

DWIGHT LOCAL NEWS.

Milk 4 cents a quart.
Eyes tested free at J. C. Lewis.
Joe Eyer spent Monday last in Chicago.
Charlie Waiso has been working in Nevada.
Miss Ella Klughart spent Monday in Gardner.
Crepe papers in different tints at J. C. Lewis.
Schilling's Model Form Corsets at Mrs. Penn's.
Grain is pouring into town from all directions.
J. J. Miller went to the city Friday on business.
Will Prime was in Pontiac Saturday on business.
Window and door screens at Baker's Furniture store.
D. B. Stevens was in Blackstone on business Tuesday.
Herschel Hagerty has been quite sick for a few days.
C. V. Bower entertained his father several days this week.
Mr. and Mrs. John Cleal, of Ransom, Sunday at Alpha Bakers.
New York Weekly Tribune and the STAR and HERALD, $1.75.
Mrs. Fenn is agent for Mrs. Scobell's celebrated hygiene corset.
Mrs. Pearre is having all of her dwelling houses nicely repainted.
Miss Gussie any Faye Blaine visited friends in Streator this week.
Johnnie Nevans is visiting relatives in Mason City for a few days.
"Neglige Shirts" only ten cents at the Dwight Artesian Laundry.
Oats are turning out well, averaging about sixty bushels to the acre.
Go to Spott & McDonald's for New England cooked ham. It's nice.
Little Mary Hughes, of Wilmington, is a guest of Leila Barr this week.
Hammocks, croquet and base ball goods at Baker's Furniture store.
The Alaska refrigerator, the best in the world, for sale by C. M. Baker. 4 Dora, Maggie and Henry Kern returned from a two days' visit in Cornell.
The best of canned and dried fruits at rock bottom prices at the Star Grocery.
Ada and Katie Klughart are visiting friends and relatives in Bonfield this week.
James Maguire, the Wilson merchant, made his business call last Saturday.
The oil wagon is the handiest and cheapest place to get your supplies in that line.
Ill. Valley Circuit Races at Joliet, Aug. 7-10. One and one-third for the round trip.
The best place to get your watch repaired done at reasonable prices is at Guardianier's.
Scott & McDonald want to see you about a Sunday roast. They have just what you want.
Chas. L. Romberger was called to Chicago Wednesday on account of the sickness of his wife.
Miss Julia Long, of Chicago, is visiting her mother and sisters in Dwight during her vacation.
Misses Cora Baker and Agnes Buck returned home Monday from their visit to friends in Streator.
Walter Weese was in Ottawa Wednesday on business, and took time to see some of the races.
The C. & A. is at present doing a larger freight business than at any time for five years past.
Mrs. J. F. Wassell and Miss Charlotte visited Mrs. Ivens and family in Chicago the first of the week.
Dr. R. Broughton left last Saturday for a two weeks stay at the Topeka, Kansas, Keeley Institute.
Ed. Losee was in Wilmington for a few days this week purchasing wool and shipping it to Chicago.
Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Baker left Thursday on an extended visit with relatives and friends in the east.
Mrs. John Koehler had the misfortune to sprain her ankle this week and suffered greatly, but is some better now.
John Parvin moved his cigar and buttermilk store into the store recently occupied by Harry Lawrence, this week.
The following letters are uncalled for at the Dwight postoffice Aug 2, 1894: W. H. Foreman, W. A. Thomas, Jas. Kelagher, P. M.
Mrs. Harry Lawrence returned to Chicago Sunday. Harry is now running a cigar and fruit store in the city and doing nicely.
on the same steamer for Sitka, Alaska, and return. We almost envy them their cooling this hot weather, amid glaciers and icebergs of that northern country.
The Indiana, Illinois & Iowa railroad will run an excursion train to Niagara Falls and return, leaving Streator, Ill., August 21, 1894, stopping at all stations. The rate will be $7.50 for the round trip. For further particulars apply to Agt., I. I. & I. Ry. Train leaves Streator, 1:45 p. m.; Dwight, 2:45; Kankakee, 4:00. Arrives at North Judson, 6:00.

