

THE WORLD OVER. LATEST NEWS FROM EVERY LAND.

SHATTERED THE SAFE

BURGERS GO THROUGH A "BURGLAR-PROOF" BOX.

Fearful Run Wrought by Wind and Water at Little Rock—Sliphoff Methods of Bank Officers—Work Resumed on the Panama Canal.

From Far and Near.—A guaranteed burglar-proof safe in the fire-proof vault of the State Bank of...

A terrible cyclone struck Little Rock, Ark., at 7:30 Tuesday evening and almost devastated the western part of the city.

A Bank Examiner Van Vrauken has closed the First National at Fayetteville, N. Y., after an investigation into its affairs.

Work on the Panama Canal has been resumed with picks and spades at a point eleven miles from the Pacific and thirty-five miles from the Atlantic.

William Brown, of Charleston, Ind., has disappeared under circumstances that cause suspicion of foul play.

The Union Glass Company, at Anderson, Ind., has put its ten-pot house into full operation, furnishing employment to 200 men.

Ferdinand Ritz, aged 41 years, and Charles Howard, aged 34 years, were killed at Rochester, N. Y., by a bullet from an automobile.

George Lewis is being tried for murder at Mexico, Mo., for the fourth time.

Pittsburg will make a bid for the convention of the National League of Republicans in 1906.

T. R. Hazard, President of the Sedgewick Bank, of Sedgewick, Kan., has been arrested at Plymouth, N. H., on a charge of forgery.

The Boston and Albany went Monday to win its stops on full time, eight hours a day for six days in a week.

A German man, aged 35, of Haubstadt, Ind., was killed by a bullet. The death of his wife caused temporary insanity.

Robert Widney, S. Heleman, Conductor Caldwell, and an unknown woman were injured by the wrecking of a passenger train at Delano, Cal.

Sells Brothers of the circus men, have sued Braum & Bailey for $100,000 damages and $50,000 loss of business.

Pennsylvania's Supreme Court upholds the right of the fisheries to be the lawful representatives of the Evangelical Association.

George E. Foster, Canadian Minister of Finance, has gone to London for the purpose. It is said, of negotiating a new loan.

The public debt increased $7,226,796 during September.

Milwaukee and St. Louis breweries have established bottling works at San Francisco.

A project has been started at Montevideo to establish a new steamship line to the United States.

New York City Populists have nominated Dr. James McCollum for Mayor. John Swinton refused to run.

Holler four mills at Waterloo, Iowa, burned. Loss, $100,000.

William Farrow, of Olean, N. Y., just released from the Erie county penitentiary, was taken to $25,000.

More than 450 persons were killed by a waterspout near Valencia. Crop damages from the same cause exceed $400,000.

Citizens of La Grange, Ohio, turned out en masse on a man hunt for the murderer of John Hoeber. A rifle club joined in the chase.

Duties paid in at the Baltimore Custom House on Memphis Monday amounted to $54,000, the largest sum ever paid.

James Morton, aged 90, an inmate of the poor farm at Kingston, commits the story of J. F. Pierce, of Rock Springs, Wyo., that his wife was a daughter of Jay Gould.

The twenty-ninth annual convention of the Army of the Tennessee was held at Council Bluffs. Governor Jackson and Mayor Cleaver delivered addresses of welcome.

Clarence Justice, colored, and Byron Wilson, white, aged about 17 years, were run over and killed by a Baltimore and Ohio train at the western limits of Marietta, Ohio.

The E. B. Stone Flouring mills at Republic, Mo., were destroyed. Loss, $65,000.

Fire at Marquette, Mo., destroyed the Palace Hotel and two or three stores. Loss, $20,000.

Berry Rich, a farmer in Marion County, Kentucky, was taken from his home by a horse and wagon because his horse and wagon had been trail and hog stolen in the vicinity.

United States Marshal Greer and his deputies left Ashland, Ky., for Louisville with 196 moonshiners from the Upper Big Sandy Valley.

Robert H. Berto, of Sheridan County, Kansas, was arrested in Pueblo on a charge of counterfeiting.

William Mitchell, a young man residing at Seymour, Ind., was killed on the Big Boy Railroad at Carbon, Ind.

TALMAGE'S SERMON.

DISCOURSE ON THE DANGERS OF SOCIAL DISSIPATION.

Herod and the Daughter of Herodias—Lost and Murderer the Concomitants of Such a Dance—Salome in Dancing—Evils of the Fashionable Dance.

Evils of the Dance.—Rev. Dr. Talmage, who is still absent on his round the world tour selected as the subject of last Sunday's sermon through the press the quick feet.

It is the anniversary of Herod's birthday. The lights are lighted. The highways leading thereto are all ablaze with the pomp of invited guests.

