W. H. Nelson, who is in the drug business at Kingville, Mo., has so much con- fidence in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he warrants every bottle and offers to refund the money to any customer who is not satisfied after using it. Mr. Nelson takes no risk in doing this because the remedy is a cer- tain cure for the diseases for which it is intended and he knows it. It is for sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville; Smith & Melhuish, Gardner.
The union meeting held in the Con- gregational church Sunday evening was quite well attended considering the extreme heat. The local Bible Society organized with the following officers for the ensuing year: Pres., Col. R. P. Morgan; vice pres., W. W. Wood; Bible depository, C. M. Baker; sec'y, Mrs. C. M. Baker; treas., Joseph Baker; clerk pro tem, J. L. Van Eman. Program as follows: Excellent music by the Congregational choir, Rev. E. F. Wright read the scriptures and David McWilliams offered prayer. Rev. C. W. Ayling then delivered an able and in- teresting sermon, packed full of inter- esting facts concerning the Bible and the work of the American Bible So- ciety. Col. Morgan also gave a very felicitous address upon taking the chair. Rev. Wright pronounced the benediction.
Last June, Dick Crawford brought his twelve months old child, suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and being sickly everything ran through it like water through a sieve. I gave it the usual treat- ment in such cases but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 30 cent size had been used, a marked improvement was seen and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and puny constitution dis- appeared and its father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this Remedy. J. T. Marlow, M. D. Tamora, Ill. For sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville; Smith & Melhuish, Gardner.
Death of Mrs. Davenport.

La Grippe.
During the prevalence of the Grippe the past seasons it was a noticeable fact that those who depended upon Dr. King's New Discovery, not only had a speedy recovery, but escaped all of the trouble- some after effects of the malady. This remedy seems to have peculiar power in effecting rapid cures not only in cases of La Grippe, but in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs, and has cured cases of asthma and hay fever of long standing. Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free trial bottles at Dr. Barr, Dwight, and Augustine's Braceville, Drug Store, Smith & Melhuish, Gardner.
Fourth of July Claims.
Anyone having bills against the 4th of July committee can have same settled by calling at the STAR AND HERALD office and presenting same to-day.
W. G. DUSTIN,
Chairman Com.
A horse kicked H. S. Shafer, of the Freeman House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Cham- berlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many other and says it is excellent for any kind of a bruise or sprain. The same remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism. For sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville; Smith & Melhuish, Gardner.
Institute.
The annual institute will be held in the school house in Pontiac during the week beginning July 23. All teachers and prospective teachers of the county are expected to be present.