Will Prime spent Monday in Chicago.
L. A. Naffziger spent Sunday last in Chicago.
Fred Liggett and family spent Sunday with relatives in Normal.
Mrs. Fenn and Miss Addie have returned from an outing at Lake Bluff.
Work was commenced on the new well Monday, and it will be rushed to completion. Joe Eyer has the contract.
D. G. Henshaw, formerly station agent at this place, now traveling auditor for the Alton, spent Monday and Tuesday here, and was the guest of agent W. H. Doty.
If you are looking for choice meats, you will always find just what you want at Geo. L. Kern & Bro's. They carry the nicest line of meats in the city.
The school board is about to issue a pamphlet including studies, rules of government, etc., which will be a very valuable hand book for parents and pupils.
Miss McCormick, who has been employed as typist by Chas. L. Romberger has accepted a position in Chicago, and Miss Bessie Baker has accepted her position here.
Mr. and Mrs. Howlett returned last week from a very pleasant visit to relatives and friends in New York and other eastern states. They are both much improved in health.
Mr. John Pettett and Miss Tillie are entertaining two nieces of the former, daughters of Harry Pettett, of Lacon. A very enjoyable party was given last night in honor of their visit.
Misses Greenwalt and Edna Brown left Wednesday evening on the "humer" for Bloomington, where they took the L. E. & W. excursion to Niagara Falls. They will return in about a month.
Miss Pauline Groll left Tuesday for Winchester, Ill., to accept a position in the store of Mr. Hainsfurther. Mrs. Frank Smith accompanied Miss Groll and will visit with Miss Hainsfurther for a few days.
A nice pork, veal, mutton or beef roast, a chicken or something else nice can always be found Saturdays at Scott & McDonald. They are always prepared to furnish everything nice for a fine Sunday dinner.
Miss Louise McWilliams left Wednesday morning for New York, and will sail this morning in the French line steamer "La Normandie" for Havre, which is the seaport for Paris, and will be absent several months.
Mr. Conrad, our enterprising coal dealer, has taken pains to get a large supply of excellent Lehigh Valley hard coal, which he proposes to sell to his customers at a very low figure. It will pay you to leave your orders with him right away.
Losee & Brown have been in Wilmington part of this week, buying wool. These hustling gentlemen had bought and shipped to Dwight over a ton of wool by Wednesday evening. They report crops much better in that locality than near here.
The great humorist, Robt. Burdette, was in Dwight this week, attending the wedding of his niece, Miss Louise de Clercq. This is his first visit here for five years, when he awarded the diplomas at the commencement exercises of the high school.
Mrs. Owen and daughter Madge, leave next Tuesday for Springfield, Mo., where the former has a brother residing. Miss Mabell will move to Chicago to reside with an uncle. The many friends of the family will wish them success and happiness in their new homes.
Mr. Jno. McWilliams, of Odell, in company with his daughter, Bessie, son John, jr., started on Monday for a trip to Alaska. They went via Northern Pacific R. R. to Tacoma and will sail on the steamship Queen on next Monday. Dr. and Mrs. Keeley, who left the week previous, had received their room.
James Cooper, of Minneapolis, Minn., was a guest of Mrs. J. C. Lewis, several days this and last week. Mr. Cooper has a valuable patent on a hose mender, which was tested in Chicago this week. It is an attachment, or clamp, to put on a bursted hose and stop the leak without lessening the pressure of water.
Ernest Seymour started out Monday morning for a long trip on his wheel. He went from here to Streator and then on to Ottawa and Mendota, from there he will go to Dixon and after a three weeks' visit will come home through Aurora. At the latter place he will be joined by Calvin Morris and the two will come home together.
Constance Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Taylor, gave a party to quite a number of her little friends Wednesday afternoon, and they all had a good time. Following are the names of those present: Minnie Leach, Louise Leach, Ethel Oakshett, Lillie Oakshett, Aggie Knudson, Fannie Knudson, Mabel Koehler, Letta Haise, Clara Naffziger, Alta Hukill, Leila Barr, Mary Hughes, Ada Dunlap, Lollie Bunting, Stella Bovik, Margaret Saltzer, Jessie Graham, Jessie Miller, Etta Chamberlin, Nellie McLean, Florence Parsons.
Fine new buggy for sale cheap.

