 Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Osmun were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Weld Sunday. Mr. Osmun is now located at 189 LaSalle St., Chicago, and is engaged in adjusting fire losses. He is the same smooth Dan, that he always was, and is a good, sound Keeley graduate of over three years' standing.
 Mr. Herrick, an able representative of the Congregational Society, addressed the congregation at the church Sunday morning and evening. The objects of the society are splendid, and deserve recognition and assistance from christian people and true Americans. One particular object is to educate poor but bright young men of all nationalities so that they may be able to go out among the foreign element in our land and educate them along the lines of true Americanism and christianity. A collection was taken up in the morning for the cause with fair results. The church was full in the evening and all were well pleased with Mr. Herrick's address. He is a brilliant and interesting talker.

 The great Grand Army reunion, called the Big Bend reunion, will be held in Streator next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. General Thos. J. Henderson, Henry Mayo and other speakers will be present. Every old soldier welcomed. The meeting will be held at the fair grounds.

 The state report of the Equitable Loan and Investment Co., of Bloomington, gives that organization a standing second to none in the state. Anyone desiring to invest a little money and have it pay them big, or anyone having a lot or two and wishes to build a home will do well to call on W. G. Dustin, at the STAR AND HERALD office.
 Mr. J. A. Webster and family left for Murray, New York, Tuesday, to take up their residence at their old home. Mr. Webster sold his coal and ice business to Walter Scott some time since and has been settling up his business. The family has made many warm friends among our people who will be sorry to hear of their departure and wish them God speed and prosperity.
 Miss Fowler, of Evanston, who occupied the pulpit at the M. E. church, last Sunday morning, was greeted by a good congregation, and to say that every one was pleased with her sermon hardly expresses it, they were delighted with Miss Fowler, and her earnest, forcible discourse appealed to the minds and hearts of all her auditors. Miss Fowler is a preacher of ability as well as a deep and broad minded thinker, and she certainly does stand among the most effective workers in the Methodist pulpit to-day. There was no preaching service in the evening, Miss Fowler, for physical reasons, declining to preach twice. She gave a short talk before the Epworth League regarding the Epworth children's home, in the interests of which she is working.
 Sunny Side of Life.
 Charles Eugene Banks will deliver his very interesting and justly celebrated lecture, "Sunny Side of Life," at the club house next Thursday evening. Mr. Banks has been in Dwight several times and has many friends here who will be pleased to hear him. His lecture is spoken of very highly by the metropolitan newspapers throughout the land. Every one should hear Mr. Banks. The price of admission will be but 25 cents.
 Perpetual Certificate.
 Prof. J. H. Meneeley, of the Dwight public schools, was honored last week in a manner that can only be most gratifying to him as it is to his friends here. Last week examinations were held in Galesburg, Normal, Effingham, Springfield and East St. Louis for state certificates for teaching. There were thirty-eight applicants and out of that number only five were honored with perpetual certificates, and one of the five was our Prof. J. H. Meneeley, of Dwight. Very few gain such an educational honor as this at the age of Mr. Meneeley and our people feel proud of him.
 New Railroad Map of Illinois.
 Dwight C. Morgan, consulting engineer of the Railroad and Warehouse Commission, is preparing a new railroad map of the state. The map will show all railroad lines in the state and the stations on each line. When published, this will be the only up to date railroad map of the state in existence. The labor troubles being practically settled, Mr. Morgan has arranged to start next Monday on his annual tour of inspection of the railroads of the state. The examinations will be made with special trains, the first roads to be examined being those terminating in East St. Louis.
