M. F. Reilly & Co.

Reddick, Ill., is indeed fortunate in having within her midst so enterprising a firm of general merchants as the above. At all times, all seasons of the year, rain or shine, sink or swim, Messrs. M. F. Reilly & Co. have got in stock about everything needed by the poor mortals here below. The firm has been in business so long, and they have had so much experience with the wants of customers, that they make no mistakes. They buy what is needed, pay cash for it, and then sell at a reasonable profit and that is all anyone can ask.

The firm deals in wagons, buggies, all kinds of farm machinery, coal, dry goods, and a most complete line of groceries, and as we said before almost anything anyone wants.

At the present time they are virtually making their customers Christmas presents, the following prices being so low:

Pillsbury or diamond flour only $3.75 per barrel; good raisins, 25 pounds for $1; currants, 25 pounds for $1; California evaporated pears, peaches, pitted plums and other fancy fruit at correspondingly low prices. Reilly & Co. are also selling good, substantial clothing at cost to close out.

At Christmas time the firm always looks out for the wants of all in the shape of good substantial presents, and lots of nicknacks for the little ones such as candies, etc.

The firm is thoroughly responsible and when they say "call and we will convince you we are the lowest," they mean business, and will do as they say.

M. F. Reilly & Co. wish all their customers and friends a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

"Dreams and Dreamers."

The above is the title of a very fine lecture delivered Thursday evening at M. E. church by Dr. F. W. Merrell, a former pastor of the M. E. church of Dwight. The lecture was introduced in a happy speech by Rev. Ayling.

The lecture is a beautifully worded production and full of deep thought and good common sense. He presents the contrast between the man who lives in the present and never dreams of the future, and the one who dreams of future greatness in something, and is ambitious enough to realize his dreams.

Dr. Merrell was a very popular pastor in Dwight, as the reception he met with here indicates. The church was crowded and after the lecture hundreds went forward and gave their former pastor and townsman a hearty reception.

Home Bakery.

Mrs. M. A. McCarty will, on Dec. 20, open a home bakery in the Ford building, No. 112 East street, with a full line of home baked bread, pies, cakes, etc. Also a full line of extracts, mince, meat, candies. Orders for baking promptly filled and delivered. Lunches served at all hours. A share of your patronage respectfully solicited.

Mrs. M. A. McCarty.

The Wilson Store.

The large general store at Wilson, Ill., owned by James M. Maguire, has gained a great reputation for serving the wants of the thrifty farming community around that place. Mr. Maguire has been located at Wilson nearly three years, and is a good business man, perfectly reliable and fair, good natured and accommodating, and has been successful.

His stock always includes a full line of staple and fancy groceries, ready made clothing, such as farmers are constantly in need of, gloves, mittens, etc., boots, shoes, rubber goods. Mr. Maguire also deals in the best makes of buggies, wagons, cutters, sleighs and everything in this line. Good coal can also be had in any quantity at Mr. Maguire's place at Wilson.

Probably the most important single line of business in which Mr. Maguire is engaged is that of buying grain. He is manager of a very large elevator there, and all he asks of his friends and neighbors or anybody far or near is to call upon him for prices before selling their grain. He keeps up with the markets upon all occasions, and pays the best price he can and come out whole.

Mr. Maguire has always in stock almost everything for good, suitable, useful Christmas presents.

Our enterprising transfer and express man, Will Morris, has made arrangements to put a bus and baggage wagon on his main route, between the C. & A. and I. & C. railroad stations. The first of the year he will be ready to answer calls night or day.

We hope all secretaries will take interest enough in their societies to send us the names of all newly elected officers.

FREE HOME TREATMENT.

Catarah Cures by Thousands by Dr. Hartman.

The symptoms of chronic catarah vary according to the stage and exact location of the dis ease. The first stage of catarah of the nose and head produces discharge from the nose, sneezing, pain in the eye and forehead weak, and sometimes watery eyes, occasionally loss of memory. In the last stage the discharge ceases, and dry, offensive scabs form in the nose popli grooves sometimes form in one or both nostrils, and the pain in the head and eyes is much less. Unless something is done to prevent the catarah will follow the mucous membrane into the lungs where it will be followed by cough, night sweats, rapid loss of flesh, and the other dread symptoms of consumption.

To all such people Dr. Hartman's treatment comes as a great boon. It is only necessary to send name and address to Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, and complete directions for first month's treatment will be sent free. Not only is it more successful in curing catarah than the treatment of the catarah specialists but it is in the reach of every person in this land. A medicine which is the principal part of Dr. Hartman's treatment, known as Pe-ru-na, can be bought at any drug store, and is a remedy without equal for catarah in all forms, drougths, colds, bronchitis, consumption and all climatic diseases of winter. Each bottle is accompanied with complete directions for use.

Address The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, Ohio, for a copy of their latest catarah book. Sent free to any address.
