Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Gray are spending the holidays in New York.

Ford Holtzman came home from Champaign to spend the holidays.

Miss Helen McIlduff is home from Oxford, O., spending her holiday vacation.

John Meyers, a young man formerly of this place, visited his old home this week.

Judge Tipton will preside at the January term of the Livingston Circuit court.

Misses Grace Wallace and Edith Hobbs are spending their vacation at home.

George Houck now a student at Champaign is enjoying the holidays at home.

The Chicago Recital club gave an entertainment in the Presbyterian church Xmas eve.

The firemen's ball on Xmas night was the usual big success. Everybody enjoyed themselves.

Miss Cleary has resigned her position in the postoffice and Miss Susie Slyder has been put on the force.

Mr. Knapp who is attending school at Rockford is visiting friends and relatives here during the holidays.

The little ones of the Baptist church and Sunday school were nicely entertained by the tree on Xmas night.

The city council held a special session in the National Bank of Pontiac rooms, to discuss the fire alarm system.

John G. Wooley will deliver a lecture in the court house on the evening of Jan 19th, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

The Pontiac Gun club held a shooting match on their grounds Xmas day. Live pigeons and Peoria blackbirds were shot at.

The Methodist Sunday school had a Xmas tree entertainment in the M. E. church Xmas eve. A very nice musical program was rendered.

The Pontiac talent presenting "Hazel Kirke" held forth at Chatsworth opera house Thursday evening. They received a very flattering reception,

The Pontiac cadets now number about twenty five and more members are wanted. Boys over five and four inches are eligible for membership.

The M. E. church choir gave a concert in their church Thursday evening. The audience listened to a very fine vocal and instrumental program.

The guests of the Phoenix were badly frightened Monday night about 11:00 o'clock, by an alarm of fire. The blaze was caused by a stove pipe burning out. No damage was done.

Gus Williams, the celebrated German comedian entertained a fair sized audience, in "April Fool" at Folks opera house, Monday night. Manager Folks has provided a series of very fine theatrical events for his patrons this season.

Odell.

Jens Larsen and daughter are visit-relatives in Austin

J. H. Holmes, of Emington, visited W. M. Buchanan Tuesday.

Mr. P. A. Leonard's daughter and husband are here on a visit.

Our merchants had a splendid Xmas trade, much the best for two years.

Chester Van Buskirk is spending the holidays with his parents in Sims, Wayne county.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Matthiessen spent Xmas with their daughter, Mrs. Carrithers, at Emington.

Rev. I. J. Swanson and wife were presented with a purse of money and other handsome gifts by their parishioners Xmas eve.

Oliver Willard Pierce, the talented pianist and professor in the Indianapolis College of Music, is here visiting his mother, Mrs. S. P. Root.

The Methodist and Congregational churches gave their usual Xmas treat to the children Monday evening. Needless to say the little folks were out in full force and had a happy time.

Major McClaughrey and a number of friends from Pontiac came up Wednesday evening to "surprise" John McWilliams, but found him ready to receive them with a big turkey and a choice musicale.

There was a wild scramble when F. N. Hossack opened the sale of reserved seat tickets for the entertainment course at Hunter's drug store on Monday and 119 seats were selected within an hour. The course is an assured success financially. Thursday night the first concert will be given by Oliver Willard Pierce. From present indications standing room only will be left by Thursday.

The sacred concert at the Congregational church last Sunday evening was very fine. Prof. Austin is a good orchestral leader. Mr. L. Heath's violin solo, "Traumerie," was sympathetically rendered. Mr. F. N. Hossack was in good voice and sang "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me," with good effect. The trio by Misses Vaughan and Carpenter and Mrs. Helen Finefield, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," was very sweetly sung. All the choir and orchestral selections were excellent. The church was packed to the doors.

Edward Kuhn, after an illness of sixteen weeks, died last Friday and was buried on Monday. The deceased was a native of Switzerland, canton of St. Gall. Failing ill with typhoid fever in September, Ulick Eggenberger and wife took him in, though a stranger, and nursed him all through his dangerous and loathsome illness, and were as kind to him as to a son. This is a case of unusual kindness to a friendless and penniless stranger. The Eggenbergers deserve public recognition of their self-sacrificing, most Christian kindness to a stranger in a strange land.

