We will be pleased to present to anyone calling at this office a catalogue and price list of Popular Newspapers and Magazines. It is a handy little book, and we are indebted to Manager E. S. Kenyon, of the Postal Subscription Company, of Chicago, for them. Call and get one.

For rheumatism I have found nothing equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It relieves the pain as soon as applied. J. W. Young, West Liberty, W. Va. The prompt relief it affords is alone worth many times the cost, 50 cents. Its continued use will effect a permanent cure. For sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; Smith & Meluhish, Gardner; and Augustine & Son, Braceville, Druggists.

Mr. I. A. Wetmor, a prominent real estate agent of San Angelo, Texas, has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for several years as occasion required, and always with perfect success. He says: "It is a perfect cure for our baby when troubled with colic or dysentery. I now feel that my outfit is not complete without a bottle of the remedy at home or on a trip away from home. For sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; Smith & Meluhish, Gardner and Augustine & Son, Braceville, Druggists."

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford of Pl. Infield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought sure I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, and thought I would try it as a last hope, and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him six days and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 a d 50 c at bottles for sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; Smith & Meluhish, Gardner and Augustine & Son, Braceville, Druggists.

Our merchants have done a good business recently. It is because they deal fairly with all. Look over the ads. in our paper before you buy, and when you buy just remind the merchant that you saw his announcement in our paper. It won't hurt you, and will do us good.

The Read-Waterman literary entertainment at the Keeley League hall Wednesday evening was high class. There was a very small audience, nothing to what it should have been. Mr. Read and Mr. Waterman are both very entertaining. There is always so much going on about the holidays among the churches and societies, that other attractions stand but little show.

A special meeting of the village board was held Tuesday week for the purpose of adopting a resolution requesting and directing the county clerk to list all the railroad track, and other property of the I. J. & I. railroad company within the village, for the years 1881 to 1891 inclusive. The supreme court having decided in favor of the village, this action was necessary to secure the back taxes due, the I. J. I. having escaped payment of village taxes until now.

Ice cream, cake and coffee were served. Crokinole and other amusements were enjoyed. All went away saying they had spent a delightful evening. Mrs. Smith thinks she had the best time of all.

It seems there is a certain lot of toughts in this town whom the police are either afraid, cannot handle or do not dare interfere with, or else the officers do not do their duty. It is the unqualified duty of the village board to find out the circumstances and act. The police or town board should not be afraid to do what is right in this matter. The law and order citizens will stand by them.

The 3-1 station in Dwight is now a very important one. Agent France's responsibility has doubled up, and his work increased considerably. The passenger business to and from Dwight has more than doubled, and already, we understand transfers are made here by passengers going east, instead of running into Chicago. The early morning train on the Alton stops for all passengers beyond Bloomington, and they have plenty of time to connect with the passenger east on the 3-1.

Miss Addie Fenn gave a very pleasant party at her home on Xmas night, in honor of Miss Jessie Seeley, who left on Wednesday for her home in the west. The evening was most enjoyably spent in games, old and new, the most fun being derived from the "Auction," carried on by auctioneer C. A. Fenn, and patronized by each member of the party who paid for all articles with Boston (un)baked beans.
