

On Four Pages.

Reading matter of local interest will be found on the first, second, fourth, fifth, seventh and eighth pages of the STAR and HERALD every week.

Races Wednesday.
Politics is warm now.
Milk 4 cents a quart.
Fine new buggy for sale cheap.
Hats and caps at E. T. Miller's.
Election one month from to-day.
Dr. Lonergan is in Michigan on business.
The "Quit the Business" sale at Liggett's.
W. H. Ketcham was in Fairbury this week.
Crepe papers in different tints at J. C. Lewis.
Jas. Kennedy was a Chicago visitor Sunday.
Rubber goods of all kinds at E. T. Miller's.
Jas. West and daughter visited in Chicago Sunday.
John Matzen and wife were Chicago visitors Sunday.
W. T. Prime visited in Chicago Saturday and Sunday.
John Jeffers made this office a pleasant call Monday.
Miss Susie Fox is at home again from her western visit.
The closing out sale only lasts a short time, at Liggett's.
Jas. Stewart of Streator, was here on business Monday.
O. C. Jensen was in Blackstone on business Wednesday.
Ask W. M. Weese how he likes the Radiant Home heater.
The entries are coming in fast for the races next Wednesday.
The Round Oak is the best soft coal heating stove on earth.
M. Jensen made this office a pleasant business call Thursday.
Go to E. T. Miller's for Canton flannels. Cheapest in town.
Mrs. Wheatley and daughters were Chicago visitors Sunday.
Cheapest line of gloves and mittens in town at E. T. Miller's.
Mr. B. M. Chubb and W. Wright took in the state fair last week.
Ethel Watkins visited Gracie McMillan in Pontiac this week.
Mrs. W. T. Prime visited friends in Chicago two days this week.
A twelve pound boy arrived at Will Bartholic's last Friday night.
Liggett & Liggett have new advice to offer this week. Read it.
Clarence Martin, of Mazon, was in Dwight on business Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lewis are in Chicago this week buying goods.
The postoffice is closed now at 7 o'clock p. m. instead of 8 p. m.
The foot race next Wednesday—race day—will be a good attraction.
John. Woodspeed was in Chicago visiting Saturday and Sunday.
You need an overcoat. Buy one cheap and good at E. T. Miller's.
Henry Haack made this office a pleasant business call Saturday.
The Bargain Store speaks out in meeting this week. Read the ad.
Come to the races next Wednesday and enjoy a fine afternoon's sport.
Send your white vests to the Dwight Artesian Laundry, to be laundered.
Hon. Walter Reeves spoke in Ottawa Thursday to an immense audience.
There is a match race on tapis for next Wednesday at the races in Dwight.
The many friends of Martin Wilkes will be sorry to hear that he is seriously ill.
Farm for rent 5 miles east of Dwight. Inquire of J. McGinnis, Wilmington, Ill.
Miss Minnie Kime and little brother spent Sunday with friends in Kankakee.
Miss Laura Patterson is now employed as clerk in the store of Gordon Bros.
Chas. L. Romberger is west on business and will be gone about two weeks longer.
Miss Cora Baker returned Saturday from a week's visit with friends in Onarga.
Mr. and Mrs. Weldon visited with relatives near Gardner Saturday and Sunday.
Mr. Russell Palmer, of Onarga, visited with relatives here Sunday and Monday.
The water works whistle blows at 7 o'clock, and the merchants close up. It's good thing.
All invited to attend the last races in Dwight this season, next Wednesday. Lots of sport.
Call on Starrett & Seabert for fresh corn meal and graham flour of their own grinding.
Mrs. Bullock, of Chicago, visited friends here last week and returned home Sunday.
Mrs. Bertie Doherty is prepared to do all kinds of dress-making at short notice, at her residence, 114 Seminoe street, Dwight, Ill.

