

DWIGHT LOCAL NEWS.

Milk 4 cents a quart.
 School books at Lewis'.
 School tablets at Lewis'.
 Fine new buggy for sale cheap.
 Eyes tested free at J. C. Lewis'.
 B. H. Groll was a Chicago visitor Sunday.
 Ed. Losee did business up the road Monday.
 Leonard Howlett was a Joliet visitor Tuesday.
 Crepe papers in different tints at J. C. Lewis'.
 Ed. Jansen spent Sunday and Monday in Chicago.
 Mrs. Jas. Kelagher spent Thursday in Chicago.
 Mrs. Joe. Miller visited in Chicago on Tuesday.
 Schilling's Model Form Corsets at Mrs. Fenn's
 Window and door screens at Baker's Furniture store.
 Men's shirts 50 cents at Ely Miller's. Excellent values.
 Mrs. and Mrs. Jas. Gregory spent Sunday in Pontiac.
 J. R. Oughton left Monday on a business trip to Canada.
 Mrs. Theo. Hayes visited friends in Blackstone this week.
 Joe Miller was in Chicago Wednesday buying fall goods.
 Shoes of all kinds greatly reduced in price, at E. T. Miller's.
 Some remnants of prints 2 cents per yard, at E. T. Miller's.
 Mrs. Geo. Goodman is recovering from a spell of sickness.
 Mrs. Fenn is agent for Mrs. Scobell's celebrated hygiene corset.
 Mrs. W. G. Dustin is visiting her home folks in Rockford, Ill.
 Miss Maggie Cleary, of Odell, called at Mrs. Christman's this week.
 Mrs. Doty and daughter Clara, spent Sunday and Monday in Chicago.
 Chas. Vickery left Monday noon to attend school at Champaign, Ill.
 Hammocks, croquet, and base ball goods at Baker's Furniture store.
 Send your white vests to the Dwight Artesian Laundry, to be laundered.
 Closing out all summer goods at any price that will please you. E. T. Miller.
 Complete line of gents' furnishing goods at lowest prices, at E. T. Miller's.
 Mrs. John Farley, of Spring Valley, has been visiting Mrs. Salzer the past week.
 Drop $1.25 in the slot and read the STAR AND HERALD every week for a year.
 The two-days races will begin next Wednesday at the Dwight Driving Park.
 Lou Fox, of Kansas, visited his people here last week. He is getting along nicely.
 Mr. Curtis Clover, of Gardner, spent Sunday and Monday with friends in Dwight.
 Mrs. Geo. Goodman will leave next week to visit her old home in Washington, Ill.
 A number of farmers left Tuesday on a pleasure and land seeking excursion to Iowa.
 The oil wagon is the handiest and cheapest place to get your supplies in that line.
 Misses Maude and Mary Thompson, of Pontiac, visited relatives in town this week.
 Chas. Simmons is spending a few days at home before attending school in Chicago.
 Miss Jessie Davis, of Lexington, is here visiting her brother, druggist Walter M. Davis.
 The best place to get your watch repairing done at reasonable prices is at Guardenier's.
 Mr. Chas. McWilliams left for Evans-ton Tuesday morning, where he will attend school.
 Wm. Broughton left Monday morning for Madison, Wis., where he will attend school.
 There will be something worth while seeing at the races next Wednesday and Thursday.
 Jim Broughton and Roger Blaine left this week to attend military school in Mexico, Mo.
 Miss Ally Hennessy, of Joliet, was the guest of Misses Jule and Emma Groll last week.
 Nels Thompson and son, Loren left Tuesday afternoon on a land excursion to Iowa.
 Frank L. Smith returned from Indiana Saturday, having done an excellent business there.
 A full report of the Woodman picnic will be published in next week's STAR AND HERALD.
 The Bargain Store will stamp one pattern free of charge with each one dollar cash purchase.
 Peter Dewey returned from Chicago Monday evening, where he has been spending a few days.
 Lou Fox, of Kansas, visited his people here last week. Lou is getting on nicely in the west.
 Mr. Edwin Mezger and Mrs. Mezger's mother left Tuesday afternoon for a visit in the west.

