 What's the matter with the merchants closing up next Monday afternoon and giving the clerks a chance to see the ball game. If they closed up three or four hours that's all that would be necessary.
 Under the auspices of the Relief Corps, the original drummer boy of the Rappahannock will be at the opera house Monday evening. Mr. Hendershot and son are spoken of very highly by the press all over the country.
 Grandma Bell had the misfortune the other day to lose her cane between her home and the farm of Mr. Buffham. It is a black cane with silver mountings and is valued as a keepsake. The finder will confer a great favor by returning the same.
 The Dwight boys will have another game of ball Monday, the Fairbury nine coming here. The latter are said to be exceptionally good and the game will be a fine one. The band will be on hand and a good time for all who attend. The game will be at the race track.
 Fidel by Idol, the horse that won the free-for-all pacing race at Streator recently, is a brother of the sire of Dr. Livingston's horse, Coburn Morgan. The race was hotly contested by a dozen of the best horses in the United States, including Johnson 2:06, for years the fast horse in the world.
 Misses Gussie and Fay Blaine, Cora Baker and Agnes Buck, who have been spending the past few days with Streator friends, returned to their homes in Dwight to-day. A party of them had their pictures taken Saturday in a group and they look just awful pretty—so Alie Richards tells us.—Streator Free Press.
 Everyone should see and hear R. H. Hendershot and son. The senior Hendershot is the original drummer boy of the Rappahannock, about whom so much has been written. They will give a splendid entertainment under the auspices of the Relief Corps next Monday evening, at the opera house. The program will be interspersed with music by home talent. All around the entertainment will be very fine, and worthy of the patronage of all.

The state report of the Equitable Loan and Investment Co., of Bloomington, gives that organization a standing second to none in the state. Anyone desiring to invest a little money and have it pay them big, or anyone having a lot or two and wishes to build a home will do well to call on W. G. Dustin, at the STAR AND HERALD office.
 The Indiana, Illinois & Iowa railroad will run an excursion train to Niagara Falls and return, leaving Streator, Ill., August 21, 1894, stopping at all stations. The rate will be $7.50 for the round trip. For further particulars apply to Agt. I. I. & I. Ry. Train leaves Streator, 1:45 p. m.; Dwight, 2:45; Kankakee, 4:00. Arrives at North Judson, 6:00.
 Attorney Sam Stough, of Morris, was in town Monday, in company with some of the farmers of Goodfarm who live along the raging Gooseberry. He was probably here on sewer business, and called on H. Fox. Attorney Walter Reeves, of Streator, refused to take any further case against Dwight in the matter. He thinks if a filter is put in the cause for damages is removed.
 Many of the old soldiers and Relief Corps delegates of Dwight who attended national and state encampments, have seen Hendershot and his son in their musical entertainments. Mr. Hendershot's experiences as a drummer boy at the great battle on the Rappahannock during the great war, will be thrillingly related, and much other interesting entertainment. Tickets only 25 cents. Opera House Monday evening.
 H. A. Kenyon, formerly postmaster at Dwight, but for the past eight years a resident of Chicago, as proprietor of the Kenyon News Agency, has accepted a position as general manager of The Leslie E. Keeley Co., at Dwight, and will move back to take charge of the work. His son, E. P. Kenyon, succeeds him as manager of the news agency. The company have made an excellent selection in obtaining the services of Mr. Kenyon.—Sentinel.
 Mr. Jno. McWilliams, of Odell, in company with his daughter, Bessie, son John, jr., started on Monday for a trip to Alaska. They went via Northern Pacific R. R. to Tacoma and will sail on the steamship Queen on next Monday. Dr. and Mrs. Keeley, who left the week previous, had received their room on the same steamer for Sitka, Alaska and return. We almost envy them their cooling this hot weather, amid glaciers and icebergs of that northern country.
 At Streator, D. Heenan & Co. are taking the bull by the horns. Should there be a change in the tariff, which is expected this fall, it will materially effect a great portion of their merchandise, for this reason a great tariff reduction sale will commence Monday, August 13, and close Sept. 1, 1894. All who visit their store from the country during the last week (Aug. 29, to Sept. 1) will be provided with tea and coffee free of charge. This sale will be the greatest clearing event in the history of their past success and everyone should try and be present with their friends at least one day.
 The Epworth League entertainment Tuesday evening was a very pleasant and profitable affair. The vocal solo by Miss Addie Fenn was fine, the duets, quartette, etc. were highly appreciated and Miss Ella Pollard closed the program with a very pretty instrumental selection, but the feature of the evening was the papers on subjects closely related and of the greatest importance and interest, the first by Chas. Vickery, of the University of Illinois, on "University Extension" and the second by Miss Anna Dunlop, of the Northwestern, on "University Settlement," the papers were both excellent, the first being especially interesting to all persons interested in higher education and we hope to be able to speak further on this subject soon.
 Mrs. Ellen Malson, wife of Elder Malson, pastor of the U. B. church at Galton, Ill., in speaking of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, says: "I can cheerfully recommend it." Applied to a cut, bruise or burn, it produces soothing, pleasant effect, relieving the pain almost instantly and healing the parts quickly and without leaving a scar. A flannel cloth dampened with this liniment and bound on over the effected part, will cure a sprain in less time than any other treatment. Sold by Barr & Davis, Dwight; Smith & Melhuish, Gardner and Augustine & Son, Braceville.

 Maloney—Bangs.
 The STAR AND HERALD is in receipt of a very neat announcement of the marriage of Miss Margaret R. Maloney, of Fairbury, and Prof. Edward Bangs, the superintendent of the Pontiac township high school. The wedding took place at the home of the bride in Fairbury, and Prof. and Mrs. Bangs will be at home in Pontiac after September 1.
 The professor is a well known educator and a very fine, high toned gentleman, and his wife is one of Fairbury's handsomest young ladies. The STAR AND HERALD joins this community in extending congratulations.
