The Campfire.

At the request of a large number of people of Dwight and vicinity the G. A. R. will repeat Tuesday, Dec. 11, the recent entertainment given at the opera house. The large audience present at the last entertainment have all spoken very highly of the pleasing performance and many of them want to see it again. It will also be remembered that the day and evening were bad and it was impossible for the people from the country to get in, as many of them intended to.

It is also proposed this time to give the school children a chance and all of them between five and thirteen years of age will be admitted for 10 cents. The other prices will be the same as the last one. Before the campfire was given for the benefit of the G. A. R. but this time it is for the Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans.

It has been decided to shorten the entertainment in some particulars and also to introduce some new and amusing features. Dr. Parsons will be on hand with his saw and Mr. Huey will represent the "poor white trash" of the south. The singing will be better than ever, and the whole arrangement will of course be better than before, as everyone is up in his or her part.

Commander Ayling has most kindly consented to manage the whole affair again, which of itself means success.

The committee from the three organizations is as follows: Commander Ayling, chairman, Comrades Brown, Weldon, Williams; Mrs. J. C. Lewis, Mrs. Huey, Mrs. Wheatley, W. G. Dustin, Sam Boyer and Fred Mowbray.

COMMANDER McDOWELL.

It will be remembered that at the previous entertainment a strong effort was made to get Department Commander H. H. McDowell to be present, but he had a previous engagement at Piper City. He however, will be with us this time, and deliver a patriotic address. Commander McDowell has been delivering addresses almost continually for the past few months and he is received with great enthusiasm wherever he goes.

Remember the date is two weeks from next Tuesday and make your arrangements accordingly.

Mistaken Identity.

Jule Walters, the tramp in "Side Tracked," once had a peculiar experience with the authorities in a Kansas town. It appears the company made an enormous jump. Not arriving in the town where they were billed until 8 o'clock, the members of the company made up their respective parts on the train so as to be ready for the performance immediately upon arrival. Walters jumped off on reaching the station, to take a short cut, but was placed under arrest by the city marshal as soon as he alighted. He could not induce the big marshal to release him until the local manager was located. The marshal smiled and said Jule Walters was the most natural looking tramp he ever saw. He came up and witnessed the performance and presented Walters with a handsome cane. He appears here Wednesday, Nov. 28.

How Badly do You Want a Home of Your Own.

If you are really in earnest in desiring to get a home of your own write at once to Fredrick Abbot, Land Commissioner, Wisconsin Central Railroad at Milwaukee, Wis., for a pamphlet which will tell you how and where you may get work at good wages and a home for yourself.

Don't fail to see our offer in another column announcing the splendid Thanksgiving gift which we will present free to all our readers.

Robbed.

The houses of R. H. Woodward and F. Fennell, about six miles northeast of Dwight, near the Alton track, were robbed last Sunday between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. The houses are close together and the families were both away on a visit. It is supposed the theft was committed by tramps who had witnessed the departure of the people. About $100 worth of treasures were taken, including Mrs. W.'s gold watch and chain, rings, breast pins, bracelets, silver knives and forks, pocketbook and between four and five dollars in money and lots of other things which had been received as presents, etc., and were of great personal value. Mr. Woodward was in Dwight Monday and sent out some postal cards offering a suitable reward.

Death of Mrs. Hattie Devan.

Died, Nov. 18, 1894, at 10:30 a. m., Mrs. Hattie Devan, of consumption, at her home in Wilson.

She was born near Kankakee, Sept. 17, 1862. Removed to Grundy county about fifteen years ago; has resided in Wilson about three years. She leaves a husband, a ten year old daughter, a father and several brothers to mourn her loss. The funeral was held at the home of a sister in Morris, Tuesday at 2 p. m.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that two notes, belonging and payable to the undersigned, one for $91, made February 15, 1894, signed by Henry Seidentop, and one made Feb. 15, 1894, signed by Jacob Krummer, have been lost and the public are hereby notified not to negotiate for same, as payment on same has been stopped.

MRS. KATHARINE MURPHY.
Dwight, Ill., Nov. 20, 1894.

Old Country Papers.

We are better prepared than ever to supply old country papers at greater reduced rate than ever. Should anyone in this community want any paper published in foreign countries or printed in foreign languages in the United States it will pay you to call at this office.

Capt. O. F. Avery Appointed.

Col. Parsons has appointed O. F. Avery, of Pontiac, as his deputy. He has had experience in the office and will make an excellent assistant. Mr. Avery will serve for the time being and will most likely resume his old position on the road in the insurance line when able to do so.

Our Great Thanksgiving Gift, "Which is the Sweeter?"

We have arranged with the publisher to send free to every reader of this paper a copy of that charming prize water color picture, "Which is the Sweeter?" Every one has gone into ecstasies over this popular study. The pictures are each 12 3/4 x 17 1/2 inches in size. It is an opportunity that should not be lost.

To obtain this valuable present you have only to clip the appended coupon and fill it up, enclosing four cents in stamps or pennies for packing, mailing etc., to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th street, New York, who will send the picture direct to you, thus saving the additional expense which would be incurred if sent to us in the first instance and then remailed to your address. We present our compliments with this choice gift, which we are glad to be enabled to send to you, as it will form one of the most attractive ornaments of your home.

W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 15 East 14th St., New York.

Please send me by return mail the water-color picture, "Which is the Sweeter," which I am entitled to by being a reader of the DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD, Braceville Tribune or Gardner Tribune. Enclosed find four cents for postage, packing, etc.

The 3-1.

It is now definitely understood that the 3-1 will soon put on one mail train each way for the present. The train will carry passengers and will stop at Dwight, Kankakee and Mokenca in this state. The road will put on another train soon and already have the equipment for the same. They will not for the present, make any Chicago connections, but may, in the near future, run a Chicago car from Streator and connect with the Wash. Central, or Eastern, and take passengers direct into Chicago. Competing railroads are a good thing for any place. All freights will continue to carry passengers until the other passenger trains are put on.

S. of V. Election.

The election of officers will occur one week from next Monday at their hall. At a meeting held Tuesday last the following nominations were made by ballot: Captain, Jos. K. Buffum; 1st Lieut., Fred Mowbray; 2nd Lieut., Roy Seymour. Camp council—W. G. Dustin, S. H. Boyer and Orville Brown. The above will undoubtedly be elected by acclamation.

A Good Chance.

We can put a good man or woman agent onto a splendid chance to make money during the winter. This would be better for some one who has a horse and buggy. Inquire of DUSTIN & WASSLEL, Dwight, Ill.

The uncouth counterfeit presentation of a tramp as portrayed by Jule Walters in "Side Tracked" should be witnessed by all who seek enjoyment. "Side Tracked" is described as a farcical drama, with beautiful scenery and the best specialties on the American stage. Next Wednesday, Nov. 28, at Dwight opera house.
