Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean, New York Weekly Tribune and this paper one whole year to any subscriber who pays in advance, $2.50. Is that cheap enough?

When you want a lunch, don't forget that the coffee at E. E. Fenn's lunch counter is Mocha and Java; the pies are home made, and the sandwiches are out of sight—when you eat them.

A nice pork, veal, mutton or beef roast, a chicken or something else nice can always be found Saturdays at Scott & McDonald. They are always prepared to furnish everything nice for a fine Sunday dinner.

Mr. Conrad, our enterprising coal dealer, has taken pains to get a large supply of excellent Lehigh Valley hard coal, which he proposes to sell to his customers at a very low figure. It will pay you to leave your orders with him right away.

The mail train south now leaves Chicago at 8:30 a. m. arriving at Dwight 11:13 a. m. The hummer now stops regularly at Dwight at 8:13 p. m. The night express now leaves Chicago at 9:10 p. m. and Dwight 11:50 p. m. Other trains same as heretofore.

Col. J. B. Parsons, of Dwight, was a pleasant caller at this office, Wednesday. The Colonel is making a good canvass and his prospects are most flattering. He has a host of friends in this part of the county who are decidedly in favor of his nomination and election to the office of Treasurer of Livingston county.—Chatsworth Enterprise.

Don't miss your train by failing to notice new time card of C. & A. R. R. and don't forget that the hummer now stops here every night and that the C. & A. is right to the front with cheap excursions east and west this summer.

Go to Scott & McDonald's for New England cooked ham. It's nice.

Gregg & Starrett, the enterprising feed, flour, etc., dealers, have a word to all in this issue. Look it up.

Baker Bros., the grocers, speak their piece this week. It should be read and acted upon, for they are all right.

The advertisements in this issue are all of good, responsible, fair dealing people, and should receive your consideration.

Rev. Ayling's service at M. E. church Sunday evening, including sermon, prayer, music and all, was less than thirty minutes.

Ketcham & Smith are always to the front in every enterprise and of course have a large advertisement in this issue of the STAR AND HERALD. It should be read by all.

There will be a union Bible service at Congregational church next Sunday evening which will be addressed by Rev. C. W. Ayling and Rev. Wright. The service will be short.

For fine work in all lines of photography and life size crayon work, prices to suit the hard times, go to Mickleson's gallery. Picture frames of all kinds.

Danish Lutheran pastor, Rev. K. C. Bodhold, of Waterloo, Ia., will preach Sunday, July 1st, at the Danish Lutheran church, in Dwight at 10 o'clock a. m., and in the Presbyterian church, Gardner, at 2:40 p. m. All are invited to hear him.

Dr. Mason, of Little Rock, Arkansas, was in town Wednesday, as agent for a concert troupe from the school of that locality. The troupe is composed of colored people, and instead of patronizing railroads they walk from town to town. They are said to be very good and will give an entertainment in Dwight Thursday evening, July 5.

A man went into a store the other day and asked if he could rest four or five hours. The proprietor, who had just found a nest of new-born mice in the coffee grinder, told him he could and then asked him why he didn't go to the hotel. The man replied: "I am suffering from nervous prostration, and the doctor told me to find a quiet place and rest, and seeing you do not advertise I knew I couldn't find a quieter place," and with that he settled in a chair and watched the swallows build a nest in the cheese.—Ex.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Leach & Reeb in this issue. This firm has gained an enviable reputation in this community and for miles around, as square, honorable dealers. They invite all their old customers to call and see them and wish all the people who visit Dwight at any time to call and inspect their goods and prices. Their advertisement will appear in the STAR AND HERALD for the next year continually and should be read each week, as it always pays to deal with steady advertisers.

Mrs. E. F. Wright left Tuesday, with her daughter Florence and son Clarence for Pecatonica to remain a few weeks with relatives before taking their departure for Dwight to make their future home. It was hard to see them go but the best of friends must part. Mrs. Wright will be greatly missed in church circles and the boy and girl by the young people by whom they were greatly loved. They were accompanied to the depot by sorrowing friends and dry eyes were very scarce. Our best wishes go with them to their new home.—Huntley News.

We learn with much regret that Mr. Bert Irens will remove from Dwight to Chicago for permanent residence, and that he will be changed from the accommodation to a through run to St. Louis. He expects to make the change tomorrow and will move as soon as convenient. Mrs. Irens and the children are in Chicago now visiting a sister who will soon go to England. Mr. Irens has made this change not because he didn't like Dwight, but on account of his father, who is very lonely. Bert has been on this run eight years and no one on the line has more friends than he and the Dwight people are loath to lose him and his family.

