Real Merit in Hood's

Rebellious Stomach—Heart Palpitation—Hot Flashes

"I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine ever offered to the public. From the very first dose I felt its merit. I did not dare to eat any meat or anything greasy for the past four years, as it would surely sour on my stomach and come up within an hour after eating it. Many nights I have been frightened on retiring, for as soon as I would lie down my heart would and then all of a sudden it would, seemingly, stop beating. Hot waves would then pass over my body and legs. I was in a bad condition

ILLINOIS NEWS CONCISELY CONDENSED.

Sensation at Robinson — Apportionments Held Legal — Accidental Injury to a Springfield Man—Many Hurt by a Peoria Runaway—Died of Fright.

Digging for Hidden Gold Treasure.

Robinson is aroused over the discovery that there has been a detective there for the last month attempting to unearth $40,000 in gold said to have been left by Dr. David Wilson, who died several months ago. Several warrants have been served for the purpose of searching the homes of relatives for the lost $40,000. A nephew, who was with the Doctor during his last illness, and whose house was the first searched, has been accused of giving poison to his uncle to secure the money, and the probabilities are that the Doctor's body will be exhumed for the purpose of a chemical analysis. The house in which he died has been almost dug from its foundation in the attempt to secure the coveted treasure.

Circus Star Dies in a Poorhouse.

Mary Labor, aged 84, died at the Will County poor farm. In 1849 Joliet was visited by a circus in which she was a star equestrienne. Her riding delighted every one and she was applauded to the echo. While in Joliet she was taken sick and was compelled to leave the show. All her gaudy friends of the circus deserted her and she was thrown on the world in her sickness. The poorhouse was her only refuge. The disease left her deaf, dumb and blind. All efforts to get at her friends were unavailing and she remained at the county house nearly half a century not seeing, not hearing, not speaking. The woman was so beautiful that twenty-four years ago a visitor to the poorhouse said she was the most beautiful woman he ever saw.

Says All Are Valid.

At Springfield, Judge Creighton of the Circuit Court rendered a decision in the suits brought by Blair, Populist, vs. Henrichsen, Secretary of State, to test the constitutionality of the Senatorial apportionment of 1882 and 1893. Two suits were commenced—one a petition for mandamus and the other a bill in chancery asking an injunction. Their purpose was identical, and the decision rendered covers both cases. Judge Creighton holds that the acts of 1872 and 1882 were both constitutional. He declares, moreover, that in his opinion the act of 1893 is constitutional and is now in force.

Fatally Injured in a Runaway.

Near Peoria a team Henry Haines was driving took fright at a raised umbrella and became unmanageable. They ran over a cart containing Mr. and Mrs. James A. Harris, and a complete wreck was the result. Mr. and Mrs. Harris were thrown out and trampled under foot and their horse knocked down. The runaways continued on for a few blocks and finally dumped Mr. and Mrs. Harris over a steep embankment. Mr. Harris will die.

Edward D. Poston Shoots Himself.

Considerable excitement was created in Springfield, especially in Masonic circles, by the reported suicide of Edward D. Poston, a highly respected citizen. It was ascertained later that the report was not true. Mr. Poston was engaged in cleaning a revolver when it was accidentally discharged, and the ball passed into his left lung. Although desperately wounded there is a chance that he may recover.

Englishmen After the Elgin Plant.

A representative of an English syndicate has offered $7,000,000 for the plant of the Elgin National Watch Company, and President Avery notified the stockholders that three-fourths of the owners of stock have agreed to sell. The syndicate is probably the same that a few years ago offered $8,000,000 for the plant, which was then rejected.

Good Condition of Illinois Banks.

Auditor Gore has tabulated the reports of State banks as to their condition. There are 123 of them and the figures show an increase of $6,500,000 in total resources since Feb. 28, 1894, when the last call was made, and an increase of $4,000,000 in deposits. The average cash reserve held by the banks is 43 per cent.

Dies of Fright in a Buggy.

