Our Correspondents.

It will be noticed that now we have a regular correspondent in Pontiac, who will furnish all the important county news to us every week. We have more correspondents and better ones than any paper in this county or this part of the state. We want good ones in Odell, Campus, Blackstone and any place where there is interesting news not too far away.

Monday night Hon. G. W. Patton delivered a masterly address on the political questions of the day at the court house. Mr. Patton quoted many statements from Mr. Gibbon's speech and should up to latter's poor logic and a poorer knowledge of political economy. After reading Mr. Gibbons statement that he was "a sucker and glad of it," Mr. Patton dryly remarked that it was unnecessary to call another witness. Late in the afternoon the following circular addressed to Mr. Patton was given a large circulation in the city:

PONTIAC, Oct., 29, 1894.

HON. GEORGE W. PATTON:

I. Tell the people in your speech this evening how the foreigners pay the tax, and tell them how much the late war cost the foreigner.

2. When, during war times, it took $1.00 to buy 3 lbs of sugar, who paid the extra 95 cents? and when it took 90 cents to buy a yard of cotton cloth, tell the people who paid the extra 85 cents.

3. Was the Sherman bill a good law for the country or a bad one? If a good law for the country, why did Republicans vote to repeal it? If a bad law, why Republicans voted for its passage?

4. Would you, as a teacher in this campaign of education, advise the re-enactment of the McKinley law in its entirety? If not, why not? In what particular would you advise it changed?

5. Do you teach that one object of a protective tariff is to enable an employer to pay higher wages to his laborers? If so, will you cite your audience to an instance where and when wages were raised on an increase of the tariff.

6. If the Lord elected Harrison in 1888, why did he not elect him in 1892? Has the Lord gone back on the Republicans or have the Republicans gone back on the Lord? If the latter, then tell the people whether it is because the Lord put salvation on the free list?

JAKE AMI,

Chairman Com. on Pol. Education. Mr. Patton at the close of his address answered the questions satisfactorily to the audience, and evidently to Jake, for he in no way expressed himself to the contrary.

1. The foreigner pays the tax by depositing good old greenbacks at the custom houses before his goods enter this country. Be more explicit, Jakey. The late war cost the foreigner about $1,000,000,000 in custom duties and $500,000,000 in worthless Confederate bonds which he purchased.

2. Five cents buys 3 lbs of sugar. Well Jake, where did you ever get 60 lbs of sugar for $1.00? By stating what kind of cotton cloth he would be enabled to answer this question.

3. The Sherman law at the time of its passage was a good law because, previously 75c worth of silver, when loaned was worth $1.00. Republicans voted to repeal because, carelessly executed, it was depleting the sub-treasury.

4. Yes, he endorsed the McKinley bill (also Bill McKinley) and would have no changes. McKinley the next president. (wild applause).

5. Yes, he did, Mr. Patton cited 70 instances of wages in 1891 being higher than those of 1890.

6. Probably for the same reason the Lord caused the children of Israel to be snake bitten. He advised Democrats to repent and be saved while salvation was on the free list.

Lutyns band and the glee club furnished the music. Late reports are that Jake has resigned the chairmanship.

Several of the Emington young people assisted in the Sunday School convention at Campus last Sunday. Quite a large delegation went to Saunemin in the evening to the Christian Endeavor rally. The papers were pithy and practical. The house was full and all were much benefitted by the service. The fact that Congregationalist spent the day with the Methodists at Campus and the evening with the Disciples at Saunemin, suggests that the time of denominational rivalry is soon to be a thing of the past.

There are no flies on "Jake Schneider" or his little sister, "Katrina," they are both decidedly taking.

To say that our people were pleased with first presentation of "True Blue," would be expressing it very mildly, for they were carried away with it. The whole entertainment from beginning to end, was a great success. The characters were all well taken by home talent, save the one carried out by Capt. Higgins, the author and manager of the entertainment. The crowd was good and everyone expressed themselves as highly pleased. Capt. Higgins is a very pleasant gentleman and a splendid manager, with years of experience in the work. The tableaux were splendid and in fact, every scene was realistic and well presented. No one should miss the last presentation of the play this evening.
