EDITORIAL NOTES.

Senator O'Malley has gone free. So has the devil. Look out for them.

Some of the democrats of Pontiac have dubbed Ralph Bradford the "Tanner of Livingston county."

Eugene Baker has accepted a position as first assistant postmaster at Pontiac. Mr. Reno will get his mail there under protest.

Some one should slip up behind the Pontiac editors and stick a pin in them. They have gone to sleep again until next election.

The only real danger that Senator Cullom seems to be in is that the Chicago Tribune might come out for him.

The Fairbury Blade has been enlarged to eight columns on account of large advertising patronage.

The majority for Eureka in the recent county seat war in Woodford county was 635.

The North Central Illinois Medical Association will hold its twenty-first annual meeting in the LaSalle county court room in Ottawa, Ill.

The republicans will have 134 majority in the next congress. The democrats will have 17 more members than the republicans had in 1892.

We are in receipt of a very appropriate "Memorium" of Chas. E. Strong, the general manager of the Chicago Newspaper Union.

Fred Duckett has appointed Emory Gregg, of Fairbury, as his deputy. This is an excellent selection.

The following are the official pluralities for Congressman in the eleventh district:

History of Dwight

FROM THE FIRST SETTLEMENT UP TO DATE.

Rev. Leenhouse, of the Presbyterian church, resigned his charge. The M. E. church became lighted with a new set of chandeliers. J. W. Watkins purchased the Judd cottage on Morgan avenue and J. R. Oughton the Little property.

As the term of three corporation trustees expired, and as two selected for the long term at the beginning of the year previous had moved to other localities, it devolved upon the citizens to elect five new trustees.

Mrs. Graham's

CUCUMBER and ELDER FLOWER CREAM

Creates a Perfect Complexion

After using it daily for six months a lady's skin will be as pink, soft and velvet as rose and clear as the most delicious baby's skin. It is not an artificial cosmetic. It cleanses, refines, perfumes and whitenes. It feeds and nourishes the skin tissues, thus banishing wrinkles. It is harmless to the face and soot weakly to the hair. It is the flower of roses. But it is not three months. BARKER mailed free on request of 10 cents. Lady Agents wanted. Very Abundant.
