 Starrett & Seabert just received a car load of Best on Record flour direct from Minnesota. To try it is to continue to use it. Get their prices before buying.
 Our handsome portfolios, announced in another column, are here now. We have a dozen samples. They are bound in blue cloth and lettered in gold. Call and see them.
 Miss Ada Klughart returned home from Streator Monday accompanied by her sister, Mrs. J. H. Pile and baby Violet. They will visit friends and relatives until after the holidays.
 If you need any rubber goods be sure and call at our store as we always carry the largest and best selected stock in town—the Boston Rubber Co's goods. Do not buy any others. We also have the genuine Lambertville snag proof boots and shoes.—Miller Bros.
 "Aunt Sally" was as full of fun as could be, and the audience Wednesday evening seemed to be well pleased. Manager Romberger has been fortunate in getting good entertainment for the public so far this year, with possibly one exception. The plays have been fairly well patronized.
 For rheumatism I have found nothing equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It relieves the pain as soon as applied. J. W. Young, West Liberty, W. Va. The prompt relief it affords is alone worth many times the cost, 50 cents. Its continued use will effect a permanent cure. For sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; Smith & Melhuish, Gardner; and Augustine & Son, Braceville, Druggists.
 Mr. Ira P. Wetmor, a prominent real estate agent of San Angelo, Texas, has used Chamberlain's Colic Colera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for several years as occasion required, and all ways with perfect success. He says: "It is a perfect cure for our baby when troubled with colic or dysentery. I now feel that my outfit is not complete without a bottle of the remedy at home or on a trip away from home. For sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; Smith & Melhuish, Gardner and Augustine & Son, Braceville, Druggists.
 Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought sure I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 cent bottles for sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; Smith & Melhuish, Gardner and Augustine & Son, Braceville, Druggists.