Mrs. Kendall, wife of Dr. W. H. Kendall, of Quincy, was driving and the horse ran away. She turned the animal into a fence, but died of fright on the buggy seat before help reached her. The horse, after Mrs. Kendall's body had been removed from the buggy, ran away again. The horse fell dead in this second runaway.

Record of the Week.

CROP reports for Illinois are encouraging.

CHARLES DECKER fell under an engine and was killed at Charleston.

MRS. THOMAS DOBSON, a resident of Rockford for forty seven years, died, aged 73.

HAROLD HAMMOND, of Rushville, 19 years old, won the contest for the West Point cadetship.

E. M. CHRISMAN, west of Jacksonville, suddenly fell dead while at work in a strawberry bed.

GOVERNOR ALTGELD will shortly undertake another trip, as his health is by no means in a satisfactory condition.

GEORGE CHURCHILL, city engineer at the water-works at Sycamore, while riding a bicycle fell dead of heart disease.

J. W. MANSON, who was injured in a railroad accident at Jacksonville, died. He stood high in social and business circles.

AN unmanageable electric car collided with a cable train at Chicago, and many of the passengers were cut and bruised.

MRS. HENRY MAY, of Chicago, was chloroformed and robbed by a man who pretended to be looking for a furnished room.

A RUMOR is afloat that shortly after Commonwealer Kelly's arrival at Quincy Sunday he sent his wife in Oakland, Cal., $5,000.

GEORGE T. and J. C. Nickles were arrested at Galesburg charged with swindling farmers by means of bogus insurance policies.

EX-ALDERMAN HERMAN LEEMHUIS, of Freeport, died of lockjaw.

A RECEIVER has been asked for the Scott Manufacturing Company at Decatur.

THE revival conducted by Dr. Chapman closed at Ottawa. It is claimed that 700 were converted.

DRUNKEN strikers at Gillespie mobbed John Link, a working miner, and beat him with clubs.

MRS. CATHERINE CULLOM HARDIE, youngest daughter of Senator Cullom, was buried at Springfield Sunday.

HAILSTONES eleven inches in diameter fell at Decatur. Much damage was done to windows and vegetation.

JOHN MASSA, proprietor of the Illiopolis Cigar Factory, was drowned. He was aged 30 years, and leaves a widow.

STATE Sunday school workers, in annual session at Peoria, selected Elgin as the next place for the State convention.

CONGRESSMAN FORMAN has written a letter to his constituents saying he retires because he is tired of fighting for the nomination and election.

A DELEGATE convention of the State Federation of Labor, which is the head of all labor organizations in the State, has been called to meet in Springfield, July 2, 3 and 4.

RIOTOUS miners at LaSalle dumped all the coal held in store by the Illinois Central from the chutes to the tracks. The Sheriff and police had a hard job dispersing the mob.

THREE HUNDRED armed stevedores at Chicago attacked the men engaged in loading the liner Chicago, and a score of men were injured before the police quelled the riot.

AT Centralia about thirty miners, principally negroes, responded to the call to resume work, and have been working unmolested. A guard is maintained for their protection.

PAUL WACHTER, a Chicago faith doctor, who required his patients to hide sums of money in trees, which then mysteriously disappeared, has been arrested for swindling.

THE Carlson Cliff coal diggers are on a strike out of sympathy for the strikers in other parts of the country. They refuse to produce coal for shipment, but will work for home consumption.

MESSRS. FJELLANDER AND MALMQUIST, editors of Forskaren, a Swedish paper at Rockford, have been released from jail, where they were placed for libel. They say they will remove their paper to Minneapolis.

AT Cairo two separate shocks of earthquake were felt at 5:35 Wednesday afternoon. They were accompanied by a rumbling noise. There were nearly a dozen vibrations from west to east in the first shock. Buildings trembled, windows rattled, and in a number of instances people rushed to the open air in fear.

