TALMAGE'S SERMON.

THE DIVINE DISCUSSES ANOTHER UNIQUE SUBJECT.

He Says the Effect All Depends Upon How We Laugh and What We Laugh At—David's Smile and Sarah's Cackling—Five Prayerful Wishes and a Blessing.

Rev. Dr. Talmage, who is now in Australia on his round the world tour, has selected as the subject for his sermon through the press "Laughter," the text being taken from Psalm xxvii, 2.

Thirty-eight times does the Bible make reference to this configuration of the features and quick expansion of breath which we call laughter. Sometimes the midriff, sometimes it stirs the sympathies of angels, and sometimes the cackling of devils.

The Lord Almighty one of them, the turn for the hospitality shown by the old peep o' God promises Sarah that she shall become the ancestress of the Lord Jesus Christ.

copy for himself, for we might have trouble, and we would want to be under the delusions of his consolations, and we might die, and we would want the delusion of the exalted residence of God's saints, which I mention. Oh, what an awful thing it is to laugh in God's face and hurl his Revelation back at him.

But, my friends, all of us who revere Christ and the pardon of the gospel must come under that tremendous bombardment. God wants us all to repent, and when any man says anything to do, and does it well. His smile! Why, it is the 15th of May, the apple orchards in full bloom; it is morning breaking on a rippling sea; it is Heaven at high noon; it is the smile that the martyrs receive. But his laughter—may it never fall on us! It is a condemnation for our sin; it is a wasting away. We may let the satirist laugh at us, and all our companions may laugh at us, and we may be made the target for the fulfillment of the prophecy against the rejectors of the truth, "I will laugh at you in your calamity."

God's laugh and His smile. His smile is eternal beatitude. He smiled when David sang, and Miriam clapped the cymbals, and Hannah made garments for her son, and Paul preached, and John stood with apocalyptic visions, and when any man says anything to do, and does it well. BERMUDA'S COLORING.

The Blue Reminds the Traveler of the Mediterranean at Its Best. The attention of the traveler is at first attracted by the colors of the waters as he approaches land, and in the innumerable bays and inner sounds, says Harper's Magazine.

It is here difficult to believe that these brilliant colors are not inherent in the water, and the fancy is quickened by some of the fish that sport in these cyan seas. One of these is the angel fish, flat and oval in form, of a certain blue with two long strands of green water. For the water at a great depth is absolutely transparent.

Watermelon Patch in Her Throat. Little Adelaide Cunningham, of Fall River, has passed through a remarkable experience. On the 10th of last September she was eating watermelon, when a seed lodged in her windpipe. She was seized with a terrible fit of coughing, and for weeks her life was despaired of. Physicians could do nothing for her, and she wanted away a terrible fit of coughing a few days ago, and the melon seed was thrown out. It was three times the regular size of the ordinary seed and contained a long sprout, which was evidently growing in her windpipe. She was immediately relieved, and can now breathe easily.
