"Grandma" Bell is making improvements in her residence property. Go to Scott & McDonald's for New England cooked ham. It's nice. You can buy good Indigo blue calico at 5 cents a yard at Miller Bros. Hammocks, croquet and base ball goods at Baker's Furniture store. Miss Jessie Cope, of Streator, was a guest of Miss Agnes Buck last week. Miss Myrtle Wheatley will visit friends in Chicago in a few days soon. Advertised letters in the Dwight Postoffice July 11, 1894: Belinger, J. M. Miss Mertie Buren has been very sick but we understand is much better. The Alaska refrigerator, the best in the world, for sale by C. M. Baker. A train was a novelty last week, and all the town came to the depot to see it. Mrs. W. G. Dustin was quite sick several days this week but is better now. The best of canned and dried fruits at rock bottom prices at the Star Grocery. Don't fail to come to our remnant counter. Goods at half price.—Miller Bros. The mumps are flourishing in this community and there are some bad cases. The oil wagon is the handiest and cheapest place to get your supplies in that line. Thos. Loney, of Bloomington, was a guest of Gilbert Ayling several days this week. We have some choice bargains in Oxford slippers, sizes 3, 3 1/2, and 4. E. E. Miller's. Call on Lose & Brown before you get your wool. They give you the very best prices. The best place to get your watch repaired done at reasonable prices is at Gardner's. Scott & McDonald want to see you about a Sunday roast. They have just what you want. Fred Carr, wife and son, of Cabrey, were the guests of John Lowe and family over Sunday. Everyone interested should read the change in the advertisement of Kennerly and stable. Will Hagerty was presented with a baby boy last week. Will says he can play croquet now. M. E. Deal, of Elwood, made us a pleasant call last week. He has been visiting on old friends. Be sure and attend the auction at the old Harry Lawrence store to-day. Everything way down. The coal famine has demonstrated in these cases who are accommodating people and who are not. E. T. Miller's for bargains in all departments. We will close out all sealable goods regardless of cost. Anyone having rubbish to be hauled away who will dump the same on the property formerly occupied by the Scotts will oblige W. T. Scott.

R. L. Pierce, of Plato Center, the partner of John Lowe in the creamery business, was in the city Monday. The Fourth of July report from Emington was delayed by the mails last week but is published this week. Al. Fisk and family spent part of last week visiting in the southern part of the county with relatives and friends. Ladies' and gentlemen's shoes, all sizes, at 50c on the dollar. Umbrellas 35c up, at Second Hand Store, on West Side. Reader, it will be money in your pocket to read the advertisements in the STAR AND HERALD and trade accordingly. Jesse Snyder is now a deputy, having been sworn in in Chicago Monday. He went through on the hummer south Monday night. Ed Reeb has secured the services of M. Finnan, a first-class tonsorial artist to assist him in his place of business in Hagerty block. If the water is to be closed off or the pressure lessened so the water will not run outside of regular hours, the public should be notified. The Populists will hold a congressional convention in Streator July 26. The Livingston county convention will be held in Pontiac July 20. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Howlett are enjoying a visit with relatives of the former at Syracuse, N. Y. They expect to be absent one month. A neat, comfortably furnished front room to rent at reasonable rates, for one or two gentlemen—with or without board. Inquire at this office. We will save you from 25 to 50c on every pair of shoes or slippers. Now is your time to buy as we have a good stock to select from.—Miller Bros. If you are looking for choice meats, you will always find just what you want at Geo. L. Kern & Bro's. They carry the nicest line of meats in the city. C. F. H. Carrithers, of Fairbury, candidate for county judge, was in Dwight Tuesday in the interest of his candidacy. He reports a very successful canvass. There will be an auction sale of goods of all descriptions at Harry Lawrence's old store this afternoon. This will be an excellent chance to procure some staple goods very cheap. The Democratic caucus for the election of delegates to the county convention to be held in Pontiac the 24th, will be held in the town house at 3 o'clock next Saturday, the 21st. Commander C. W. Ayling wishes to call the attention of the members of the G. A. R. to the fact that next Tuesday evening is the regular meeting and all are requested to be present. When you want a lunch, don't forget that the coffee at E. E. Fenn's lunch counter is Mocha and Java; the pies are home made, and the sandwiches are out of sight—when you eat them. Don't forget that Ed Reeb, the barber, is still to be found in the handsome and cool shop in the Hagerty block, where he is prepared to serve customers with shaves, haircuts, baths, etc. The republican county convention will convene at 10:30 a. m. July 17. This is a change, as heretofore the convention has always met in the afternoon. Delegates and visitors should bear this in mind. Mrs. Walter Weese is visiting her people in Joliet, and her health is rapidly improving. Walt's health is failing and he has not told anything but the truth for a week. There's something wrong. The Dwight brass band was invited up to the Ketchum house Thursday evening. They played several very nice selections and were served with ice cream, cake, etc., and enjoyed a pleasant evening. New hot weather Dress Goods just being received at E. T. Miller's. They consist of Swiss Muslins, Black Organ-dies, Monsilines, etc., cheaper than they have been offered before this season. Come and see them. A nice pork, veal, mutton or beef roast, a chicken or something else nice can always be found Saturdays at Scott & McDonald. They are always prepared to furnish everything nice for a fine Sunday dinner. Revs. Cutler, of Emington, and Swanson, of Odell, were in Dwight Monday on their wheels. They made us a very pleasant call and we found that, although ministers occasionally have wheels, they are not in their heads. Mr. Conrad, our enterprising coal dealer, has taken pains to get a large supply of excellent Lehigh Valley hard coal, which he proposes to sell to his customers at a very low figure. It will pay you to leave your orders with him right away. The county board of supervisors was in session this week and did their usual routine of business. The STAR AND HERALD will publish a full report next week. Supervisor Mills, of Dwight, was present. Mr. Cleary, of Odell, was re-elected chairman. Miss Sudie Finlen, of Streator, was a guest of Misses Gussie and Faye Blaine last week. They were college chums at Oxford, Ohio. Miss Gussie and Faye expect to return the visit during vacation. A party was given last Friday evening in honor of their guest.

