When Miss Wilson, the organist at the village church, wished to take her usual Thursday afternoon practice, she discovered that the regular blower of the instrument had gone to a baseball game.

It happened very fortunately, however, that Mr. Dennis M. said, a doctor of odd jobs in the neighborhood, was at leisure, and was easily persuaded to preside at the key.

"How much shall I pay you?" asked Miss Wils n, at the end of the hour. "Twenty-five cents, ma'am, if you please," said Dennis.

She said him, and then with native politeness Dennis pulled off his hat and said:

"Faith, ma'am, and I'm glad to accommodate; and I wouldn't have charged you a cent, ma'am, if a critic hadn't made such a b'ither'n' noise."

Rev. Dr. Talmage, who is now in Australia, whence he will shortly sail for Cyprus and India, selected as the subject for last Sunday's sermon through the press "Communion of Saints," the text chosen being Judges XII, 6: "Then said they unto him, Say now shibboleth, and he said shibboleth, for he could not pronounce it right. Then they took him and slew him at the passages of Jordan."

Do you notice the difference of pronunciation between shibboleth and shibboleth, and he said shibboleth, for he could not pronounce it right. Then they took him and slew him at the passages of Jordan."

waters of a baptism which signifies the washing away of sin. Let neither have his own way. One man lit on no more in prayer, not a word, not a whisper.

Another man, just as good, prefers by gestulation and exclamation to express his devotional aspirations. One is just as good as the other. "Every man fully persuaded in his own mind."

George Whitefield was going over a Quaker rather roughly for some of his religious sentiments, and this Quaker said: "Go round, and say as thou art, for bringing all men to the hope of the gospel. Therefore, if thou wilt not quarrel with me about my broad brim, I will not quarrel with thee about thy black gown. George, give me thy hand."

In tracing out the religion of sectarianism or bigotry I find that a great deal of it comes from a wrong education in the home circle. There are parents who are so prejudiced that they caricature and jeer the peculiar forms of religion in the world and denounce other sects and other denominations. It is very often the case that kind parents who are prejudiced against a religion, expect, and the children grow up and after awhile go and see for themselves, and looking in those churches and finding that the people are good there, and they love God and keep his commandments by natural reaction they go and join these very churches. I could mention the names of prominent ministers of the gospel who spent their whole life bombarding their children with prejudice, and lived to see their children preach the gospel in those very denominations. But it is often the case that bigotry starts in a household, and that the subject of it never recovers. There are tens of thousands of bigots 10 years old.

I think sectarianism and bigotry also rise from too great prominence of any one denomination in a community. All the other denominations are wrong, and this one is right. In the case of his denomination is the most wealthy, or the most popular, or the most influential, and it is "our" church, and "our" religious organization, and "our" choir, and "our" minister, and the man trusts his head to such other denominations to know their places.

It is a great deal better in any community when the great denominations of Christians are about equal in power, marching side by side for the worship of God. More outside prosperity, mere worldly power, is no evidence that the church is acceptable to God. Better a barn with Christ in the manger than a Cathedral with magnificent architecture, but with no Christ in the manger, and no angel from heaven in the pulpit if there is no Christ in the manger and no Christ in the robes. Bigotry is often the child of ignorance.

Another great damage done by the sectarianism and bigotry of the church is that it disgusts people with the Christian religion. Now, my friends, the Church of God was never intended for a war barracks. People are afraid of a riot. You go down the street, and you see a man with a rifle, and you see a man with a sword, and you see a man with a dagger, and you see a man with a pistol, and you see a man with a bow, and you see a
