KEELEY LEAGUE NEWS.

Dr. Blaine made his weekly query talk to the patients Thursday morning of this week.

W. P. Thomas, of Newport, Ind., class of May '93, brought a friend here Monday for treatment.

A mock court has been engaging the attention of the patients for several evenings this week at the club hall.

Owing to the scarcity of available talent the club has decided that hereafter instead of giving weekly entertainments they will be given bi-weekly.

Secretary Brown and wife were in Chicago Wednesday and Thursday. Ex-President F. C. Sasse officiated as secretary during the absence of Mr. Brown.

Dr. Edward Warren Sawyer, of Chicago, made the club an interesting address Monday morning on the three most important discoveries of the 19th century, one of which is Dr. Leslie E. Keeley's discovery of a cure for inebriety.

Another consignment of opera chairs arrived Friday for the club hall. The room now presents a handsome appearance, as the old style chairs have all been removed. The new chairs are very comfortable and are greatly appreciated by the patients.

The following club officers were elected Tuesday: President, Jas. W. Mickeljohn, Chicago; First vice-president, M. J. Conway, Everett, Ill.; Second vice president, Wm. A. Reid, Shelby, Mo. H. N. Tolson, of Cairo, Ill., was appointed sergeant-at-arms.

The club hall was prettily decorated Xmas, and a special song service was held at the conclusion of the regular meeting and a large audience of patients greatly enjoyed the singing. Quite a number of ladies were present. Mrs. Willard S. Brown presided at the piano.

Mr. F. A. Haisles' little boy and girl were at the treatment hall Xmas morning and presented each patient as he came through the line with a small bouquet of holly leaves to pin on the lapel of his coat. This little act of kindness was greatly appreciated by the patients.

F. C. Sasse, of Brunswick, Mo., who was the 169th president of Keeley League No. 1, made a most excellent presiding officer. He was popular with everyone and was a thorough parliamentarian, as was shown when some of the boys endeavored to tangle him up, for he proved himself to be master of the situation.

W. W. Blaksley, Jr., and wife, of Weatherly, Pa., sent kindly Xmas greetings to the members of Keeley League No. 1, and presented the club library with six of Geo. Eliot's books, viz: Romola, Felix Holt, Daniel Deronda, Middlemarch, Adam Bede, Poems and Essays, and The Mill on the Floss. Mr. B. was a member of the Aug. '93 class, and retains a kindly feeling for every patient in line.

$10 a Day Easy.

I saw that the Telephone patent had expired and I thought what a great seller it would be at a low price. I saw the advertisement of W. P. Harrison & Co., Columbus, Ohio, in your paper. They had just what I wanted—a Telephone just like the rich city business men have, and I have been selling them for two months and have made as high as $50.00 per day when I took a large contract, and never less than $5 a day selling the telephones. I sell them outright, there is no rent, no royalty. Everybody wants them. Anyone can put them up, and I believe they are the greatest convenience and the best seller on earth. Anyone can make big money who can sell goods at all. So many young men are out of employment now, I feel it my duty to bring my experience before the world so that this winter, with times as hard as they may be, money may be made by those who are now sore distressed. Write to the above firm for circulars.