Mrs. W. E. Fenn spent a couple of days this week in Chicago buying fall millinery and fall hats.
 The two-days races at Dwight will undoubtedly draw many good horses and a large attendance.
 Go to Walter Scott for the best Braidwood coal. He also keeps the best grade of hard coal.
 Mrs. Chas. Ogden and mother, Mrs. Palm, are visiting Mrs. Ogden's relatives near Greenville, Pa.
 Jas. McCarter returned from Joliet Wednesday night, where he has been spending the past few days.
 Pillow shams and large patterns stamped for 10 cents, small patterns 5 cents, at the Bargain store.
 Miss Gertrude Ketcham returned Tuesday evening from a two weeks' visit to friends in Louisville, Ky.
 Supervisor Mills is attending the quarterly meeting of the board of supervisors in Pontiac this week.
 Miss Hayes returned Tuesday afternoon from Chicago, where she has been spending the past few days.
 Rev. Ayling will leave for conference, Monday. We hope to see him back to Dwight for another year.
 Mrs. Louisa Mills, mother of R. H. Mills, returned a few days ago from a two weeks' visit to friends in Ohio.
 Look up the date your subscription is paid to and act according to the golden rule, so we can do the same.
 Will Roeder, who has been confined to his home for the past month by a sprain, is in his place of business again.
 Mr. J. Cosgrove and the Misses McAllister, of Odell, and the Misses McPadens, of Joliet, visited Mrs. Christman.
 The Misses Gussie and Faye Blaine left on the accommodation Sunday morning to attend school at Oxford, Ohio.
 Mrs. J. R. Oughton accompanied Jimmie and Johnnie to Davenport, Iowa, where the boys will attend school.
 Everyone in Dwight should hear Mrs. Elizabeth Lyle Saxon's address next Friday night. She is a brilliant woman.
 Frank L. Smith arrived home from Indiana Saturday, having done an excellent business in Indiana during his absence.
 Mr. and Mrs. Will Losee spent Thursday in Joliet, where Mrs. Losee received medical examination and treatment.
 Reader, it will be money in your pocket to read the advertisements in the STAR AND HERALD and trade accordingly.
 Mrs. Elizabeth Lyle Saxon, of New Orleans, will deliver a lecture in Dwight next Friday evening. No one should miss it.
 Farms and Lands for sale in south-eastern Iowa. Cheap prices and easy terms. Address J. Lloyd Mahitt, Wapello, Iowa. Sept. 1. W7.
 Archie Hart, who has been in the employ of L. H. Martin as book-keeper, returned to his home in Odell Tuesday noon.
 A report of the national convention Keeley League at Colorado Springs will be printed in the STAR AND HERALD next week.
 Postmaster Kelagher is having the fixtures in the postoffice nicely revarnished, and they will present a handsome appearance.
 Geo. Taylor suffered the loss of one of his fine milk cows, from the Maple-croft dairy herd, killed by lightning last Saturday night.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Liggitt returned home after spending a few days in Bloomington and Normal, visiting friends and relatives.
 Misses Jennie and Maude Thompson of Pontiac, went to Chicago Thursday morning on the "Hummer" for a two or three days' sojourn.
 Carl Miller, who has been confined to his home by a serious illness, was at the store a short while Monday, the first time in three weeks.
 Mrs. Willard S. Brown, the trimmer at Miller Bros., spent last week in Chicago posting up on all the new fall and winter styles in millinery.
 The Young Women's Christian Temperance Union meet next Friday evening promptly at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Kittie Marcin.
 Miss Ada Morgan who has been visiting her relatives and friends in Dwight, returned to her home in Streator Tuesday afternoon.
 Ed. and Charley McWilliams returned from their trip around the lakes, last week, much improved in health, and brown as berries.
 A number of young people enjoyed a social evening and "taffy pull" at the home of Miss Cora Eldredge on Wednesday evening of this week.
 The weather will no doubt be most propitious for good racing and a good attendance next Wednesday and Thursday at the Dwight driving park.
 I want to trade 80 acre farm of land in the town of Essex, Kankakee Co., for residence property in Dwight in a good location. Apply to Jas. Williams.
 If you are looking for choice meats you will always find just what you want at Geo. L. Kern & Bro's. They carry the nicest line of meats in the city.

