

THE WORLD OVER.

LATEST NEWS FROM EVERY LAND.

DREAD OF FARMERS.

DIAGNOSIS OF TUBERCULOSIS IN CATTLE.

Infection May Occur More than Once—New Jersey's Hangman Involuntarily Pays an Old Debt—Frightful Duel Between Kentucky Farmers.

Told In a Few Words.—Results of investigations dealing with tuberculosis in cattle, from both economic and sanitary standpoints, are embodied in an important report of the Agricultural Department prepared by Theobald Smith, chief of the animal pathology division.

James Van Hise, the New Jersey hangman, was a very angry man when he went to the office of Sheriff Toffey, in Jersey City, to collect his fee of $250 for hanging Altemeyer, the murderer of Katie Kupp.

A frightful duel with knives was fought by two prominent farmers, Thomas Osborn and Marcus Murphy, near Polkville, Ky., Monday.

Sarah Lewellen, aged 70, and Miss Lizzie Trout, aged 59, were married at Muncie, Ind.

The St. Charles Hotel at New Orleans, which was burned last April, is to be rebuilt on the new structure costing over $1,000,000.

William Hill, of Brooklyn, and A. S. Woodward, of Allegheny City, were seriously injured in a freight wreck at Springfield, Ohio.

The schooner Dora M. French was sunk by the steamer Fortis of Cuddyhunk light.

A naked lamp caused an explosion in a mine at Ashland, Pa. One man was killed and four others injured.

In the plankton case at Milwaukee, evidence was given showing the directors were aware of the institution's condition.

W. D. Pinkston, secretary-treasurer of the Western Iron Works Company of Butte, Mont., is $12,000 short, and was arrested while trying to leave the country.

The Pio Pico, the last Mexican Governor of California, died at Los Angeles. He was 94 years old.

A commission composed of foreigners declares after investigation that the Japanese were the aggressors in the naval fight of July 25.

The Sultan of Turkey has contributed 300,000 francs to the fund for the relief of the Wisconsin and Minnesota forest fire sufferers.

Miss Estelle Robertson and Professor Alonzo Stagg, the Yale athlete, now of the University of Chicago, were married at Albion, N. Y., Monday night.

At Dayton, Ohio, early Tuesday morning, Ben T. Travis, aged 55, a pensioner, and Julia A. Batten, aged 54, engaged in a quarrel with fatal results.

L. H. Turner, of Illinois, has been admitted to West Point.

John Oberweiser, of Chicago, committed suicide at Milwaukee.

Complete returns from the Vermont elections show the Republican majority to be 27,810 and the plurality 23,256.

Application has been made at New York for a receiver for the Colorado Irrigation Company.

Obituary.—At Genoa, Baron Etienne Erlanger, the German banker.—At Berlin, Professor Heinrich Karl Brugsch, the philologist and Egyptologist.

The second annual convention of the Traveling Engineers' Association was held at Denver, Colo.

War between the cattle and sheep men has again broken out in Colorado.

Alpherson H. Wilcox, who is said to have made $1,400,000 by fraudulent land sales, was arrested in New York.

WOULDBEGOVERNORS

MEN WHO ARE NOW ATTRACTING PUBLIC ATTENTION.

Ephraim of Wisconsin, Fisher of Michigan, Marvel of Delaware, and Atkinson of Georgia—Each Is Making Energetic Efforts to Win the Race.

David Overmyer, the Democratic nominee for Governor of Kansas, is a native of Ohio.

John T. Rich, renominated by the Republicans of Michigan as their candidate for Governor, is a farmer.

Walter B. Richie, recently elected Supreme Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, is a young lawyer of Lima, Ohio.

William C. Oates, the newly elected Governor of North Carolina, is a native of the State and is 58 years of age.

The Hon. John Gary Evans, the reform convention's nominee for Governor of South Carolina, is the author of the dispensary laws that have recently attracted so much attention.

Joshua H. Marvel, Republican candidate for Governor of Delaware, has never been a candidate for office before.

Spencer O. Fisher, the Democratic nominee for Governor of Michigan, is a native of Ohio.

Spencer O. Fisher, the Democratic nominee for Governor of Michigan, is a native of Ohio.

ILLINOIS INCIDENTS.

SOBER OR STARTLING, FAITHFULLY RECORDED.

Discards a New Love for the Old.—Ernest Glaseo, a grain and stock dealer of Versailles, Brown County, and Miss Effie Ingram, only daughter of Frank Ingram, a wealthy farmer of the same place, had been sweethearts for three years and willing to marry.

Four men were arrested in Chicago Friday on suspicion that they were concerned in the robbery of the ticket office of the Wabash railroad in Springfield.

Had Too Much on His Mind.—At Aurora, on Friday morning, John H. Scranford, a clerk in a restaurant, was shot by a man.

Gave Her the Wrong Drug.—Coroner Ageseon, of Rockford, was called to Police Sunday to hold an inquest over the death of a woman.

Cornea Leveled Near Rockford.—A storm swept over Rockford, Friday night, the rain falling in torrent.

