Millions for Defense

Against the inroads of that subtle, lurking foe to human health, malaria, had been expended uselessly when Hostetter's Stomach Bitters appeared upon the scene and demonstrated its power as a preventive and curative of the dreaded scourge. When the "gold fever" raged in 1849 in California, malaria was contemporaneous with it at the "diggings," and wrought dreadful havoc among the miners. Then and subsequently on the Isthmus of Panama, and wherever in the tropics malarial disease is most virulent, the Bitters became the recognized safeguard. For the effects of exposure and fatigue, miasma-poisoned air and water, sea sickness and all disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, the Bitters affords prompt relief. Invalids of all sorts will find it fully adequate to their needs.

AROUND A BIG STATE.

BRIEF COMPILATION OF ILLINOIS NEWS.

Big Drainage Project in De Kalb—Stole a March on Her Attorneys—Treasurer's Salary Too Low—These Men Will Look After Horse Thieves.

Will Reclaim 6,000 Acres.

A big drainage district has been formed in the towns of Milan and Afton, in De Kalb County, and 6,000 acres of swamp land will be drained at a cost of over $5,500. S. T. Armstrong, a Sycamore surveyor, who has spent several weeks in the service of F. B. Townsend, the Sycamore capitalist, who is conservator of the estate of Daniel Pierce, whose lands, consisting of over 600 acres in this district will be most benefited by the drainage canals, says that the headwaters of the west branch of the Kishwaukee River in the townships of Milan and Afton is a stream with scarcely any perceptible current. It will be dredged out for a distance of two miles, and several lateral canals will be dug on each side, varying in length from one-half mile to a mile and a half. These swamp lands when drained prove to be the finest agricultural lands known, as the soil is a deep black loam deposited by the water.

Settles the Case on Her Own Behalf.

Elizabeth Miller, of Canton, commenced a suit a short time ago for $10,000 damages against a saloonkeeper, whom she charged with selling her husband liquor which made him intoxicated and while in this condition he was run over and killed by a train. Mrs. Miller did not have the necessary money to fight the case and Attorneys H. W. Masters and Kinzie Thomas, of Lewiston, took the case on condition that they should receive half the amount of the judgment if the case was decided in favor of the widow. Then Mrs. Miller, without the knowledge of her attorneys, effected a settlement with the saloonkeeper for $1,000. Upon learning what the woman had done the lawyers issued a capias for her on the charge of fraudulently appropriating the money of her attorneys to her own use.

No One Wants the Office.

Quite a good deal of interest is manifested in Marshall politics on account of the withdrawal of the Populists' candidate for treasurer and the probability of both Democratic and Republican candidates withdrawing from the race. Four years ago when the Populists had control of the Board of Supervisors they cut the county officers' salaries down from $1,000 to $750 per year on an average. This year the Republicans and Populists had control of the board and reduced the treasurer's salary to $650. This was done to embarrass the Democratic candidate, but the Populist and Republican candidates were the first to protest. The Populist has withdrawn and the Republican will.

The committee secured as a location for the proposed home a tract of land covering ten acres adjoining the homestead of John A. Logan. The foundation has been partly laid. Joints and Cartilage.

Why do joints wear? They never give us any pain easily and joint its appearance in life in a fresh ly studied. In the ball in be ready joint the round end of the socket well as the cup, are covered bone, as with a smooth substance called cartilage," or "gristle." kept in care smooth with synovia. Cartilage tains no nerves and has no feeling it had, we should have pain when it moved. The bones are kept in at the joints by very strong bands ligaments; in hinge joints a number these bands are fastened above and below, bu in ball & socket joints they also surround the joint, forming a cap in which the joint moves freely. In disease this smooth cartilage gets worn away, and the ends of bone rub together like those of a skeleton: the pain is great because the bones have nerves, though the cartilage has none. A bone without cartilage is like a decayed tooth with an exposed nerve. In a healthy tooth the nerve is well covered and gives no pain; and in a healthy bone the nerves are there, but they are only felt when the cartilage is worn away.—London Hospital.

A Late Marriage.

The parish register of Greenwich, England, records the marriage, 1685, November 8, of "John Cooper, of this parish, Almsman in Queen Elizabeth College, aged 108, and Margaret Thomas, of Charlton in Kent, aged 80 years, by Lic nse of ye Lord Bishop of Rochester, and leave of ye Governors of ye Drapers." It would be difficult, in all probability, after this lapse of time, to substantiate the age of the bridegroom, but that of the bride indicates, I think, that Cooper, whether centenarian or no, was, at any rate, a very old man. One wonders "who proposed."

Consideration for the Ladies.

A Bengalese magistrate, having been informed of the whereabouts of a mad dog, armed himself and went to the place where the rabid animal lay by a house door. He learned upon inquiry that two women were in the house and sent word to them that he was about to shoot the dog and therefore they should not be alarmed by the report, and that, as he might not inflict a fatal wound at the first fire, and, in fact, might miss, they should remain within until notified. Such a supreme courtesy is in marked contrast with that of western civilization.

BY PERMISSION OF THE
REV. IRL R. HICKS (The Storm Prophet).
Copyrighted by the Word & Works Pub. Co., St. Louis, Mo.

OCTOBER, 1894.—October begins bright and cool, growing warmer in west, with secondary storms crossing from and to 4th. Frosty nights will follow. Another warm storm wave will start from west about 5th, bringing rain along its path to the east during 6th to 10th. Cold and frost will attend clearing conditions following. The 11th, 12th, 13th, are reactionary storm dates, with Full Moon 14th. Cold and frosty weather will follow storm flurries, about these dates. The 18th to 23rd is a storm period affected by both Venus and Mercury. Storms on lakes and seas will be dangerous. This is especially true of the reactionary storms on and touching the 20th, 21st. Venus on 21st, Mercury on 26th, New Moon 28th, and "Vulcan" 30th, compose a combination that renders the closing days of the month precarious on land and sea. Rain, turning to sleet and snow, attended by dangerous gales on the waters. Cold and freezing follow.
