

Picnic Postponed.

On account of rain the Modern Woodmen Picnic was postponed from Friday of this week, until Thursday of next week, Sept. 13. It is hoped that the weather will then be good and everybody will come. The arrangements will be the same.

MEMBER COMMITTEE.

T. Miller. Complete line of gent's furnishing goods at lowest prices, at E. T. Miller's. Drop $1.25 in the slot and read the STAR AND HERALD every week for a year. The oil wagon is the handiest and cheapest place to get your supplies in that line. The best place to get your watch repaired done at reasonable prices is at Gardener's. L. P. Clover, of Aurora, Ill., visited his parents in Dwight and friends in this neighborhood. The Fairbury fair had hard luck this week. The Woodmen can sympathize with them. The Bargain Store will stamp one pattern free of charge with each one dollar cash purchase. Go to Walter Scott for the best Braidwood coal. He also keeps the best grade of hard coal. Miss Adaline Baker left Monday for Onarga, to take up school work in Grand Prairie Seminary. Dr. R. Broughton returned Tuesday from a five weeks' stay at the Topeka Kansas, Keeley Institute. Pillow shams and large patterns stamped for 10 cents, small patterns 5 cents, at the Bargain store. Look up the date your subscription is paid to and act according to the golden rule, so we can do the same. Misses Carrie Palmer and Lizzie Haney, of Onarga, visited the family of Geo. Baker Saturday and Sunday. O. Feebery, a prosperous farmer from Nevada, was in Dwight a short time Wednesday, and made us a call. E. H. Kneeland returned Wednesday from the 3-1 excursion to Niagara Falls, having enjoyed a pleasant visit. Reader, it will be money in your pocket to read the advertisements in the STAR AND HERALD and trade accordingly. Farms and Lands for sale in south-eastern Iowa. Cheap prices and easy terms. Address J. Lloyd Maffitt, Wapello, Iowa. Sept. 1. W7. The books of Gregg & Sterrett will be found at their old stand, and all parties knowing themselves indebted to this firm will please call and make settlement on or before Sept. 1, '94. Harvest excursions to northwestern western and southern states via C. & A. R. R., Sept. 11th, Sept 25th and Oct. 9th. One fare plus $2 for the round trip. Inquire at C. & A. office for particulars. Mr. Conrad, the enterprising coal dealer, wishes to announce that once more he is prepared to supply his customers with Braidwood coal and at very reasonable prices. Call on Mr. Conrad and get his prices before laying in your winter supply of coal.

School books at Lewis'. School books at Lewis'. School tablets at Lewis'. School tablets at Lewis'. Everything in the school line at Lewis'. F. W. Stewart, of Forrest, the organ and piano man, called on us Wednesday. Notice the change in dates in his ad. The Campus-Dwight ball game was knocked out by rain, Thursday. The boys were beaten in Campus last week. Mrs. J. R. Oughton left Tuesday for Davenport, Iowa, with Jimmie and Johnnie. The boys will attend school there. S. T. K. Prime visited with Dr. Bode-way and family in St. Louis several days recently, and reports a very pleasant trip. FOR SALE—A small building, suitable for coal or chicken house, nearly new, to move away. Apply to James Williams. Mrs. C. V. Bower entertained her mother, Mrs. N. Gardner, of Indianapolis and Mrs. McClintock, of Peoria, this week. Martin Wilks was down town this week, after a severe illness. His many friends hope for his speedy and complete recovery. Young George Kern stepped on a broken bottle Tuesday, cutting his foot so badly as to necessitate the taking of several stitches. G. A. R. encampment at Pittsburg, Sept. 8 to 15. One fare for the round trip via the C. & A. R. R. Ticket on sale Sept. 8 and 9. For rent, 160 acre farm three miles north of Dwight, 60 acres tiled, cash rent with good bond. Inquire at John Thompson's office. The Spencer hay press factory has been running about thirty-five hands and until nine or ten o'clock at night for the past few weeks. Frank Smith made a business trip to Indiana this week and sold two farms. There are a few more left. Read Ketcham & Smith's new ad. Theo. Zingrebe, of Goodfarm, returned Monday night from the annual conference of the Young People's Society, held in Washington, Ill. Zed Johnson sawed a finger off at the Spencer hay press factory Thursday. It was the third finger of the left hand and took it off slick and clean. Mrs. Geo. Martin left a branch from one of her plum trees at this office Monday, which was completely loaded with the delicious fruit. Thanks. The republicans and democrats of Cook county opened the campaign with a picnic, the republicans of the eleventh congressional district also had one. I want to trade 80 acre farm of land in the town of Essex, Kankakee Co., for residence property in Dwight in a good location. Apply to Jas. Williams. If you are looking for choice meats you will always find just what you want at Geo. L. Kern & Bro's. They carry the nicest line of meats in the city. Frank Reeb and family had a pleasant trip to Cornell, Streator and Ottawa last week. They visited relatives and friends, and had a good time generally. We understand the residents of Ren-frew will enter protest against the alleged city park in their locality being used for a cornfield next year. The park is being tiled. Robt. S. McEliduff, candidate for judge, John C. George, for clerk, and Henry A. Foster, for superintendent, democratic, were visiting our people Tuesday, in their interests. J. A. and Theodore Hayes left on Wednesday for a fishing trip, up in Wisconsin. Mrs. Theo. Hayes and the baby left the same day for Pontiac and Cornell to visit relatives and friends. Mrs. Dr. Barr went to Wilmington to visit her parents Wednesday. The Dr was called there by telegraph in the afternoon, on account of the serious illness of Dr. Cook, Mrs. Barr's father. The ice cream and cake social at M. E. church Tuesday evening under the auspices of Epworth league was a very pleasant affair. The weather was bad but still there was a good attendance. Hon. Geo. S. Willets, of Chicago, was in Dwight yesterday on business. Mr. Willets is spoken of by many politicians as a most available man for the republicans to send to the U. S. senate. Walter Weese was in Joliet Sunday. Mrs. Weese has been quite sick again and is under the doctor's care. Her many friends in Dwight hope she will soon fully recover and return to her home. Wouldn't it be just as well to keep the postoffice open until 1 o'clock on holidays which are not celebrated to any extent in Dwight, so that people could get their mail on their way home to dinner. A letter received by Postmaster Kel-gather from "Uncle Jimmie" Smith, conveys the intelligence that he is in Brooklyn visiting his sisters whom he has not seen for many years, and of course having a splendid visit. He wished to be remembered to all the "boys."

