SPECIAL RATES made at this office for steady advertisers. There will be no deduction from these rates for spasmodic advertisers.

DUSTIN & WASSSELL, Dwigth, Ill.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Senator Collum may succeed himself and he may not. Cook county seems to be full of candidates for the United States senate.

The Republican party of Illinois should never be represented in the senate of the United States by a spasmodic republican.

Hon G. W. White, of Whiteside county, is a candidate for speaker of the next house of representatives of Illinois.

Bureau county recently organized an editorial association. The newspaper men there are evidently "up to snuff."

"A Clean Sweep," on account of a conflict of dates, remained in Dwight two nights instead of one, as advertised.

Death of Daniel Brown. The death of Daniel Brown, who resided with his family about a mile north of Campus in Round Grove, took place Wednesday, Oct. 31, but it was impossible for us to get the facts until this week.

Marvellous Results. From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Gilmound, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no better title to recommend Rev. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife."

The Place Where Farmers Make Money. There is one part of the country where farmers make more money in the past year, and that is Northern Wisconsin.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions.

All Free. Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery know its value, and those who have not, have the opportunity to try it free.

Closing Out Sale. I will close up my entire stock of cloths, cassimeres, tailor's trimmings, etc. at cost, until Dec. 1.

Marshall--McKenzie.

A happy home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. A. Marshall, south of town, Wednesday. The contracting parties were his daughter Miss Anna, and James W. McKenzie, of Glendive, Montana.

Among the guests were Mrs. A. M. Thompson, Miss Jennie and Dr. Florence Thompson and Miss Mary McMeans, of this city; D. B. Thompson and wife, of Campus, James Crosthwaite, of Dickinson, S. D., John George and J. W. Grimes, of Pontiac.

A Good Chance. We can get a good man or woman agent on a splendid chance to make money during the winter.

Wanted. A competent girl to do general housework. Must be a good cook and laundress. Apply to Miss May S. Morgan.

Livingston County Official Vote. The official count of the votes from all the townships in Livingston county was made on Thursday. We present herewith the total vote on each candidate:

Table with columns: REPUBLICAN, DEMOCRATIC, PROBATION, PEOPLE'S SILVER, IND. REP. Lists names and vote counts for various candidates.

Miss Mary Marshall, who teaches in the Indian school in Oneida, Wis., came home last Saturday to be present at her sister's wedding.

Dr. Florence Thompson, the dentist, is taking a week's vacation from her work, and is spending part of her time in Chicago.

Dr. Florence Thompson accompanied the McKenzie bride party to Chicago Wednesday evening.

Prof. F. W. Wood, principal of the West Branch, Iowa, public schools, returns here Tuesday after spending two weeks' vacation at his old home in Dwight.

Arrangements are going merrily on for the December fairs. The Congregational society, Dec. 6, the W. C. T. U., about the 15th, and the Catholic fair, week of Jan. 7.

Rev. Wilhelmson, pastor of the Danish M. E. church, will preach the Thanksgiving sermon at the M. E. church. This will be a union service in which all churches are invited to unite.

The Streator Epworth League District Convention will convene in the M. E. church in Dwight Friday, Nov. 23, at 8:30 p. m., and will continue on Sunday.

Additional Dwight Locals.

Don't fail to hear Thomas Overcoats cheap, E. T. Miller's Special Handkerchiefs for C. E. Miller's. Special Handkerchiefs at E. T. Miller's.

Here, Boys! For sale cheap, a first-class popcorn stand. C. Parker. Bargains in wardrobes, beds, springs, chairs, etc., Second Hand Store.

One week from next Thursday will be Thanksgiving Day. Turkey will lay low. Read our great portrait offer in connection with our subscription. It's a daisy.

Rev. Wagner preached at Peotone last Sabbath, the pastor there being absent. Mrs. J. F. Wassell and children are spending a few days visiting friends in Chicago.

Mr. E. A. Hartford, who has been dangerously ill lately, has been able to again be upon the street. The Sons of Veterans dance was well attended Thursday evening and a very pleasant time enjoyed.

W. E. Nightengale is the new night operator at C. & A. depot. He is a very pleasant gentleman. Miss Cora Thompson, who is teaching at Sau-nehine, is spending two weeks' vacation at her home in Dwight.

London's "Finest." London has 16,000 police. One thousand of these are termed the municipal police belonging to the "city" proper, and the remaining 15,000 are on duty in all other sections of the metropolis.

Anyone having files of the Dwight Star from 1890 can do us a great favor by calling at this office immediately. C. N. Thomas, of Burlington, Iowa, in his interesting lecture, "Travels in Italy," at the M. E. church, Monday night.

ATTACKED BY COYOTES.

A Hunter Nearly Slain by the Hungry Brutes. "To encounter a pack of coyotes at night when they are hungry," said a gentleman of Galveston, Texas, "is a hair-raising experience."

"The other members of the party had gone off to the north in search of game, and were out of sight only about fifteen minutes when off to the south I heard the wailing groan of a coyote. It began to pour down rain, and soon all of the wood I had piled up for a fire was too wet to burn."

SCIENTIFIC OPTICIAN. J. C. LEWIS, Dwight, Ill. An English peeress, Lady Carlisle, is training an entire staff of women to take charge of the fine grounds of her extensive estate in York. Women gardeners and women florists seem to be women in the right place, yet these occupations are only occasionally sought by women. It is interesting to observe that Miss Wilkinson, an Englishwoman and one of the most successful women in the profession, should have recently received the highest and most suggestive testimony to her skill. Vauxhall Park, her work, and just opened by the Prince of Wales, has been pronounced by that accredited excellent judge to be one of the best pieces of landscape gardening he has ever seen.