Who saw the circus—boards.
Was it a circus or a cuss sir?
Who has any circus orders to sell?
Where is the man that took in the circus man?
Mrs. Frank Ford is still quite sick and confined to her bed.
Will Leach spent Sunday visiting friends in Green Valley, Ill.
The Andrews Bros. & Cowan circus did quite a business in Dwight.
Jared Williams has opened a training ground for green colts. See his "ad"
Mrs. Edwin Mezger is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Quinn, of Peoria, this week.
Nice eight room dwelling for rent cheap to right party. Ketcham & Smith.
Mrs. Geo. Gage will go to Petoska next Monday to visit during the hay fever season.
The next circus man who comes to town will probably have to do a cash business—if he does any.
Mrs. H. A. Dart and Miss Edith Dart, mother and sister of Mrs. D. C. Morgan, are guests here this week.
Reader, it will be money in your pocket to read the advertisements in the STAR AND HERALD and trade accordingly.
Probably Mr. Sells and his circus could obtain the exclusive use of some circus boards all ready for use at a very reasonable figure.
For rent, 160 acre farm three miles north of Dwight, 60 acres tilled, cash rent with good bond. Inquire at John Thompson's office.
Anyone having rubbish to be hauled away who will dump the same on the lot formerly occupied by the Scott house will oblige W. T. Scott.
The books of Gregg & Sterrett will be found at their old stand, and all parties knowing themselves indebted to this firm will please call and make settlement on or before Sept. 1, '94.
We received a pleasant call Saturday from Rev. A. M. Conard, formerly pastor of the M. E. church, who is now located in Bloomington. Mr. Conard was en route to Bracesville, where he preaches every Sunday.
Major Milton R. Keeley, M. D., of the 5th Illinois Infantry, returned from the seat of war last week. The Major had charge of the hospital department of the brigade and did his duties with honor to himself and regiment.
The state report of the Equitable Loan and Investment Co., of Bloomington, gives that organization a standing second to none in the state. Anyone desiring to invest a little money and have it pay them big, or anyone having a lot or two and wishes to build a home will do well to call on W. G. Dustin, at the STAR AND HERALD office.
Samuel Thompson narrowly escaped a severe injury last Monday. While cleaning out a bin in Mezger & Co.'s elevator a partition wall broke and let several tons of grain into the bin. Before Thompson could be gotten out his legs were nearly buried and the grain was rapidly climbing up on his body, but he escaped without injury.
Rev. Burdette, whom our reader will remember as the gentleman who returned from missionary duty in India about a year ago and spent several days here, with his sister, Mrs. de Clercq, is here again, and occupied the pulpit both morning and evening at Congregational church. Mr. Burdette is an eloquent and interesting talker and the congregation was very much pleased.
On Friday of last week Nick Miller lost his threshing machine by fire. A spark from the engine got in the straw and before the separator could be removed it was burned. This is quite a severe loss to Mr. Miller. It was with the utmost exertion that the adjoining field of grain was saved. The burning took place on one of D. McWilliams' farms, and Henry Haak was the tenant.
John Hanna, Fred Pfeiffer and other prosperous farmers of Goodfarm were in town Saturday. We understand all they want in regard to the sewer is that it does not create a nuisance on their places. With the filter in at the end of the sewer it will be impossible to create a nuisance even as near as the Hayes farm. The filter will be put in right away and there should be no further trouble.
The ladies' society of the Danish M. E. church will give an ice cream festival at their church on Thursday evening, Aug. 9th. Ice cream can be had from 7 to 9:30. A short program will begin at 8 o'clock. Friends from First M. E. church will sing. Rev. Ayling will make some remarks, and Rev. Wilhelmens will tell about some of the difficulties he encountered when trying to learn the English language. The ladies' aim is to pay off a church debt of $65 to the Church Extension next month. They have $45 already, will you help them get the rest?
Mrs. Ellen Malson, wife of Elder Malson, pastor of the U. B. church, at Galton, Ill., in speaking of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, says: "I can cheerfully recommend it." Applied to a cut, bruise or burn, it produces soothing, pleasant effect, relieving the pain almost instantly and healing the parts quickly and without leaving a scar. A flannel cloth dampened with this liniment and bound on over the affected part, will cure a sprain in less time than any other treatment. Sold by Barr & Davis, Dwight; Smith & Melhuish, Gardner and Augustine & Son, Bracesville

Boots and Shoes and Harness!

GOODS WELL BOUGHT ARE HALF SOLD!

THERE IN A BROADER MEANING TO WELL BOUGHT THAN MERELY THE PRICE PAID.

A pair of Shoes for 50 cents, or a Harness for $4.00 would be well bought if there was but one quality of goods, but either may be dear in the end, for quality should always be considered.

Ladies,' Gents' and Children's Fine Shoes,

FLY NETS, LAP DUSTERS, SINGLE AND DOUBLE HARNESS, GLOVES and MITTENS, HORSE BLANKETS, SHOE DRESSING AND BRUSHES, and SUDOR FOR EXCESSIVE PERSPIRATION.

We are the Cheapest House in Dwight ;

QUALITY CONSIDERED !

SOLE AGENT FOR THE GENUINE "SNAG PROOF" RUBBER BOOTS, SHOES AND RUBBERS, LEACH & REEB.

DO YOU WANT

Some Fine Investments in

Real Estate?
Loan of Money?
Best Insurance?

Some of the Best Farming Lands in the World at very Low Figures, and on Easy Terms.

Call Early, for Our Land Bargains are Going Rapidly.

Ketcham & Smith,

DWIGHT, ILL.