The oil wagon is the handiest and cheapest place to get your supplies in that line.
The best place to get your watch repairing done at reasonable prices is at Guardianer's.
Mr. C. Thomas, of Joliet, made us a pleasant call Tuesday, while here calling on friends.
Mrs. Wm. Losee is taking medical treatment in Joliet, and is much improved in health.
House and lot for sale. $200 down, $10 per month. Price $800. Nice home. Call at this office.
The Bargain Store will stamp one pattern free of charge with each one dollar cash purchase.
Go to Walter Scott for the best Braidwood coal. He also keeps the best grade of hard coal.
Mrs. Dr. Brown has returned from a visit to her old home in Missouri, having enjoyed a pleasant visit.
Starrett & Seabert make the finest bolted meal and graham flour in the market. Get their prices.
Races next Wednesday at the driving park. The last and best of the season. Come and enjoy yourselves.
Pillow shams and large patterns stamped for 10 cents, small patterns 5 cents, at the Bargain store.
A nice money making business and good new roomy home for sale. Price $1,500. Inquire at this office.
Lost—a child's gold ring with "Belle" engraved on the inside. Please return to STAR and HERALD office.
To trade—Two good round oak soft coal burners to trade for good hard coal burner. Call at this office.
Remember the last harvest excursion is Oct. 9, to all points northwest, west and south by the C. & A. R. R.
Cut rate to Kansas City and intermediate points, Oct. 1 to 8 inclusive. $8.75, single trip, by C. & A. R. R.
Will trade a good round oak soft coal burner for good hard coal burner and pay difference. Call at this office.
W. H. Ketcham has greatly improved the appearance of his home by placing an iron railing around his premises.
Two houses and lots—nice homes—for sale, small payment down, balance monthly payments. Call at this office.
There will be reduced rates on all railroads at the time of the Cullom speech in Pontiac Oct. 9. Everyone invited.
Leave your orders for the "History of Dwight" in book form. Only 50 cents for a complete illustrated history of your home.
Dr. Wm. Brown has returned from Pennsylvania and New York, where he went on business for The Leslie E. Keeley Co.
Robt. Wilmott and wife will visit their son in Chicago a few days and then go to Kansas and visit a daughter this winter.
Isaac Frakes and wife, of Wing, and Frank Crouch and wife, of McDowell, visited Mr. and Mrs. Franklin the first of the week.
Robt. H. Wright, the eldest son of Rev. E. F. Wright, has recently completed a course of study in Beloit (Wis.) college.
The Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the home of the Misses Fifield, Friday evening next at 7 o'clock.
The man who took the riding plow wheel from the McWilliams farm worked by Henry Haack must return it or be prosecuted.
The Modern Woodmen will meet from this time on during the winter, the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of each month.
Mrs. C. V. Bower has returned home from a visit to Peoria and Indianapolis. She attended the wedding of a sister while in the latter place.
Mrs. Dwight Morgan and daughter visited relatives in Bloomington last week. Dwight went down to see the little one Saturday night.
For a good, healthy bath soft water is necessary, and the only place in Dwight that rain water is used, is at Will Roeder's, the barber.
For sale, cheap for cash, 1 fine cherry mantle and tiling, 1 wind mill, several stoves for hard and soft coal. Apply to Richard P. Morgan.
Mr. and Mrs. Ames, of Texas, and daughter and children, visited Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Kelagher and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Breen this and last week.
B. A. Buck's store is beautifully decorated with Round Oak and Radiant Home heaters and the greatest variety of ranges of any store in town.
Don't forget to go and see the farmers' horse running race at the track Wednesday. There will probably be lots of entries and lots of fun.
What's the matter with the merchants closing up next Wednesday afternoon and giving all a chance to attend the last races of the season.
Rev. Ayling visited the Soldiers' Orphan Home at Normal this week, accompanied by Col. Fred Spink, of Chicago, and other Grand Army men.
Two houses and lots for sale at a great sacrifice. Will make you nice homes, price $800. $200 down and $8 or $10 a month. Good thing for a young man. Call at this office.