Herod forgets crown and throne and everything but the fascinations of Salome. The magnificent of his realm is as nothing compared with the splendor that whirls on tiptoe before him.

Hark to the sound of feet outside the door and clatter of swords! The executioners are returning from their awful errand.

What are the dissipations of social life to-day, and what are the dissipations of the ballroom? In some cities and in some places reaching all the way across the continent.

Social dissipation is the abetter of pride. It is the instigator of jealousy, it is the sacrificial altar of health, it is the deceiver of the soul.

What are the dissipations of social life to-day, and what are the dissipations of the ballroom? In some cities and in some places reaching all the way across the continent.

Social dissipation is the abetter of pride. It is the instigator of jealousy, it is the sacrificial altar of health, it is the deceiver of the soul.

Social dissipation is the abetter of pride. It is the instigator of jealousy, it is the sacrificial altar of health, it is the deceiver of the soul.

Social dissipation is the abetter of pride. It is the instigator of jealousy, it is the sacrificial altar of health, it is the deceiver of the soul.

Social dissipation is the abetter of pride. It is the instigator of jealousy, it is the sacrificial altar of health, it is the deceiver of the soul.

Social dissipation is the abetter of pride. It is the instigator of jealousy, it is the sacrificial altar of health, it is the deceiver of the soul.

Social dissipation is the abetter of pride. It is the instigator of jealousy, it is the sacrificial altar of health, it is the deceiver of the soul.

of the bolle, an old dirt, a poor misanthropic spirit without any view beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

of the bolle, an old dirt, a poor misanthropic spirit without any view beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

if there is anything of earth beautiful to me, it is an aged woman, her white locks flowing back over the wrinkled brow—locks not white with frost, but white with grief.

CURRENT COMMENT.

DRUMMERS THEN AND NOW.

Some of the Changes Which Lessening Profits Have Committed.

The War in the Orient.—If the Japs in the Orient, what they want, let them ask for it—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

He who fights and runs away will lose his head another day if he makes his home in the Orient.—St. Louis Republic.

The Japs can fight at sea as well as on land, and no one knows it better than the Heathen Chinese.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

It is to be observed that there is not so much poetry about the Japanese method of warfare as there is about the Chinese. But the great general is more prompt and thorough.—Washington Star.

Twenty-five millions of dollars has been appropriated for the ceremonies observing the birthday of the mother of the Emperor of China.

It is an ill wind that blows nobody good. The laundry trust and other consolidated washee-washee institutions watch the progress of the demolition of the Chinese by the Japs with interest.

The Dr. Fostered "Willie's." Those playful Kentucky women are now crying triumphantly "Ah, men!" Exchange.

Old Kentucky has done well in putting a sulfidated congressman out of public view.—New York Tribune.

Breckinridge's refusal to talk is the first thing in the whole business that we can commend in him.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

The opposition to Colonel Breckinridge was not the offspring of hatred or malice, but of conscientious conviction.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

No stronger evidence was ever given of the positive power woman can wield in politics, even though not armed with the ballot, than the outcome.—Toledo Blade.

The district should be proud of the result, proud of the loyalty of its manhood and of the conscientious conviction.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

His defeat teaches the young men of America that educational, mental, physical or great oratorical gifts are of no real value when their possessor stoops to indecency.—Washington Star.

A great many people have been opposed to having men mix in the "dirty pool of politics." There couldn't be a much dirtier pool than in the Ashland, Ky., district.

As to Forest's Error.—It looks as if the government would have to take hold of this matter.—Philadelphia Call.

No such catastrophe has visited the country since the terrible Johnston flood.—Boston Journal.

The enormous waste of marketable timber is as nothing compared with the losses of life and property through the labor of years, and the extinction of whole families.—Baltimore Herald.

The Charleston earthquake of 1886, which brought for its victims sorrow from every part of the Union, was less disastrous than have been the forest fires of Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Some of the Changes Which Lessening Profits Have Committed.

There is much in common between the ways of the English commercial traveler and those of the American. The ways of the former are more set and established, but the latter is falling into ruts almost as deep as the other across the ocean.

The man who has seen some of the laboriously written of the dead sales to the home office, and by that time he is tired enough to make his evening prayer, which is, "God bless the man who has seen sleep!"

Some of the Changes Which Lessening Profits Have Committed.

Some of the Changes Which Lessening Profits Have Committed.

Some of the Changes Which Lessening Profits Have Committed.

Some of the Changes Which Lessening Profits Have Committed.

Some of the Changes Which Lessening Profits Have Committed.

Some of the Changes Which Lessening Profits Have Committed.

Some of the Changes Which Lessening Profits Have Committed.

Some of the Changes Which Lessening Profits Have Committed.

Some of the Changes Which Lessening Profits Have Committed.

Some of the Changes Which Lessening Profits Have Committed.