Mr. Henry Adams, of Chicago, son of Cyrus Adams, a former resident of Dwight, spent a few days here visiting friends and relatives, and returned Sunday afternoon.
 Leach & Reeb have placed in their shoe store two patent shelf bicycles, which are a most convenient article by which to reach the top shelves. And now Frank Reeb can ride a bicycle all right.
 The Dwight Creamery has been paying an average of 78 cents per hundred during the past month for milk. Since the rains and consequent renewal of pasturage, the daily receipts have largely increased.
 Dr. Leslie E. Keeley, Major C. J. Judd, Judge Arnold, J. J. Miller and Col. Reed left Sunday night via the Rock Island, from Joliet, for Colorado Springs, W. G. Dustin left on the Hummer, Saturday night.
 The hog cholera has been raging in this locality for the past month and is causing serious loss to owners of hogs. In some instances entire herds of swine have died from the disease, and in others the number to escape has been very small.
 Mr. Conrad, the enterprising coal dealer, wishes to announce that once more he is prepared to supply his customers with Braidwood coal and at very reasonable prices. Call on Mr. Conrad and get his prices before laying in your winter supply of coal.
 A. B. Conant is handling those celebrated Geo. R. Ketcham, South Haven, Mich., peaches again this year, and they are delicious, sure. Anyone wishing them by the bushel can leave orders with Geo. Flagler or Henry McLane right away, for they are going fast.
 I should like to say to the ladies of Dwight and vicinity that I have a nice stock of goods, just from the city, all new and fashionable. Call and see them. Thanking the public for past patronage we would solicit a continuation of the same. Mrs. W. E. Fenn.
 School books at Lewis'.
 Richard Roe, the veteran sportsman, is preparing for some fine prairie chicken shooting after the fifteenth, when the law prohibiting shooting runs out. Mr. Roe has chaperoned one of the most distinguished hunting parties in the United States, notably among which was the hunting trip through these parts by the Prince of Wales and party.
 School tablets at Lewis'.
 Irving W. Larimore, physical director of Y. M. C. A., Des Moines, Iowa, says he can conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm to athletes, gymnasts, bicyclists, foot ball players and the profession in general for bruises, sprains and dislocations; also for soreness and stiffness of the muscles. When applied before the parts become swollen it will effect a cure in one-half the time usually required. For sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; Smith & Melhuish, Gardner and Augustine & Son, Braceville, Druggists.
 School tablets at Lewis'.
 Many of us remember the marvelous sale that D. Heenan & Co., of Streator, carried on last month. They are holding another consisting of a sale of early fall wares which commenced Sept. 13, and closes Sept. 29. Prices are low and we hear they are still offering to pay the fare one way, to those purchasing $10 worth of goods, and the fare both ways to those purchasing $20 worth of goods. The limit is within forty miles around Streator. Without a doubt hundreds will take advantage of it as before, as it is their last special sale before their annual fall opening.
 Everything in the school line at Lewis'.
 A party of young men met at the home of Roy Seymour on Tuesday evening to take steps toward organizing a debating club, which shall be a subordinate organization of the Lyceum League of America, conducted by Perry Mason & Co. publishers of The Youth's Companion. Preliminary steps were taken for a permanent organization by electing J. H. Menely as temporary chairman, and Will Leach temporary secretary. The chairman appointed a committee consisting of Will Leach, Roy Seymour and Chadz Bell, to draft constitution and to secure a larger attendance at the meeting, which is to be held in Sons of Veterans hall Monday evening at 8 o'clock, to perfect organization and make application for a charter. A cordial invitation is extended to all young gentlemen who have literary tastes.
 Sale Bills.
 There is no printing office in the country better equipped to do Auction Bills on short notice and satisfactory than the STAR AND HERALD, GARDNER TRIBUNE and BRACEVILLE TRIBUNE office. We are prepared at all times to execute this work, and orders can be left at this office in Dwight, Bert Strahl, in Gardner, at his barber shop, or with T. T. Smith, in Braceville. Prices reasonable for best work.
 Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
 The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight, W. H. H. Augustus, Braceville, Druggists, Smith & Melhuish, Gardner.

BOOTS AND SHOES

We are Head and Shoulders above all others in the Boot and Shoe Business.

Sole Agents for the celebrated "Snag Proof" Rubber Boots and Overshoes. All Others are Imitations.

School has commenced, and so has the trade in all kinds of Footwear at LEACH & REEB'S. We are selling more Shoes than all other houses in Dwight simply because we keep the very best lines made, consequently we do not have any old stock to palm off on our customers. When you buy from us you can rely on getting nice, fresh goods, in all the latest styles. We have E. P. Reed's Fine Shoes for the ladies. They are without exception the finest made. All widths and sizes. Geo. E. Keith's lines of shoes are acknowledged by every man or boy who likes a fine shoe to be the best, one that will wear and take the lead of all others. We must not and will not forget the Misses and Children. E. H. Cowles line are the ones for style and fit and are acknowledged leaders in every respect.

We have an Elegant Lady's Overgaiter for 50c; others will ask you $1. A full line of both Ladies and Gents' in sizes.

Our best Farm Harness for $24 00 and $25 00.

Leach & Reeb.

INDIANA

Is Right In It!

IMMENSE CROPS!

Wheat, 56 bushels to the Acre;
 Oats, over 50 bushels;
 Corn, good.

Ketcham & Smith

Are making regular trips there and want to show anyone lands there. All who go with them are high in their praise of the way they are treated and of the country.

IOWA

Is not quite as near as Indiana, but its a great country just the same. Ketcham & Smith have lots of good lands there on their lists and will get reduced rates for those who wish to go.

KETCHAM & SMITH

Are the "Get There People" and have lands wherever you want them. See them about it right away.