The social at the residence of Rev. E. F. Wright Thursday evening was a most pleasant affair. The weather was bad but the ladies of the Congrega-tional church made the occasion a pleasing one. Ame Orr, manager of J. R. Oughton's Dwight Kennels, and several other Dwight people, are in Des Moines this week attending the bench show. It is safe to say that some of J. R.'s hand-some dogs will come home with high honors. A. B. Conant is handling those cele-brated Geo. R. Ketcham, South Haven, Mich., peaches again this year, and they are delicious, sure. Anyone wishing them by the bushel can leave orders with Geo. Flagler or Henry McLane right away, for they are going fast. Mr. Kenyon, son of Homer Kenyon, spent Sunday in Dwight with his friends. He is now manager of the immense business of the News and Postal Subscription Company, of Chi-cago, and is an able business man and a pleasant gentleman. Indeed we might say he's a "chip of the old block." The lecture at Congregational church last Sunday evening by a brilliant at-torney from Tennessee, was a model of excellence and highly appreciated by all his listeners. His subject was the Christian, or rather the church mem-ber, from the standpoint of an out-sider. He made the statement that thousands of good people were kept out of churches on account of the actions of some on the inside. Major C. J. Judd arrived in Dwight last Friday after a pleasant sojourn in the east, principally at Nantucket. Mrs. Judd and the children stopped in Chicago where she is making arrange-ments to remain during the winter so that the children can attend school there. The Major will be in Dwight part of the time and in the city the remainder. They spent a pleasant sum-mer and are all enjoying excellent health. Binding. The STAR AND HERALD office is now ready to do all kinds of binding. If you have files of any paper or magazine that you wish to preserve we will bind it for you in any style, at a reasonable price and as cheap as anywhere. Railroad Wreck. There was a serious wreck at the Pan-handle crossing on the C. & A., Thurs-day night. A Panhandle freight ran through a C. & A. freight at that point and demolished several cars of both roads, delaying trains from both ways. The merchandise train from the north did not reach Dwight till about nine o'clock Friday morning, and the Branch did not get out till afterwards. No Candidate. The republican party in the eleventh congressional district has no candidate for congress, at present. Under the Aus-tralian ballot law certificates of nomi-nation must be filed with the secretary of state at least thirty days prior to election and said certificate must be signed and certified to by the chairman and secretary of convention. As there is a slight misunderstanding between the chairman and the secretary it is not at all likely that they will join hands and pens and sign the same certificate at the present writing. So the republi-cans have no candidate. To G. A. R. Encampment at Pittsburg. Your attention is specially directed to Nickel Plate locals appearing in this paper, advertising special train for accommodation of headquarters train and G. A. R. from Iowa to Pittsburg, which should read, "leaving Chicago, Sunday, Sept. 9th, at 11 a. m.," instead of "Mon-day, Sept. 11, at 11 a. m." Tickets on sale Sept. 5th to 10th in-clusive. Good returning on special train and all regular trains to and including Sept. 25th. For sleeping car accommodations east of Chicago, please call on or address, J. Y. Calahan, General Agent, 199 Clark street Chicago. "Y" Meeting. After a summer vacation the young ladies of the Y. W. C. T. U. of Dwight, as one expressed it, are going to boom their organization. The order has ac-complished much good in Dwight and many are the acts of kindness and cheer extended to the sick and needy. Last week the annual election occurred and the following officers were elected and installed: President, Miss Kitty Martin; 1st vice pres., Miss Lena Fifeild; 2d vice pres., Miss Chenowith; recording secretary, Miss Nelle Hade; corresponding secretary Miss May Morgan; treasurer, Miss Mary Fifeild; superintendent flower mission, Miss Cora Adams; superintendent litera-ture, Miss Ella Fenn. The meeting this week was held with the Misses Fifeild, and next week Friday evening will be held with the Misses Fenn. All active and also honorary members are expected to be present. Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Erup-tions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money re-fund. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Barr, & Davis, Dwight, W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville, Druggists. Smith & Melhuish, Gardner.