Mrs. Badger is very low with pneumonia.

E. T. Mety spent Xmas with relatives in Dwight.

Miss Winnie Heath is spending her vacation at home.

Elton C. Armitage is spending a few days with his parents.

Hon. A. W. Hopkins was the guest of Hon. B. A. Gower Sunday.

Charles Hossack is back from Lake Forrest for his Xmas vacation.

The sacred concert at the Congregational church last Sunday evening was listened to by a large audience.

Superintendent of Schools C. R. Tombaugh and family spent Christmas with his mother, Mrs. E. J. Tombaugh.

Christmas exercises of an interesting nature were held at the Methodist and Congregational churches Monday evening.

Prof. O. W. Pierce, of Indianapolis visited his mother, Mrs. S. P. Root. He also gave the first concert of the course Thursday evening at the Congregational church.

Emington.

The schools are closed for the holidays.

Rev. Cutler went to Galesburg this week.

Joe Wright returned from Ottawa Monday night.

L. Wickoff spent Christmas with his son, Dr. Wickoff, of Humes,

R. H. Cloke and wife, of Chatsworth are visiting at Chas. Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. Pitcher received as a Christmas present a baby girl.

Mr. Crumbaker, of Fairbury, was in town this week visiting the Hallihan's.

A. A. Boyer representative of the STAR AND HERALD was in town last week looking after the interests of the paper.

Matthew Clark and wife, of Cornell, have been spending a few days with Mr. Hodgson.

John Robinson, of Mexico, Mo., gave his friends a pleasant surprise on Christmas eve. He will stop a few days with his brother Gus Robinson.

Alson Gilbert, Miss Jessie Gilbert and Hiram Andrews, of Wheaton college, and Jay Gallup, Misses Myrtle Gallup, Belle Smith, and Jesse Baylor of the Onarga school have returned home for the holidays.

It is reported that Bob Kane and a man by the name of Malone, got mixed up in a quarrel on Saturday night. Bob got badly licked and now proposes to get even by making his opponent settle at the iron hand of the law.

The annual Christmas exercises were held in the Congregational church, on Christmas eve. The program was as follows.

Doxology.

Miss Cockral, of Nebraska, attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Shimmins.

Mary Farriter left Wednesday for Indiana to visit her grandpa who is quite sick.

The Xmas tree at the German church was enjoyed by all. The church was beautifully decorated, and the entertainment was fine.

The Xmas entertainment at the M. E. church Friday night was well attended and there was not standing room in the church. After a fine program which was appreciated by all, a collection was taken up, which will be sent to the Home of the Friendless, in Chicago. The Sunday school adopted this several years ago and like it better than having an Xmas tree. The collection amounted to $9.77.

The community was shocked last week by the sudden death of Mrs. Thos. Shimmins at the hospital in Chicago. She died Friday at 4 o'clock and was brought home Saturday. Her funeral was Monday at 10 o'clock, and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. She leaves a husband and two children, a son and a daughter, and hosts of friends to mourn her loss. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community.

A young fellow was caught here Tuesday for stealing a horse and buggy at Spring Valley. He tried to sell it to D. R. Keepers, the liveryman.

The entertainments at the different churches Xmas evening and night were largely attended, and everybody had a good time. The programs were as fine as any that were ever given in town and everybody was happy.

Miss Stella Eldred gave a party to her friends Tuesday night. They enjoyed themselves at games, songs and dancing until about 11 o'clock, when they left for their homes, after spending a very pleasant evening.

Chet Pope and J. A. Gowey took an insane man over to Morris Friday. They had quite a time with him. When about seven miles this side of Morris he asked for a drink and Pope got out of the buggy with him to get it, and when the the lady opened the door to see what they wanted he jumped by her into the house and Pope had a big time getting him out again where he could call Gowey to help him. They did not handcuff him when they left here, and when they went to put them on he fought them in good style, and it was not until Gowey took Pope's gun and threatened to shoot him if he did not submit to be shackled that he was brought under subjection. Pope now says when he starts on a similar errand he will see to it that his charge is properly secured.