A visitor to Chicago would never know there had been a strike only for the presence of the soldiers. Everything is quiet all around the business part and the only thing the military and civil authorities fear is fire and explosions caused by the lawless element of the city. Frank Smith took several parties to Indiana this week who went to invest in land. He sold 520 acres on his last trip. The Hoosiers call Frank the "kid real estate dealer," but 520 on a trip is pretty good for a kid. Next! LATER—He returned yesterday having sold 240 more. Talk about getting there! Ladies who value a pure, clear skin and a nice complexion (and what lady does not?) will be glad to learn that Mrs. W. E. Fenn, milliner, Dwight, has taken the agency for Mrs. Gervaise Graham's Cucumber and Elder Flower Cream, Face Bleach and other cosmetics. Ladies are invited to call on Mrs. Fenn for a free sample and a copy of Mrs. Graham's little book, "How to Be Beautiful." Three train loads of cavalry, artillery and signal service regulars passed through Dwight Tuesday morning for the seat of war in Chicago. They received orders here not to "pay any attention to what was said to them, but if anyone threw stones or anything else at them to fire, and fire to kill," and from their appearance and general bearing we should judge they would. The cavalry was from Fort Riley, Kansas, and were detachments from the 2nd cavalry. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kyle entertained a large number of Dwightites at the Mazon restaurant Wednesday evening. The place was handsomely decorated with choice flowers, and excellent music was provided. The guests were seated at tables and served with the most delicious ice cream, lemon ice, cakes and lemonade, such as only the hostess of the Mazon can produce, and spent a happy evening enjoying the great treat. The general expression of the departing guests was "long live Mr. and Mrs. Kyle." W. H. Nelson, who is in the drug business at Kingville, Mo., has so much confidence in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he warrants every bottle and offers to refund the money to any customer who is not satisfied after using it. Mr. Nelson takes no risk in doing this because the remedy is a certain cure for the diseases for which it is intended and he knows it. It is for sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville; Smith & Melhuish, Gardner. A train of 30 cars loaded with select cattle passed through here Friday morning for Liverpool. The train was made up somewhere in the northwest on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad. As this road was unable to handle the cattle on account of the boycott the train was transferred to the Burlington system and by them brought to Streator where it was turned over to the "3-1." The cars were all decorated with huge posters bearing advertisements of business houses in the town from which the train started. The train was drawn by two mogul engines. William Jeremiah, a much traveled and widely-known polisher of human pedal extremities, the irrepresible leader of the great strike which took place in our state capital in 1882, when the boot blacks refused to "shine 'em up" for less than a dime, and won a transitory victory over the muddy heel of monopoly at that time, is spending a week in Dwight whetting away at his profession. He is an ex-United States marine, is a stump speaker, an elocutionist and a first-rate "shiner," and carries many medals and badges as trophies of victories of the forum and sidewalk. Ain't it so, Jerry. Last June, Dick Crawford brought his twelve months old child, suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and being sickly everything ran through it like water through a sieve. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25 cent size had been used a marked improvement was seen and it continued use cured the child. Its weakness and puny constitution disappeared and its father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this Remedy. J. T. Marlow, M. D. Tamora, Ill. For sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville; Smith & Melhuish, Gardner. Girl Wanted in Streator. Edward Flescher & Co., proprietors of the Columbus hotel in Streator, wish to employ a first-class dining room girl, one who has had experience in hotel work. Good wages and the best of treatment guaranteed. A horse kicked H. S. Shafer, of the Freeman House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many other and says it is excellent for any kind of a bruise or sprain. The same remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism. For sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville; Smith & Melhuish, Gardner. Three weekly papers for $2.50. Inter Ocean, N. Y. Tribune and your home paper.

Proclamation.

WHEREAS, During these riotous and turbulent times, when all communities and people are subjected to destruction of property and injury to persons, it behooves all peaceable and well inclined citizens, the lion-hearted and strong as well as the trembling and weak, to prepare themselves to make summary retreat to more congenial clime—upon first report of assault, and as a certain means to facilitating said retreat in a safe and dignified yet expeditious manner, be it

RESOLVED, That all persons are hereby requested and urged to fit themselves with proper and becoming footwear at the well known shoe and harness house of Leach & Reeb, East Side, Dwight, where arrangements have been made to supply Ladies' and Gents' Fine Shoes, Ladies' Oxfords, Electric Sudor for cure of Excessive Perspiration, Light and Heavy Leather Fly Nets, and all kinds of shoe and harness repairing at way down prices, so that in the end the glory may be ours.

"He who fights and runs away,
Lives to fight some other day.

Given under our hands and seal, this the fourteenth day of July, A. D. 1894, at Dwight, Illinois.

JOHN LEACH, Principal.

Attest: FRANK REEB, 2d Prin.