THE Elgin Board of Trade will continue to do business as heretofore, notwithstanding an effort by some Chicago commission men to break it up. Very little of the best Elgin butter goes to Chicago, it being shipped from factories direct to Southern and Eastern markets. What a few Chicago men may do will not affect the Elgin Board of Trade.

PROSPECTS are that Illinois will have a series of suits similar to those successfully prosecuted by Wisconsin recently, to compel the refunding of fees illegally held by former State officials. The Wisconsin suits were to recover interest on State funds, illegally held by former State treasurers. The Supreme Court of this State has in effect decided that ex-Auditor Pavey must restore to the treasury nearly $20,000 of fees collected and held by him. This decision opens the way to prosecution of several of Pavey's predecessors.

FRANK JENKINS, a young farmer near Lexington, was married, and the young men of the neighborhood organized a charivari expedition, taking several kegs of beer along with them. About midnight a drunken fight arose. Bude Jenkins, a cousin of the groom, drew a knife and cut Robert Burke in the left side, almost disemboweling him. Jenkins then attacked Charles Butts and cut him seriously in the left side and back. Burke and Butts are reported to be in danger of death. Another man attempted to stop the fight and Jenkins turned his attention to him and cut him also in the left side. No arrests have yet been made.

THE Capitol Coal Company, of Springfield, asked the officers of the State Miners' Union to allow enough men to go to work to mine coal to supply the Springfield Paving Brick Company with fuel to manufacture brick for the exposition building on the State Fair grounds. The miners' officers refused to grant the request. State Secretary Guymon said that it would establish a bad precedent, and that the miners were out to stay until their demands were complied with. He claims that he has received information that the Pennsylvania coal operators are preventing a settlement of the strike in order to unload on the market at a high price several million bushels of coil they have on hand.

HOPE of finding William A. Simsrott, grand secretary and treasurer of the Switchmen's Mutual Aid Association, alive has been almost given up by his relatives and the Chicago police. It is believed that sometime on the night of Saturday, May 12, he was murdered and his body concealed. He was last seen alive and well standing at a corner with a small sachel in his hand, waiting for a street car. Inspector Shea decided to issue circulars containing a photograph of the missing man, with a complete description, offering $100 reward for any information that may lead to his whereabouts and $500 for the recovery of his body. Vice Grand Master Downey, after a careful examination, found that the books balanced to a cent. Mrs. Simsrott is almost prostrated. She has at last come to believe that her husband has been foully dealt with.

THE marriage of Frank C. Gault, of Chicago, and Miss Jennie B. Wakefield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wakefield, of Heyworth, was a brilliant Heyworth affair, there being several hundred guests, including a number from Chicago and St. Louis.

AT Odell, Miss Josephine Baraboo, a balloonist, almost met her death while making an ascension with a hot-air balloon. When about 800 feet high the balloon burst, and dropped on the parachute, preventing it from opening up until within seventy-five feet of the ground. Miss Baratoo was terribly bruised but will recover.

CLEVERLY DETECTED.

How an Oculist Showed Up a Fraudulent Claim.

Here is an interesting account of a very clever bit of detective work by an oculist. It appears that in a large factory in which were employed several hundred persons, one of the workmen, in wielding his hammer, carelessly allowed it to slip from his hand. It flew half-way across the room and struck a fellow workman in the left eye. The man averred that his eye was blinded by the blow, although a careful examination failed to reveal any injury, there not being a scratch visible. He brought a suit in the courts for compensation for the loss of half of his eyesight, and refused all offers of compromise.

Under the law the owner of the factory was responsible for an injury resulting from an accident of this kind, and although he believed that the man was shamming and that the whole case was an attempt at swindling, he had about made up his mind that he would be compelled to pay the claim. The day of the trial arrived, and in open court an eminent oculist retained by the defense examined the alleged injured member, and gave it as his opinion that it was as good as the right eye. Upon the plaintiff's loud protest of his inability to see with his left eye, the oculist proved him a perjurer, and satisfied the court and jury of the falsity of his claim.

