

DWIGHT LOCAL NEWS.

On Four Pages.

Reading matter of local interest will be found on the first, second, fourth, fifth, seventh and eighth pages of the STAR AND HERALD every week.

Milk 4 cents a quart.

Fine new buggy for sale cheap.

Ed. Reeb is laid up with a sore throat.

Crepe papers in different tints at J. C. Lewis.

Geo. McCarter visited in Chicago Tuesday.

Mrs. A. G. Huey visited in Chicago this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bagnell spent Sunday in Braidwood.

Window and door screens at Baker's Furniture store.

Men's shirts 50 cents at Ely Miller's. Excellent values.

Samuel Thompson has removed to Waupansie street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Fox were Chicago visitors this week.

Shoes of all kinds greatly reduced in price, at E. T. Miller's.

Some remnants of prints 2 cents per yard, at E. T. Miller's.

Mrs. W. M. Weese is again suffering from a painful illness.

Elmer Fenn came home Wednesday for a two weeks' visit.

Quite a number from here attended the Mazon races to-day.

Rev. Jas. McComb, an evangelist, was in Dwight Thursday.

Philip Conway, who has been quite sick, is recovering slowly.

New York Weekly Tribune and the STAR AND HERALD, $1.75.

Will Martin is attending the state fare in Springfield this week.

Senator Cullom will speak in Pontiac on the evening of Oct. 9.

Mrs. Will Bailey is visiting the State Fair at Springfield this week.

Will Thompson, of Dwight, went to Chicago Tuesday to visit friends.

Send your white vests to the Dwight Artesian Laundry, to be laundered.

Miss Stella Powell, of Towanda, is visiting her brother, J. M., this week.

Closing out all summer goods at any price that will please you. E. T. Miller.

Judge and Mrs. W. A. Arnold have arrived home from their wedding trip.

Complete line of gents' furnishing goods at lowest prices, at E. T. Miller's Drop $1.25 in the slot and read the STAR AND HERALD every week for a year.

The oil wagon is the handiest and cheapest place to get your supplies in that line.

The best place to get your watch repairing done at reasonable prices is at Guardian's.

The Bargain Store will stamp one pattern free of charge with each one dollar cash purchase.

Go to Walter Scott for the best Braidwood coal. He also keeps the best grade of hard coal.

Pillow shams and large patterns stamped for 10 cents, small patterns 5 cents, at the Bargain store.

Look up the date your subscription is paid to and act according to the golden rule, so we can do the same.

McVeagh will speak at Chatsworth Oct. 6. Special rates on railroads.

D. B. Stevens and Jas. Austin attended the horse sale in Streator Thursday.

John McWilliams is in Springfield this week with his horses at the state fair.

Mrs. Manning Smith has been suffering from a severe sick spell the past week.

Lee Potter left on the Hummer Wednesday night to attend the state fair.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Wright, of St. Joseph, Mo., are visiting Harry Seeley and family.

Mrs. Bevans, of Jacksonville, is here visiting her son, John Bevans, and his family.

Conductor Gage is preparing to remove his family to Chicago for future residence.

Miss Susie Snyder, of Pontiac, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Bell, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pettet, of Chicago, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Parker this week.

John Hanna and George Ganzert, of Goodfarm, left for Iowa Tuesday night on a land hunt.

Frank Chester and W. G. Dustin were the Dwight delegates to the congressional convention.

House and lot for sale. $200 down, $10 per month. Price $800. Nice home. Call at this office.

The many friends of Rev. Merrill will be pleased to learn that he is located in Kankakee this year.

Grandpa Watkins was a Dwight visitor last week. He was entertained by Miss Ethel Watkins.

The enterprising (?) Mazon paper had practically nothing regarding the recent Woodmen picnic.

Mr. Samuel Gammon, brother of Mrs. E. A. Dunlap, died at his home in California, Thursday, Sept. 20.

Mr. J. C. Beam, of Jacksonville, Fla., was the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Frank Bell, Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. F. M. Davis, who has been visiting her daughter in Goodfarm for a week, returned home Monday.

