president, Chas. Ewalt, 2d vice president, C. E. Ryder, J. H. Carnsby was appointed sergeant-at-arms.

The Graduates from Illinois who are leaving the Dwight institute now should try and attend the state convention Keeley Leagues and auxiliaries June 12 and 13, and meet men who have been cured for years. Everyone who goes to Bloomington will enjoy a grand treat.

League No. 17 and Auxiliary, of Bloomington, two of best organization in the country, extend a cordial invitation to every Keeley graduate in the country to the state convention Keeley leagues, June 12 and 13, and have a good time. They bid you welcome.

A very excellent entertainment was given to a crowded house Tuesday evening. Judge W. S. Arnold made an eloquent address and Col. Nate A. Reed, Jr., editor of the Banner of Gold, made one of his forcible talks that was highly appreciated. Chas. E. Banks gave a couple of recitations, and an original poem was read by Robert N. Nicol.

President Eugene V. Debs, of the Railway Union, is a Dwight Keeley graduate, and was a very popular man while here. The recent strike and the settlement of the same, of the Northern Pacific railway, was under his management and he is at present, the "lion of the day" among the members of the Railway Union. We are also pleased to state that the owners and managers of the Northern Pacific speak highly of Mr. Debs.

At the Wednesday morning meeting of the club interesting farewell talks were made by ex-president R. H. Nicol of Milford, Iowa, B. M. Wally, Kansas City, Mo., W. R. Dasser, Chicago and Chas. H. Angvine, of Clyde, Kansas. Encouraging talks were made by Dr. Secrist, of Concord, N. H., who graduated at Dwight four years ago, Dr. S. L. Brown, of Ransom, Ill., a graduate of June 1893, Col. N. A. Reed, Jr., and Chas. E. Banks.

The Home Keeley League of Bloomington is taking a great interest in the coming state convention, and if it is not a perfect success it will not be their fault. They have been giving entertainments once a month for a fund to help the convention. The full committee were appointed by State President Burkhardt last Tuesday evening and will be published next week. They will make arrangements so that everyone present will have a pleasant time and they are anxious to see hundreds of the "boys" and the ladies present.

The mayor of the city will welcome the delegates and turn the city over to them, which will be perfectly safe now but hardly so a few years ago. Every league in the state should send a full delegation if possible and if not send some one.

The convention will not be so much for business although some important features will come up; the social side will receive the most attention. Carriages will be provided for all present to ride about the beautiful city and a grand "Keeley Boys and Girls Campfire" the first evening, and winding up the second evening with a grand ball and banquet.

No Keeley graduate or woman of the auxiliary should miss this opportunity of having a grand social reunion and assisting in perpetuating state organization.

Make arrangement to just do nothing but go to Bloomington June 12 and 13, 1894, and have a good time.