And how do you suppose he did it? Why, simply by knowing that the colors green and red combined make black. He procured a black card on which a few words were written with green ink. Then the plaintiff was ordered to put on a pair of spectacles with two different glasses, the one for the right eye being red and the one for the left eye consisting of ordinary glass. Then the card was handed him, and he was ordered to read the writing on it. This he did without hesitation, and the cheat was at once exposed. The sound right eye, fitted with the red glass, was unable to distinguish the green writing on the black surface of the card, while the left eye, which he pretended was sightless, was the one with which the reading had to be done.

SURPRISING FIGURES.

The Extent of Advertising Done by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company.

Some idea of the importance of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, as a Lynn enterprise, may be estimated by the amount of advertising which is placed by them in the leading newspapers of America. Advertising is in their line one of the surest gauges by which to judge the extent of their business.

The newspaper advertising of this famous concern is all placed through the advertising agency of Pettingill & Co., Boston. Indeed the writer recently learned while in their offices that eight tons of electrotypes were shipped by them to the newspapers in one day, all of which were advertisements of the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Some idea of the extent of such advertising can be formed when one considers the fact that a five-inch electrotype weighs but a few ounces, and that eight tons consists of 256,000 ounces, or an amount sufficient to furnish all the leading publications of America with more than five electrotypes each.

As a Lynn enterprise the Pinkham Medicine Company stands in the front rank.—From the Lynn Item.

Fish Hatcheries.

It appears from a statistical review of fish culture in Europe and North America that the eight fish hatcheries in North America (sixty-six in the United States and fourteen in Canada and Newfoundland) produced in the year of their last report 1,616,027,192 fish hatched, and 416 hatcheries in Europe 277,973,016 young fish. The North American hatcheries are all governmental; most of those in Europe are in private hands. The average production of one hatchery is 668,000 in Europe and 13,400,000 in North America.

Too Rich for Him.

A well-known political economist was accosted in a street by a poor woman begging alms for her seven children, under 10, who were starving at home. "Seven children, did you say, seven children?" "Yes," sobbed the woman, "and my husband is in the 'ospital." "Ah," said the philo opher, solemnly, "seven children are luxuries which I have never been able to afford. Good-morning."

The Yellow Glow of the Horizon.

Painted on the sky by the setting sun, is beautiful. Not so the sallow saffron of a face tinged with bile. And oh! the unspeakable discomfort that bile in the wrong place produces. Twinges in the right side and under the right shoulder blade, nausea, vertigo, sick headache, constipation, faulty digestion. Not in an instant can the symptoms of biliousness be dispelled, but persistence in the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will eradicate them, restore digestion and regularity of the bowels, and counteract tendencies to more aggravated complaints, which an interruption of these functions, as rheumatism, inactivity of the kidneys and bladder, neuralgia, and inability to sleep, are also remedied by this genial preventive and restorative of nerve force and tranquility. As an antidote to the poison of malaria, it is unfailing and prompt. A wineglassful three times a day.

Curious Law Case Over a Will.

"A will made by a bedridden paralytic, able to speak only three words, 'yes,' 'no' and 'will,' was recently contested in a Kentucky court," said a well-known lawyer. "The testator could not write, but was able to make her wishes known to those about her by using one of the three words mentioned in response to speculative questions asked by them. Her son testified that for several days he had noticed her desire to communicate something, and he kept guessing until he finally hit upon the question, 'Do you want to make a will?' to which she answered 'Yes.' An attorney was summoned, and by a series of questions, which she answered by means of the three words at her command, elicited her desires in regard to the disposition of her property. By the terms of the will the estate was divided between her four children, disinheriting the child of her deceased eldest son, who was the contestant in the trial. The will was sustained by the jury, but the court of appeals reversed the decision on the ground that everything had first been conceived by those about the woman, and that she was not really competent by reason of her physical disability to make a will."—New York Evening Sun.
