EDITORIAL NOTES.

Did Fairbury get left? We guess not. She had no candidates but now has two chief deputies.

Livingston county's court house was captured last Monday by the republicans, with the exception of Hugh Thompson's office.

The Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean is a 12-page weekly. We furnish it to our subscribers who pay in advance for $1.75 for both papers.

Anyone who will send us two new subscribers, paid in advance, we will send the Weekly Inter Ocean one year, or the N. Y. Weekly Tribune.

E. P. Hilliard, said to be a money shark, of Chicago, was shot and killed last week by a man who had been robbed by him of almost his last cent. It's a very good piece of work. We think Mr. Hastings, the man who did the shooting, should be given a steady job at the same kind of work.

The supreme court of Indiana has recently handed down a decision which is important. A woman was sued by a whiskey dealer for a bill for goods purchased for a saloon which the woman owned. The woman refused to pay, and the decision of the supreme court is that a woman cannot contract a valid debt in that business.

The amendment of the state constitution was defeated at the recent election. To carry it would have to receive a majority of all the votes cast. It received 146,484 votes out of 940,524 cast, and was consequently defeated by 323,779 votes. People pay little attention to any amendment on the bottom of a ticket. The next legislature should authorize a constitutional convention to revise the constitution of Illinois. It needs it.

Our legislature, when it meets next January, will have 51 senators and 153 representatives. Of this 204, the republicans will have 125, giving them a round majority on joint ballot. In the senatorial caucus of republicans, it will require 63 members to make a nomination, and it is altogether likely that Senator Cullum will have more than enough to make him the party nominee. He will be the choice of the party generally outside of Chicago, if we are to judge by the fact that the republican newspapers are largely for him. Thus far he is the best man for the place in the field, and as such we are for him.—Joliet Republican.

Clubbing and Premiums.
The newspaper clubbing business, in connection with our home papers, has become very large during the past few years. Last year we sent away between three and four hundred dollars, and this year the amount will exceed that. This speaks well for any community as it shows intelligence and a strong desire to keep up with the times. The class of newspapers and magazines and general literature sent for by us for customers, is of the best and now it is generally known for miles around here that we furnish any publication of any general character in the world for a considerable less rate than they can be gotten direct from the office of publication. There are a very few publications that do not allow a commission. We are enabled to thus accommodate our customers almost wholly through the large and liberal subscription agency which was established in Dwight by Homer Kenyon, Esq., which is now in Chicago, and the largest institution of the kind in the world. There are a few papers we make direct arrangements with. In no case do we make one cent on the publication sent for, but do it as an accommodation and to induce everyone to take our papers and to keep their subscriptions paid in advance the same as they have to when taking a paper published somewhere else. During the past week we have received orders for papers published away from Kansas, Iowa and Nebraska. All that is necessary to take advantage of the reduced price is to pay your subscription in advance, and as that should be done anyway, it is no hardship.

This year we have made arrangements for a nice lot of premiums. We call them premiums, although, while they are not given away, they are given for a ridiculously low price, if you are a subscriber, of course.

The "Portfolios of the World's Photographs," which we offer with our papers for $2.50 is a beautiful work of art, and would grace any library or parlor. We invite everyone to call and see a copy. The portfolio sold for $5. It contains about 500 pages. "Practical Home Physician," containing 1157 pages, compiled by eminent physicians, and clearly illustrated, always sold for $4 or $5. We offer it with our paper for $3.

Beautiful complete, large history of the war, bound in cloth, we furnish our subscribers including paper for $3.50. [This is certainly the finest history we have ever seen.—Ed.]

And so on we might enumerate the advantages our subscribers have over others. We do not believe our subscribers generally realize the advantages to be derived by carefully reading the offers that appear from time to time in our papers. We invite you especially to call at our office in Dwight, or to apply to our associate editors, to see sample copies, or get any information desired.

Our latch string is always out, we generally have enough coal to keep a fire, and will be pleased to see subscribers or members of their families at any time, or indeed, any man, woman, or child that would like to call.

The Standpipe.

Before the last village election the STAR AND HERALD intimated that if the present board was elected the village would have a standpipe, the water mains would be extended so that all our people could be supplied with water and the water works put on a paying basis. We said this because it was the general talk of those interested in the election of the ticket that it would surely be done, and that no trouble would be experienced in raising the money. We thus explain our fear some might think we were going to build it ourselves.

As we understood it a stock company was to be formed and the amount of money raised for the necessary improvements, the standpipe built and the extensions made, and the whole sold back to the village in a certain time. The time was to be extended so that the water works would pay the loan and interest. The stock company has not materialized, but it should, and there is no good reason for it not being done.

We wish it distinctly understood that the STAR AND HERALD was honest in its convictions when it stated the above would occur, and had information we considered reliable, that there would be no trouble about the matter, and believe it will be done yet.

