A very pleasant surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Boyer at their home last Saturday evening by their relatives, the occasion being Mrs. Boyer's birthday. The parties were well supplied with oysters and cake and a good time was had by all.

The editor of this paper is personally acquainted with Col. J. M. Green, and we know his lecture on "Gettysburg" is one of the best ever delivered. The lecturer is an old soldier, and his beautiful descriptions are realistic and grand. He will be in Dwight the 28th.

The Catholic fair has been a grand success and over $2000 was cleared, a very nice amount to apply on the erection of a new church edifice. The fair closed Thursday night, and the young people had a grand time.

The ball given Thursday evening was in every respect a very fine affair. Probably the weather kept quite a number away. It was, nevertheless, the grandest of the season. On account of the lateness in the week it is impossible to give a detailed report.

Mrs. Ida M. Saunders, of Chicago, will give her very interesting and instructive illustrated lecture, "Along the Right Road," to ladies only, at the Congregational church, Monday evening, February 11th, at 7:30 p. m. All ladies are very cordially invited. Admission free.

There was a happy gathering of friends at the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. Will Bartholic last Monday night. The party was composed of about twenty-five couples from Goodfarm and Highland, and they were out for fun and they had it too, in spite of the cold weather—the coldest of the year. They brought music with them, and plenty of good things to eat; and they took advantage of both. They took charge of the house had all the fun they wanted and stayed as long as they pleased, and went home, happy. They do say that Uncle Jack grows younger every day—or evening, rather—especially when the music starts up.

From reports in the Chicago papers it will be seen that the Alton trains were the nearest to being on time of any.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Barz were called to Washington Tuesday on account of the serious illness of Dr. Cook, Mrs. Barz's father.
