KEELEY LEAGUE NEWS.

Mr. Nickerson, a graduate of '91, of Marcelles, will go to Colorado Springs.

Charles E. Banks and Mr. Cobbe, of Chicago, made this office a pleasant call last week.

Dr. Blaine made one of his interesting talks, Tuesday, and everybody who listened to it was pleased.

Dr. Leslie E. Keeley delivered an interesting and highly enjoyable address to the club Saturday morning.

One fare for the round trip to Colorado Springs on account of the national Keeley League convention next week.

Col. and Mrs. Nato A. Reed will attend the national convention of Keeley Leagues at Colorado Springs next week.

Ex-State President Burkhardt, of Bloomington, and several others will attend the national Keeley League convention at Colorado Springs, next week.

The mock trial Monday evening caused lots of fun at the league room. One of the boys was arrested for "purloining a Ferris wheel and hiding it in his head."

Dr. Leslie E. Keeley, Major C. J. Judd, Judge Arnold and W. G. Dustin, of the STAR and HERALD, of Dwight, will attend the Colorado Springs Keeley League national convention next week.

Hon. Rhey Boyd, of Paducah, Ky., one of the most able presidents the club has ever had, left for home Wednesday. Prior to his departure he made the boys an eloquent farewell address. His departure was regretted by all.

The following officers were elected Tuesday: Pres., Hon. Silas W. Moody, Boise City, Idaho; First vice pres., M. J. Power, Minneapolis, Minn.; Second vice pres., Dr. C. B. Horrell, Colchester, Ill.; J. M. Shultz, of Elkhart, Ind., was appointed Sargent-at-Arms.

The fourth National Convention of the Keeley Leagues will be held in Colorado Springs, Col., next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 11, 12 and 13. The delegates elected from the Dwight League are Wm. G. Dustin, Willard S. Brown, J. J. Miller, W. T. Prime and J. D. Bevans.

"Are We Fools for Coming Here?" was the subject of an interesting talk made by Dr. W. F. Lampton, of Chicago, last Thursday. The speaker proved conclusively to his hearers, that their coming here was the wisest act of their lives.

The attendants at the club entertainments have been greatly annoyed from time to time by a lot of boys and young men who take up their position on the porch and make so much noise that they have been an unmitigated nuisance, and the club was compelled to take some action on the matter.

Wednesday morning the following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That no person whosoever shall be allowed to remain upon the front or side porch of this club house during the progress of any meeting or entertainment of this club, and that the village marshal be requested to aid in the enforcement thereof.

Moody; Solo, "Dreams," Mr. Upsilon; Solo, "The Birds are Singing Above You," Miss Lizzie Winkler; Recitation, "Calls," Miss Wright; Duett, "Warrior Bold," Miss Winkler and Mr. Power; Reading, "Five Cents per Gallon," P. Auxiliary Notes.

Elizabeth Lyle Saxon, president of the National Keeley League auxiliary, will deliver a lecture in the club room, Friday evening, Sept. 21. Mrs. Saxon is a brilliant lady, and the address will be well worth listening to by all. She will, at that time, be on her way east from the national convention at Colorado Springs.

The new motto "Not Willing That Any Should Perish" was placed in the rooms of the auxiliary Tuesday. Mrs. Will Losee painted the letters and Bruce Reareck put them in position. The work is very nice and both were given a vote of thanks.

All turn out next Wednesday.