Braceville.

Benjamin Peterson represented the Braceville camp at the state convention M. W. A., at Springfield this week.

The question now is: What ever became of Mrs. Watson's game foul? Will the village board please look into the matter.

T. T. Smith and family entertained a number of friends from abroad on Christmas. The following were present; J. D. Bennett and wife, of Wilmington; W. W. Bennett and daughter, of Braidwood; Mrs. Lee Dowd, of Denver, Col., and Mr. Dowd and daughtar, of Gardner.

The Braceville dramatic club will render the pretty four act comedy, "Past Redemption," at the opera house to-night. The play is good, the club is excellent and Mr. and Mrs. Bishop, under whose direction the play is given, are artists then why shouldn't the entertainment be a good one?

A pretty cantata was presented at the M. E. church on Christmas eve by the children and young people of the Sunday school. The entertainment was very liberally patronized by the entire community. Everything went off splendidly and was enjoyed alike by young and old. A neat sum was put into the treasury as a result of the undertaking.

Thomas R. Hughs, who was injured in the shaft, died at his home on Saturday, December 22. His death was the result of serious internal injuries received. The funeral services were held in Music Hall, Sunday afternoon and were largely attended. The remains were taken to the Cotten cemetery for burial. The deceased leaves a wife and daughter.

The Christmas shoot in Braceville was the event of the season. The match was between two companies of eleven men each, one headed by Capt. Dieu and the other by Capt. Allison. The men under Mr. Dieu were beautifully dressed up and in the evening furnished the oysters. The supper at hotel Mathias in the evening was very nice and very much enjoyed by all.

The masquerade ball given in the opera house on Christmas night was a success in every particular, in fact it was the largest affair the town has seen for a long time. There were ninty couples on the floor who enjoyed themselves to the tune of Gumey's orchestra. The spectators numbered about 250, and they also held a most pleasing display of costumes both beautiful and comical. Mrs Chas Louden received the prize for the best character representation and Ed. Carbine cap ured the large turkey offered for the most comical costume. Financially the ball was a rousing success, and in no respect was it below what its managers aimed to make it.

Home and Country.

How do you manage to do it for the money? is a question which might properly be put to many of our magazine publishers. The world wonders at it. Yet the answer is found in the fact. In these days, many of the monthlies furnish a veritable gold-mine in way of illustration, and added to this an excellent intellectual feast at a low subscription price, while a few years since, none but the higher price—and higher class—magazines attempted such things. As a result, the leading magazines were then considered a luxury such as none but the rich and well-to-do could afford. The popular heart was not touched.

The tendency now is to make the magazine as much a necessity in the homes of the common every-day people as is the daily or weekly home paper, without which life is not worth the living.

Among the magazines of the present time, the Christmas number of Home and Country, Corporal James Tanner, Editor, just at hand, is an evidence of what can be done by the publisher intent on serving the cause of the common people. Reduced in subscription price to $1.50 a year, and sold at 15 cents a month, the latest issue of this publication, from an artistic point of view, because of its numerous full-page illustrations, and as well from the variety of subjects treated, well maintains its reputation as a leader in its line. Published by Jos. W. Kay, 59 East 10th St., New York

THAT'S QUEER!

You say a collar and cuff that are waterproof?

Yes.

And perspiration will not affect them?

Yes.

And when dirty you need only wipe them off with a wet cloth or sponge?

Yes.

Wonderful! How are they made?

A linen collar covered on both sides with waterproof "CELLULOID." Looks exactly like a linen collar.

Is it the only waterproof collar and cuff made?

No, but it is the only one made with the linen interlining and consequently the only one that can give entire satisfaction, because it is the best.

How can I know that I get the right kind?

Because every piece is stamped as follows:

TRADE CELLULOID MARK.

Inquire for that and refuse anything else, or you will be disappointed.

Suppose my dealer does not have them?

He probably has, but if not, send direct to us, enclosing amount. Collars 25c., Cuffs 50c. State size, and whether collar wanted is stand-up or turned-down.