Sarah Dodge.

There was quite an important personage in town the other day, or rather notorious instead of important. It was a woman who was so situated at one time as to attract the attention of the world, and her name is simply, Sarah Dodge. She it was who took such a prominent part in the Colonel Babcock affair, when that gentleman was shot near Gardner and subsequently died in Chicago. Sarah was accused but not convicted at the time. About a year ago she was tried for insanity at Morris, but she got away. She is now very much interested in religion, but those who saw her think the poor woman's mind is wandering.

Ordinances.

We publish this week the new appropriation ordinance and a railroad ordinance. The ordinance ordering the disconnection of all connections with the sewer was brought up and read, but action was postponed until Saturday night, when it will be passed and the sewer will be a thing of the past, as far as using it is concerned.

Portfolios Bound.

We bind World's Fair portfolios with "Views of the World's Fair" on the cover, also Goddess of Liberty stamped in gold on the front. Prices from $1.50 per volume up. Orders left with us will be promptly attended to and ready for delivery in a week.

Institute.

The annual institute will be held in the school house in Pontiac during the week beginning July 23. All teachers and prospective teachers of the county are expected to be present.

HENRY A. POSTER, Co. Supt.

Cut the Weeds.

The street commissioner and the railroad authorities should see that the weeds are cut on the streets and between the tracks before the 4th of July. Let us look like a city.

CHAPTER 85.

Railroads.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the President and the Board of Trustees of the Village of Dwight, county of Livingston, and State of Illinois, that all railroad corporations or companies are hereby prohibited from running, propelling, operating, or conducting any engine, or engine at a greater rate of speed than six miles per hour, within the inhabited portions of said Village, and any railroad company or companies which shall by itself, its agents, conductors, engineers or servants, violate this section of the ordinance, shall, upon conviction thereof, forfeit and pay to the said Village of Dwight, a sum not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00) for each and every offense.

SEC. 2. That no railroad company or corporation shall obstruct or cause to be obstructed, any street, alley or other highway of said Village, by suffering or permitting any of its locomotives, trains or cars to remain in, upon or across such street, alley or other highway for a longer period than ten minutes at any one time, and any railroad corporation or company which shall violate the provisions of this section of the ordinance shall forfeit and pay to said Village a sum not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00) for each and every offense.

SEC. 3. No such corporation or company shall be held to have violated the second section of this ordinance so far as the same relates to obstructions by trains or cars, provided such corporation or company shall, when it becomes necessary to let any train of cars remain standing within the corporate limits of said Village for a longer period than ten minutes at any one time, uncouple, divide and separate such train at all streets, alleys and highway crossings of said railroad in such manner as to leave a clear and unobstructed passage along such street, alley and other highway of said Village, for both teams and travelers.

SEC. 4. All railroad corporations and companies owning or operating any railroad through the said Village of Dwight are hereby required to construct and keep in repair suitable crossings, ditches, sewers and culverts at all intersections of streets and alleys of said Village with said railroad, and to keep in repair the streets through which their tracks may run, and any such corporation or company which shall fail or refuse to so construct and keep in repair any such street, crossing, ditch, sewer or culvert, for twenty days after notice served upon station agent of such corporation or company at said Village, by the street commissioner or supervisor of streets of said Village, specifying the streets to be repaired or the crossing, ditch, sewer or culvert to be constructed or repaired, shall forfeit and pay to said Village a sum not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00) for each and every day that they shall so refuse or neglect such construction or repair after the expiration of said twenty days.

SEC. 5. All penalties and forfeitures imposed or provided for in this ordinance may be recovered by an act of debt before any Justice of the peace or police magistrate of said Village, and service of process may be had upon any such corporation or company in the manner provided by the statutes of Illinois.

SEC. 6. The parts of ordinances in conflict with this are hereby repealed. This ordinance shall be in force and take effect after its passage and publication in DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD. Passed June 26, 1894. FRANK A. HAISE, President of said Village of Dwight. Attest: FRANK L. SMITH, Clerk of said Village of Dwight. Passed and approved by me this 26th day of June, A. D., 1894. FRANK A. HAISE, President of said Village of Dwight, and ex-officio President of the Board of Trustees of said Village. Passed June 26th, A. D., 1894. Published in DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD June 30th, A. D., 1894. Filed in clerk's office, June 27th, A. D., 1894.

CHAPTER 86.