Record of the Week.—AUGUSTANA COLLEGE opened its thirty-fifth scholastic year at Moline.

Record of the Week.—AUGUSTANA COLLEGE opened its thirty-fifth scholastic year at Moline.

Record of the Week.—AUGUSTANA COLLEGE opened its thirty-fifth scholastic year at Moline.

Record of the Week.—AUGUSTANA COLLEGE opened its thirty-fifth scholastic year at Moline.

Record of the Week.—AUGUSTANA COLLEGE opened its thirty-fifth scholastic year at Moline.

Record of the Week.—AUGUSTANA COLLEGE opened its thirty-fifth scholastic year at Moline.

G. A. R. AT PITTSBURGH

ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT OF A NATION'S HEROES.

Nearly 30,000 Old Soldiers Brought Together—A Fitting Place for This Meeting of Veterans—The Northwest Takes a Prominent Part.

"Boys" in Blue.—The twenty-eighth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, held at Pittsburg this year, brought together nearly 30,000 old soldiers.

Hard Times Prevented the Attendance of a Great Many of the Veterans who Live at a Distance, but 24 is the heaviest attendance in which old soldiers are numbered by the thousands.

Northwest Well Represented.—The departments of Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Iowa, Michigan, and Ohio sent goodly delegations this year, though the numerical strength of the various bodies was less than might have been expected.

Proper were preceded by immense parades in which all the veterans of the army and navy.

ARRANGEMENTS were made by the old Second National Bank of Aurora to loan to the president members of the State militia a large amount of money.

THE little town of Snipman was almost entirely wiped out by fire between 12 and 2 o'clock Tuesday morning.

THE fire was of incendiary origin, while others claim that it was caused by spontaneous combustion in a pile of rotting lumber.

THE Commissioners of State Contracts met at Springfield to consider the contract for printing the laws of the State.

THE twenty-first Illinois Volunteer Cavalry was held at Kinnandy, and notwithstanding the rain was largely attended.

MISS ROSE BENSON, of Sycamore, died from a stroke of paralysis.

RICHARD BARRELL, an inmate of the soldiers' home at Quincy, dropped dead of heart disease.

ROBERTS was swept by a blaze which originated in a grain elevator. Only six houses were saved.

THE second annual reunion of the Fayette Soldiers and Sailors' Association was held at Vandalia.

NATHAN A. WESTON, an instructor in the University of Illinois, and Miss Annie Gayman were married at Champaign.

Miss CHARLES HALTZ, of Kankakee, has brought a damage suit for $5,000 and costs against C. P. Parker, alleging slander.

GABRIEL BERDELL and his sister-in-law, Ellen Felches, of Romeo, were locked up at Joliet for murdering a man and a woman.

FRANK MILTON, aged 31 and a hotel keeper, was killed at Rose Hill, twelve miles south of Geneseo, by a Peoria, Decatur and Evansville freight train.

JAILER GEHRs came near losing his life at the hands of two prisoners in the Carlyle jail.

M. E. BRENTON, who committed suicide at the Gr at Northern Hotel, Chicago, was the son of George W. Brenton of Metropolis.

THE first sod was turned Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock toward excavating the first two miles of the eastern terminus of the Hennepin Canal.

ELEVEN Chicago young men, who made a dream for a large party of Rockford young ladies at Delavan Lake, Monday night, went to Joliet for a special case.

PATRICK HALLOWAY, a farmer, was placed in the custody of the Sheriff at Ottawa charged with the murder of a woman.

THE American Legation in Stockholm, which for five years has been situated in the most beautiful residence building in the city, will soon be removed to the Adelstein House.

ILLINOIS INCIDENTS.

SOBER OR STARTLING, FAITHFULLY RECORDED.

Discards a New Love for the Old.—Ernest Glaseo, a grain and stock dealer of Versailles, Brown County, and Miss Effie Ingram, only daughter of Frank Ingram, a wealthy farmer of the same place, had been sweethearts for three years and willing to marry.

Four men were arrested in Chicago Friday on suspicion that they were concerned in the robbery of the ticket office of the Wabash railroad in Springfield.

Had Too Much on His Mind.—At Aurora, on Friday morning, John H. Scranford, a clerk in a restaurant, was shot by a man.

Gave Her the Wrong Drug.—Coroner Ageseon, of Rockford, was called to Police Sunday to hold an inquest over the death of a woman.

Cornea Leveled Near Rockford.—A storm swept over Rockford, Friday night, the rain falling in torrent.

Record of the Week.—AUGUSTANA COLLEGE opened its thirty-fifth scholastic year at Moline.

Record of the Week.—AUGUSTANA COLLEGE opened its thirty-fifth scholastic year at Moline.

Record of the Week.—AUGUSTANA COLLEGE opened its thirty-fifth scholastic year at Moline.

Record of the Week.—AUGUSTANA COLLEGE opened its thirty-fifth scholastic year at Moline.

Record of the Week.—AUGUSTANA COLLEGE opened its thirty-fifth scholastic year at Moline.

Record of the Week.—AUGUSTANA COLLEGE opened its thirty-fifth scholastic year at Moline.