

About twenty-five from Dwight will attend the Bloomington convention June 12 and 13.

All Keeley graduates will receive a warm welcome at Bloomington during the convention.

J. N. Bursan, manager of the Keeley Institute 812 North Broad St. Philadelphia, was here on business Tuesday.

Ex-president C. L. Rider, of Kirksville, Mo., departed for home Wednesday, after a four weeks sojourn in Dwight.

It is quite likely that John Dillon, the veteran actor, will be in Bloomington during the convention June 12 and 13.

Delegates have been elected and reported from several leagues already and a good attendance is insured for the state convention.

Opie Read, the author of "Kentucky Colonel" and many other popular works, and former editor of the "Arkansas Traveler," will be in Bloomington at the convention June 12 and 13 if possible.

The following officers were elected Tuesday: President, B. S. Roseberry, M. D.; Lacon, Ill.; 1st vice president, W. J. Grady, New Hartford, Iowa; 2nd vice president, W. F. Harris, Fayette, Mo. Mr. D. F. Dugan was reappointed sergeant at arms.

Colonel Andrew J. Smith, governor of the Soldiers' Home at Leavenworth, Kas., and President of the National Keeley League, was a pleasant caller at Secretary Brown's office Tuesday. Colonel Smith was enroute for Chicago where he will endeavor to make special rates with the railroads for the National Convention to be held at Colorado Springs next September.

A Day in Wonderland. "The times change and we change with them," said the Roman philosopher. It may also be said that these changes are not always for the better, but often bring retrogression and decay; and this is particularly true of the circus of today.

In fact since the great ring master, Death, gave Adam Forpaugh and P. T. Barnum their final cues, it may be remarked that but one truly great and legitimate circus remains, that of Sells Brothers, which is to exhibit in Streator, Wednesday, June 6.

The only big tented exhibition that will visit the city this season, introducing Grand Triple Ring Circus Hippodrome Races, Mammoth Menagerie, two Elevated Theatre Stages, Australian Aviary, Arabian Caravan, Pilgrimage to Mecca, Tropical Aquarium, Spectacular Pageants and Street Parade. Sells Brothers present a more than abundant feast of everything which appurtenes to the most popular entertainments. In exclusive features such as their monster pair of Hippopotami, the Hairless Horse, a whole flock of Ostriches, Trained Seals and Sea Lions and a host of the rare curiosities too numerous to mention completes a wonderful performance.

The Sells Brothers big enterprise has been under one and the same management for a longer period than any other in existence, being now in its twenty-third prosperous year. This season the price has been reduced from 50 to 25 cents for all, so that nobody can afford to miss the big show of the world. Special excursion rates on all lines of travel.

Portfolios Bound. We bind World's Fair Portfolios with "Views of the World's Fair" on the cover, also Goddess of Liberty stamped in gold on the front. Prices from $1.50 per volume up. Orders left with us will be promptly attended to and ready for delivery in a week.