Rev. H. W. Harbaugh, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Braidwood, visited Rev. Wright this week.

Dr. Palm has been decided upon as the township physician, by Supervisor Mills, his bid being the lowest.

Rev. Bower, father of C. V. Bower, the express agent, is located by the M. E. conference at Metamora, Ill.

Remember the last harvest excursion is Oct. 9, to all points northwest, west and south by the C. & A. R. R.

The dance Thursday evening, under the auspices of the K. P., was a very pleasant affair and well attended.

Cut rate to Kansas City and intermediate points, Oct. 1 to 8 inclusive, $6.75, single trip, by C. & A. R. R.

Miss Fannie Fitzpatrick, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is here visiting her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick.

Mrs. C. H. Painter, of Chicago, will speak in the Congregational church in this city tomorrow morning at 10:45.

Mrs. Mary L. Bissekumer and children, of Rockford, Ill., are guests of her sister, Mrs. W. G. Dustin, this week.

J. P. McWilliams shipped his beautiful 3 year-old French coach stallion, General, to the state fair this week, and carried off first honors.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Spencer and Superintendent Wright spent this week at the state fair, where Mr. Spencer had his famous hay press on exhibition.

W. H. Doty has removed to the dwelling house on Mazon avenue recently vacated by Dr. Blaine and family. Jimmie Gregory will furnish the house on Delaware street vacated by Mr. Doty, and will go to housekeeping.

John Rugaber, of Chicago, visited his brother-in-law, Frank Lewis, and other friends here this week. John was a former employee of the STAR office when Charlie Palmer owned it. He made us a pleasant call.

A. R. Zimmerman, formerly of this city, latterly of Lemont, has sold out his business there and departed for—where, we know not. In his article in the last issue he blamed some of the people there for not standing by him.

Remember, reader, the Dwight history will be finished before long, and you will want one to keep as heirloom. They are only 50 cents and should be ordered right away. The history will contain from 50 to 100 illustrations.

A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Losee about two weeks ago. It was a healthy and pretty child. Last Tuesday night the little one was taken sick with colic and died Wednesday morning, was buried Thursday. The parents have the sympathy of all.

Mrs. Ogg and Mrs. Frank Bunting arrived home Tuesday after spending several weeks visiting friends in Kansas.

A. R. Zimmerman, formerly of this paper, later of Lemont, will locate in Plymouth, Ind., and start a "Pop" paper.

There will be reduced rates on all railroads at the time of the Cullom speech in Pontiac Oct. 9. Everyone invited.

Mrs. Haskill, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Col. J. B. Parsons, returned to her home in Chicago this week.

Col. N. A. Reed, of the Banner of Gold, was a Dwight visitor Tuesday evening. He brought a man for treatment.

There will be reduced rates on all railroads at the time of the Cullom speech in Pontiac, Oct. 9. Everyone invited.

Mrs. J. W. Read and Miss Addie Brown returned from Streator, Monday, after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends.

Leave your orders for the "History of Dwight" in book form. Only 50 cents for a complete illustrated history of your home.

Rev. W. J. Palm, of St. Paul, Minn., was a guest of his brother, Dr. Palm, several days. He left for home Wednesday morning.

L. A. Rutan, who has been making a three weeks' visit to old-time friends here, departed Tuesday for his home at Staplehurst, Neb.

Mrs. Bertie Doherty is prepared to do all kinds of dress-making at short notice, at her residence, 114 Seminole street, Dwight, Ill.

J. Heinan, of Andy, Ind., has been visiting his uncle, Peter Heinan, and family the past week. He is a medical student at Rush college.

For a good, healthy bath soft water is necessary, and the only place in Dwight that rain water is used, is at Will Roeder's, the barber.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Gregory returned Tuesday from a most pleasant two weeks' vacation with friends and relatives in Terre Haute, Ind.

Joe Miller and A. Bovik spent Thursday in Kinsman. They did a big day's business. Mr. Bovik could not take the measures as fast as Joe sold the suits.