Who has a good hard coal burner to trade for one or two good soft coal burners. Call at this office quick.
Don't forget when you have a good item to let the newspaper man know it some way. It all helps to get up a good newspaper. Don't forget this.
We are in receipt of some fine samples of corn raised by Foss Boyer on the old homestead. Our display is increasing and we will soon have a bushel.
Jos. Kyle has quit the restaurant business and Mr. Schaefer is now in charge of the Mazon. Mr. Kyle is at present with C. M. Baker in the furniture store.
Starrett & Seabert just received a car load of Best on Record flour direct from Minnesota. To try it is to continue to use it. Get their prices before buying.
Mrs. Geo. Baker, an old time student here and teacher in this county, with Miss Cora Baker, of Dwight, are visiting friends in town for a few days.—Onarga Leader.
Mrs. John Leach was in Chicago Tuesday and Wednesday attending the state Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, as a delegate from the Dwight Chapter.
A little girl was a welcome visitor to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy, near Campus, the 20th of Sept. Mrs. Ferguson is much pleased with her granddaughter.
Miss Dr. Florence Thompson was in Chicago over Sunday. During her absence Mrs. J. C. Lewis, assistant superintendent, took charge of the Congregational Sunday school.
Mr. and Mrs. Jet Weller returned from Kansas recently, where they went for Mrs. Weller's health. Her many friends will be pleased to learn that she is much improved.
Mrs. E. B. Stewart, who has been very sick in Chicago, was brought home by her husband last Sunday. We are pleased to state that she is improving rapidly at present.
Frank Ford attended the state meeting of the Masons this week as a delegate from Livingston Lodge. He returned Thursday evening having enjoyed a pleasant meeting.
The $15 purse for farmers' horses will cause lots of fun next Wednesday at the races. Last week at Mazon the purse was only $5 and there were seven entries. Look out for fun.
The room occupied by Liggett & Liggett's grocery will be for rent after Nov. 1. Splendid location for grocery store. For further information call at Mickleson's photograph gallery.
Two immense marble slabs arrived in Dwight this week to be used as part of the roof to the Keeley vault in Oak Lawn. They were almost as large as a flat car, and the largest ever delivered in these parts.
The 3-I railroad has ordered six new and latest style passenger engines. They are to be ready for delivery about the time the South Bend extension is completed, and will be used in the fast passenger service.
Rev. E. F. Wright will preach at the Thompson school house to-morrow, (Sunday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. The school district known by the above is situated two miles south and two miles east of Dwight.
Big democratic rally at Chatsworth to-day. McVeagh and several other prominent democrats will speak. B. A. Buck, of Dwight, is one of the vice-presidents of the occasion, also E. T. Potter, of Round Grove.
Ladies of Dwight and vicinity are especially invited to call at Mrs. Fenn's millinery parlors to examine her stock of trimmed and untrimmed hats before purchasing elsewhere. She is bound to please, both in make and price.
Quite extensive races will be held in Sycamore, Ill., Oct. 9 and 10. The purses amount to over $600. The Sycamore people never do things by halves. We acknowledge, with thanks, the receipt of a season ticket.
The STAR and HERALD next week will contain a full report of the reunion of the 129th Ill. Vol. regiment, most of which was raised in this county. Report will include an outline history of the regiment as given by Major Judd.
Mr. Howe, the oil man, has just received a large shipment of kerosene oil from the Pennsylvania fields. This oil is non-explosive and very desirable. Look out for his wagon and have your cans ready to get your oil right at your door.
Miss Rhoda Bynum, of Moline, Ill., was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Haise this week. Miss Bynum was one of the first typists ever employed by the Leslie E. Keeley Co. Mrs. Haise arranged a very pleasant social event in honor of her guest, Wednesday evening of this week.
W. H. Bradbury, Esq., has been among many old friends here during the past week and both himself and friends have enjoyed the visit. He attended the reunion of his old regiment the 129th Ill. Vol. Inf. at Fairbury, Thursday, accompanied by Major C. J. Judd and quite a number of others from here. Mr. Bradbury has kindly consented to give us a report of the reunion, which will be published next week.

BOOTS AND SHOES

HEAVY AND LIGHT HARNESS.

Trade in all kinds of Footwear at LEACH & REEB'S is increasing. We are selling more Shoes than all other houses in Dwight, simply because we keep the very best lines made.

E. P. Reed's Fine Shoes for Ladies,

ALL WIDTHS AND SIZES.

Geo. E. Keith's Lines of Shoes

Are acknowledged by every Man and Boy who likes a Fine Shoe to be the best.

E. H. Cowle's Lines

For Style and Fit, are acknowledged leaders in every respect for Children.

25 cents takes a nice pair of Child's Shoes, cheap at 50cts.

$1.50 buys a fine Kid Shoe, with patent tip, really worth $2.00.

Ladies' Oil Grain Shoes for $1.39, former price $2.00.

Boys' and Men's heavy leather Boots, in Calf, Kip and Oil Grain, always in stock.

Leach & Reeb.

Ketcham & Smith

DIDN'T DO A THING, BUT JUST SELL SIXTEEN FARMS,

During the past month, in different parts of the country.

ANYONE WANTING

To sell or purchase Farm or City Property, can do so by calling on KETCHAM & SMITH, and they use their customers good, and have lands everywhere.

Outside of ILLINOIS Our nearest Land is in INDIANA

It's good and cheap and close by.

Call at

Ketcham & Smith's,

in Dwight, or address them at Dwight, Ill.