Knights of the Maccabees
The State Commander writes us from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our experience proves that it cures where all other remedies fail."—Signed F. W. Stevens, State Com.—It is guaranteed and trial bottles are free at Barr & Davis, Dwight, W. H. Augustine, Braceville, Smith & Melhuish, Gardner Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

"Baker on Organization" Found!

FORT YUKON, ALASKA, Dec. 5, '94.

EDITORS STAR AND HERALD:

FOUND—A book entitled, "Baker on Organization." It was picked up by an old Esquimaux seal trapper, at a point 27 feet south and a little east of the headwaters of "Salt River," which for several hundred miles runs nearly parallel with the Yukon river. Salt river is noted for its great fishing advantages. It produces in large quantities what are commonly known as "Suckers" with a right smart sprinkling of "Bull-heads" and "Red-heads." A late wash-out in the United States floated a greater number of these fresh fish up Salt river than has ever been seen here before, supposed to come from the states. It is the opinion of many of our ablest scientists that said book was washed up by the late freshest in the states and lodged in the "rushes" (without a basket) at the point above mentioned. The book shows signs of use. It treats of various subjects not, however, including christianity. The longest chapter in the book is devoted to "Political Organization" by the author, in which the writer exhibits wonderful learning, eloquence and skill. Another chapter on "Congressional Gerry-mandering," by the Hon. Jas. A. Smith, which was not long since pronounced a most wonderful state paper, and pregnant of success to its author. Another chapter is devoted to the subject, "How to make believe you are an Editor" by an overgrown son of his father, of Fairbury, Ill. Another chapter is a "Medical desertation of the Postoffices and Civil Service Reform." In fact it is a very large book, with "blue" covering, and is about as full of topics on county organization as a Greenbacker's farm used to be of weeds when weeds cut a more important figure in politics than any other vegetable, not barring "sod corn." I may add that a few poems have been added to the brilliancy of its pages. A recent telegram from the states informs us that one lonely official in Pontiac tore a verse from one page of the book and surreptitiously pasted it upon the wall of his office in the court house. We make this statement to save ourselves from any suspicions of having defaced the book.

The owner, by proving property and paying charges, will receive book by the first steamer that backs down Salt river far enough to reach the spot.

We are credibly informed that W. T. Ament and J. I. Best have dispatched deputy sheriff, H. B. Gungul, to this Fort with a writ of replevin from the court of Mike Cleary for the book, hence look out for blood on the moon.

ELIAB BENONI.

Goodfarm.

MR. EDITOR:—I have been requested to express, (through your columns,) as strongly and earnestly as words can do it, the boundless thanks of Neighbor George Pyatt and wife.—First, to the Modern Woodmen, who conceived and executed the plan; then to everyone, man, woman or child who in any way participated in that Christian act of sympathy and kindness—viz.: of so nicely husking and cribbing their corn;—to those of the Woodmen who could not give actual labor in the field, but sent a generous equivalent in the shape of flour, sugar, tea, coffee, etc., which, on account of the prolonged illness of Mrs. Pyatt, accident to himself, and light crops, were very acceptable; to Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Hughes, who gratuitously furnished such a dainty, beautiful dinner to the twenty-six hungry huskers; and last, but not least, to Madames Thorpe and State for so adroitly helping to serve up the meal, together with a retinue of lively pretty girls too numerous to mention.

It is greatly to be regretted that Neighbor Pyatt's corn field was not large enough to accommodate all who were willing to assist.

"Cast thy bread upon the waters and thou shalt find it after many days."

At The Campfire.

Glacier's Carolinians, the great jubilee singers, will be in Dwight Tuesday evening and will take part in the fun and frolic of the camp scene, and will sing several songs, and take the place of the orchestra. They will greatly add to the fun. Everyone should be present. The prices are the same, school children, 10; general admission, 25. Reserved seats 35 cents.

Gun Club.

At the meeting of the gun club, Thursday, the shoot was twenty-five clay pigeons, Messrs Bower and Steffins tied for first at twenty-one; Geo. Tate second, nineteen; Robt. Orr third, seventeen. Messrs. Oughton and Romberger shot a match, but we haven't room for the score and they won't feel badly about it. There was an excellent attendance, seventeen, and all enjoyed the sport.

Christiansen-Back.

Married, at 116 Seminole St., Soren Back and Lena Christiansen, both of Dwight; Rev. Wilhelm officiating. We join their many friends in congratulations and best wishes.

Stevens-Gillispie.

Miss E. Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stevens, and H. D. Gillispie, of Goodfarm, were united in marriage last Tuesday. These young people are well known in this community and have many friends whom we join in congratulations. We understand Mr. and Mrs. Gillispie will go to Kansas.
