KEELEY LEAGUE NEWS.

P. J. Linbeck, of Bishop Hill, Ill., brought in a friend for treatment Sunday.

V. Thurn, of Bradford, Ill., class of Aug. '92, was a Dwight visitor Wednesday.

C. W. Cole was up from Springfield this week and made the usual entertaining address that was well received.

On account of so much going on in town this week the club entertainment was postponed until next Tuesday evening.

The following officers were elected Tuesday: President, R. A. Bigelow; 1st vice president, F. C. Sasse; 2nd vice president, J. D. Arault. N. K. Henry was appointed sergeant-at-arms.

At a recent meeting of Springfield, Ill., Keeley League No. 9, the following officers were elected: President, Chas. W. Prouty; vice president, M. H. Patton; secretary, W. H. Grimsley; treasurer, W. H. Robertson. Board of trustees, F. F. Pillo, Chas. Riffler, C. W. Cole.

Secretary Brown's cozy little office at the club room is very comfortably heated by a beautiful oil stove presented to him last Friday by his friends meeting Saturday Mr. Brown made a neat speech of thanks to the gentlemen who had given him such a substantial and lasting token of their friendship, assuring their gift was appreciated and the donors would always be gratefully remembered.

The citizens of Dwight will be given an opportunity next Wednesday evening to show their appreciation of the many free entertainments they have attended at the Keeley club hall in the past three and a half years by patronizing the entertainment to be given by Omie Read, the humorist, novelist and lecturer and Nixon Waterman, the poet, who come here under the auspice of this league. Everyone who has attended the free entertainments given by the club should consider it their duty to patronize this affair.

Home and Country.

How do you manage to do it for the money? is a question which might properly be put to many of our magazine publishers. The world wonders at it. Yet the answer is found in the fact. In these days, many of the monthlies furnish a veritable gold-mine in way of illustration, and a added to an excellent intellectual feast at a low subscription price, while a few years since, none but the higher price—not higher class—magazines attempted such things. As a result, the leading magazines were then considered a luxury such as none but the rich and well-to-do could afford. The popular heart was not touched.

The tendency now is to make the magazine as much a necessity in the homes of the common every-day people as is the daily or weekly home paper, without which life is not worth the living.

Among the magazines of the present time, the Christmas number of Home and Country, Corporal James Tanner, Editor, just at hand, is an evidence of what can be done by the publisher intent on serving the cause of the common people. Reduced in subscription price to $1.50 a year, and sold at 15 cents a month, the latest issue of this publication, from an artistic point of view, because of its numerous full-page illustrations, and as well from the variety of subjects treated, well maintains its reputation as a leader in its line. Published by Jos. W. Kay, 33 East 10th St., New York.

Home and Country and your home paper for $2.50.

Now on Exhibition in front of the Postoffice, Dwight, Ill., for a few days.

The Cover at an End View.

The Portable Hog House, suitable for Sheep, Calves, Poultry and all kinds of an Out-House. It can be easily taken down and moved in a few minutes.

A special invitation is offered to Farmers and those in need of Shedding, to call and examine the exhibit of THE LINCOLN PORTABLE SHEDDING CO. of Lincoln, Ill., now exhibiting on the Public Street of your City.

For the want of space we will give only a few of the many reasons why you should be the owner of a Portable Shed.

1st. It is 50 per cent cheaper than any shed you can build.

2nd. It is so constructed that it may be used for the storage of all kinds of grain, hay, straw and especially useful to shelter young pigs, lambs, sheep, etc.

3rd. It saves the boards as no nails are driven.

4th. It may be used for all kinds of siding, such as porches, out-houses, etc.

5th. It takes the place of detached farrowing pens, to breeders of swine, lambs, etc.

Do not forget the date, and ask our representative for a circular filled with useful information, suggestions and advice to Farmers.