Mr. Waldron, of the great watermelon district in Kankakee county, presented this office with a fine melon Thursday, for which he has the thanks of the force.

Mrs. Chas. L. Romberger's many friends will be pleased to learn that she was out of the house last Thursday for the first time since her late serious sickness.

We have a clipping taken from the Lawiston paper containing an interview with Rev. C. W. Ayling regarding the Keeley cure, which we shall publish next week.

C. L. Snyder will resign his position in the grocery department in McWilliams & Smith's, and go to Normal, Ill., to work in Liggitt & Liggitt's new grocery store.

C. C. Williams, general superintendent of the U. S. Express Co., was in Dwight Wednesday inspecting the office here and getting a better idea of the work at this place.

Don't forget that this office is better supplied than ever to print horse bills and auction bills. New cuts and new type constantly. We keep abreast of the times. Give us a call.

Chas. Ogden left Thursday for Greenville, Pa., where his wife and mother have been for some time, and will make that his future home. He will probably engage in the grocery business there.

Mr. Dunn, of Chenoa, a young and practical farmer, spent several days in Dwight last week and may conclude to locate in this neighborhood. He was shown several fine farms by Wm. H. Ketcham, one of our hustling and reliable real estate dealers, and probably will buy.

Rich Doherty is into politics. He received the populist nomination for county clerk unanimously and was endorsed by the democrats, and says he is pretty sure of election to that office in Park county, Montana. Rich has plenty of ability, and his friends here will be pleased to learn of his success.

The Modern Woodmen will not pay an assessment this month. This is the safest and cheapest insurance order in the world; has been doing business for ten years, and has never called more than eleven assessments in any one year. Eight have so far been called in 1894, and there will be only three, and possibly only two, between this and '95.

Will Ketcham arrived home from Indiana Friday night, bringing with him positive proof of the richness of the soil in the localities where Ketcham & Smith handle land, in the shape of a number of ears of splendid corn. Will was accompanied to Indiana by Roscoe Gould, Chas. Fosterling, John Reinlaender and Ren. Kirkendall, who came back well pleased with the country and consider it as good as Illinois, they will probably locate there in the near future. Ketcham & Smith will take about twenty-five persons to Indiana next week.

BOOTS AND SHOES

HEAVY AND LIGHT HARNESS.

We are Head and Shoulders above all others in the Boot and Shoe Business.

Sole Agents for the celebrated "Snag Proof" Rubber Boots and Overshoes. All Others are Imitations.

Trade in all kinds of Footwear at LEACH & REEB'S is increasing. We are selling more Shoes than all other houses in Dwight, simply because we keep the very best lines made.

E. P. Reed's Fine Shoes for Ladies,

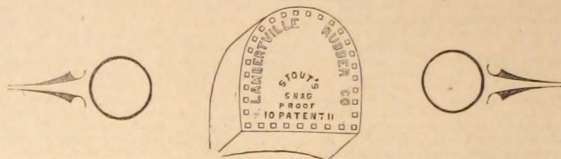

ALL WIDTHS AND SIZES.

Geo. E. Keith's Lines of Shoes

Are acknowledged by every Man and Boy who likes a Fine Shoe to be the best.

E. H. Cowle's Lines

For Style and Fit, are acknowledged leaders in every respect for Children.

We have an Elegant Lady's Overgaiter for 50c; others will ask you $1. A full line of both Ladies and Gents' in sizes.

Our best Farm Harness for $24 00 and $25 00.

Leach & Reeb.

Ketcham & Smith

DIDN'T DO A THING, BUT JUST SELL SEVEN FARMS.

During the past month, in different parts of the country.

ANYONE WANTING

To sell or purchase Farm or City Property, can do so by calling on KETCHAM & SMITH, and they use their customers good, and have lands everywhere.

Outside of ILLINOIS Our nearest Land is in INDIANA

It's good and cheap and close by.

Call at

Ketcham & Smith's,

in Dwight, or address them at Dwight, Ill.

