

TROOPS GUARD CARS.

INDIANA RIOTERS DO NOT RESIST THE SOLDIERS.

Gov. Matthews Thinks that the Troops Will Be Bridged Over Without Bloodshed—Trouble at Cripple Creek Has a Serious Aspect.

Quail Before Militia. The situation in the Indiana mining regions, according to an Indianapolis dispatch, indicates that the troops at Cannelburg at least will be suppressed without an encounter with the militia.

ILLINOIS TO THE RAMPANT COAL MINER: "Hold on—This has gone far enough!"

representing the miners. The committee promised obedience to the law in the future and deplored the injury done to railroad property, which they said was brought about by persons having no authority.

The Sheriff and a detachment of the militia started to hunt down the ringleaders, and the company's train crew began repairing the tracks.

At Washington the State troops marched into Clark's station 500 strong with a Gatling gun, to find that only fifty miners had stayed to face the militia.

The militia was drawn up in line along the edge of the woods and Sheriff Lening then read the warrant against the miners for riotous conspiracy and placed three of the leaders, Squire Summers, Dick Gate, and John Flynn, under arrest.

Mrs. Sullivan Sees Cars Move. Sullivan—The State militia arrived in Sullivan from the southern part of the State, in all numbering 200. They stopped over here and waited until the trainmen could get an engine to take the coal out of the mine.

Wellston—The miners refuse to talk to outsiders on the situation. It is generally understood that outside influences have been brought to bear to cause the strikers to make an attack on the Norfolk and Western.

Brill—A desperate effort was made to wreck the train No. 27, supposed to be hauling coal, just east of here. The vandals found two cupling pins wedged in switch frog, but luckily the train was running slow, and was stopped quickly by Sheriff Mills.

COAL FAMINE AT BOONE IMMINENT. Small Mines Forced to Close by Strikers and Troupy Knaplog Shuts. Boone, Iowa.—Since the miners' strike the local demand for coal has been supplied by about fifteen small mines operated by the owners and employing from five to fifteen men each.

shut down. The brick and tile factories are already closed for want of coal. Evans—Most of the 90 strikers who were in camp, near Evans left for their homes. Sunday's barbecue was to be the signal for a monster mass meeting of miners, but less than 100 were in camp, not enough to eat the roasted ox. This failure is thought to foreshadow the collapse of the strike.

KIDNAPED BY MINERS. Cripple Creek Strikers Carry H. R. Woods to Their Fort. Cripple Creek, Colo.—H. R. Woods, President of the Wood's Investment Company, was taken in charge by a large body of miners and carried up to the fort on Bull Hill. Woods is present when he was taken, and is almost frantic. Business men here look into each other's faces and see nothing but dread and fear.

Colorado Springs.—The Governor will not call out the State troops to assist the Sheriff. The city continues to be guarded. The Sheriff continues making preparations for the battle with the miners which will undoubtedly occur in a few days.

Denver.—Detectives assisted Sheriff Bowers in a search for John Calderwood, President of the Victor Miners' Union, who came up from Colorado Springs with Gov. Wallace. When the party arrived Calderwood was taken into a carriage with the Governor and conveyed to some secluded place, where no one but the Governor's party knows. Sheriff Bowers arrived with a warrant for Calderwood's arrest upon the charge of inciting to riot.

END OF TARIFF NEAR.

It is Expected That Discussion Will Be Closed Within Two Weeks. A Washington correspondent assures the country that the tariff debate in the senate will close within the next two weeks. The bill, he says, cannot now be beat n. The Democrats will all vote for it with the possible exception of Mr. Hill.

Quite a stir has recently been created in Europe with reference to the value of nuts as food for human beings, and if this movement spreads, as there appears to be every prospect of its doing, there will be a great impetus given to the value of the beech, for its nuts are one of the most delicious kinds of food.

On the delicate membrane of the bowels and stomach with drastic purgatives must have their natural consequence—to weaken and disable both organs. Nature exacts severe penalties for infringements of her laws, and there is no more glaring one than that which consists in the use of unnecessary dosing with violent cathartics.

The Difference in Women. Jack had just reached that age when he first felt the blissful tortures of love. Although not more than a dozen years old, he declared himself the eternal and devoted slave of little Bessie Shepard—his "bonnie, sweet Bessie" as he called her.

Now, next to his love for Bessie, Jack's ruling passion was keeping a diary. In it he chronicled all the affairs of his busy life, even to the smallest detail. One day, in a fit of temporary insanity, he left his diary on the table at home. After he had gone to school his sister happened to find it. Sisters are not devoid of honor, but sometimes they are unnecessarily curious.

The Ladies. The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California Liquid Laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy.

No Danger of a Salt Famine. The amount of salt in the sea water of the globe, if extracted, would be greater in mass than the land, so far as it appears above the surface. The seas cover 73 per cent. of the earth's surface, estimated at 19,200,000 square miles.
