Mr. Wright enlisted May 1861, and saw over three years of hard service. As the subject indicates the lecture is a story of the experience and trials of a young private soldier. A very serious effort is being made to establish a first class amateur ball nine here, the race track is to be used for the games. Base ball is all the rage again and most every town around here has a nine, and it is more than probable that some good games will be witnessed here the balance of the season. We received a very pleasant call from E. L. Monser, of Wenona, while enroute to Pontiac to attend the republican county convention. Mr. Monser is a candidate for the legislature and an excellent man for the place. Hon. Bailey Gower would well represent the farming community and Mr. Monser the commercial interests, and together they would make a good team. Thirty-three years ago today, (Saturday), the first battle of Bull Run was fought, and the pastor of the Congregational church was present. He will preach a sermon to-morrow evening on the Bull Runs of life. It will be a word of cheer to the discouraged. It will not be a history of that battle, but the peculiar condition of things there give the ground work for the discourse. Rev. C. W. Ayling left Wednesday for a three weeks' vacation which his church recently voted him. Mr. Ayling very pleasantly remarked last Sunday to his flock that he had been wanting to give his congregation a rest for some time. The Reverend gentleman, however, will be missed greatly and all his many friends hope the three weeks will be filled with pleasure and that he will return reinvigorated and as happy as ever. E. E. Fenn sold his fruit and confectionary business to Mrs. J. D. Ketcham, turning the property over to his successor last Wednesday. He also notifies all persons indebted to him to make settlement at once and save trouble and expense. Elmer will go to Chicago soon to join his brother Charley in the fruit commission business. It must have occurred to our readers ere this that Dwight has one of the finest and neatest restaurant and ice cream parlors to be found outside the large cities and many of those are not near as good. At the Kyle restaurant a person can order anything in the market and get it cooked and served in first-class style and the recent reception given the Dwight people by the liberal proprietor and his estimable wife was evidence of what they are able to do. The people of Dwight should take pride in the Kyle restaurant and if they expect such a desirable institution to remain in the community should give it the patronage necessary for maintenance. Last June, Dick Crawford brought his twelve months old child, suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and being sickly everything ran through it like water through a sieve. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25 cent size had been used, a marked improvement was seen and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and puny constitution disappeared and its father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this Remedy. J. T. Marlow M. D. Tamora, Ill. For sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville; Smith & Melhuish, Gardner.

The recent rains were received with open arms and cisterns. Miss Ada Weldon is visiting friends and relatives at Hill Park and Verona this week. S. M. They will make a nice diamond at the driving park and commence games soon. Ed. Reeh and W. T. Prime are managers. W. H. Nelson, who is in the drug business at Kinville, Mo., has so much confidence in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he warrants every bottle and offers to refund the money to any customer who is not satisfied after using it. Mr. Nelson takes no risk in doing this because the remedy is a certain cure for the diseases for which it is intended and he knows it. It is for sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville; Smith & Melhuish, Gardner. We neglected to state last week that Miss Pauline Groll had resigned her position as assistant in the Dwight postoffice. She has been employed there for about three years and was thoroughly posted in all the details of the work, was always very accommodating and pleasant and will be greatly missed by the patrons of the office. We are informed that she has already accepted a position more to her liking, at Winchester, Ill., in the large dry goods store of M. and S. Hainsfurther, where she goes August 1. The members of the firm whose employ she will enter, are brothers of Mesdames Carl and Joe Miller. The many friends of Miss Pauline will be pleased to learn that she is to be pleasantly located.
