The best place to get your watch repaired done at reasonable prices is at Gaudenier's, Dwight. Also strings for all stringed instruments for sale. When you want a paper that you are not afraid to leave on the sitting-room table for all the family to read, subscribe for the DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD. If parents want their children to become reliable, honorable citizens, they should put them in the Sunday School, and come with them as an encouragement to stay there. Are you going to buy a new carpet this spring? If so, go to D. Heenan & Co., of Streator. They will give you a good bargain, and pay your car fare home if you pay $10 for your carpet. H. V. Miller, superintendent telegraph C. & A. railroad, and a force of men are in the city putting up electric warning bells at the street crossings. These bells are said to be an improvement over anything of the kind, and where they are now in use are considered better than crossing flagmen. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives the best satisfaction of any cough medicine I handle and as a seller leads all other preparations in the market. I recommend it because it is the best medicine I ever handled for coughs, colds and croup. A. W. Baldridge, Millersville, Ill. For sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; Smith & Meluhsh, Gardner; Augustine & Son, Braceville. A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "Only made three applications of it," he says, "and have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by Barr & Davis, Dwight; Smith & Meluhsh, Gardner; Augustine & Son, Braceville.

J. M. Meier, of Nebraska, is visiting his father and mother. Lizzie and Agnes Doherty, have been sick with the grip the past week. Warren W. Litta Haise invited a number of her little friends out for a sleighing party Saturday afternoon. D. Heenan & Co., of Streator, are always putting in new goods, because they are always selling. If you want the best kerosene oil by the gallon or barrel, make your wants known to the oil wagon man. Chicago Weekly Times or Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean and your home paper for $1.75. Take your choice. If you want a home (new) for $800—100 or $200 down, balance in monthly payments to suit, call at this office. Mrs. C. M. Baker, who is stopping at the Beach Hotel, Chicago, spent a day and night with her mother this week. When you paper this spring go to D. Heenan & Co.'s, at Streator, where you will find a large variety to select from. The Home Bakery, in the Frank Ford building, is prepared at all times to serve a nice lunch quickly. Call there. Go to D. Heenan & Co. and see the bargains they will give you while they are making room for their new spring goods. Be sure and see the many funny features in the Funny Farce-Comedy, "The Elixir of Life," next Monday evening. The Junior League were out in full force Wednesday. Two bob-sled loads of bright-faced leaguers, headed by the Rev. Mr. Ayling with cutter and horse in full Epworth League costume. The deposed editors of the STAR AND HERALD have been enjoying their week's vacation by taking a trip to Chicago, with their wives, and attending the Press Association in session there. We invite you, when in Streator, to visit our store and examine our full line of dry goods, clothing, carpets, wall paper, window shades, glass, queensware, boots and shoes, etc. D. Heenan & Co., Streator, Ill. Mrs. James B. Cooper and daughter, Miss Bessie, left Wednesday to visit friends and relatives in Bloomington, El Paso and Tremont. They expect to be away about two weeks, returning to their present home in Dwight the first of March. The audience at the Congregational church Sunday night were favored with a sacred song, most beautifully rendered, by Mr. Brown, from Utica, N. Y. He is to sing again this coming Sabbath, at the morning service, and Dr. Barber in the evening. Why do you pay car fare to Chicago when we can sell you goods as cheap as you can get them in Chicago? Will you pay your fare one way if you purchase $10 worth of goods, and will pay fare both ways if you purchase $20 worth. D. Heenan & Co., Streator, Ill. The editor of this paper is personally acquainted with Col. J. M. Green, and we know his lecture on "Gettysburg" is one of the best ever delivered. The lecturer is an old soldier, and his beautiful descriptions are realistic and grand. He will be in Dwight the 28th. The "editresses" and members of the "Benevolent Society" would take this opportunity to thank all those in business who have so generously advertised in our columns. May your sales be re-doubled therefrom; and while we wish our patrons the greatest success, we wish no harm to the poor man who was so frightened by the advent of five ladies with the advertising sheet that he disappeared through the back door. The pupils of the High School are to give a social February 22nd, to which everybody and all his friends are most cordially invited. There will be a fine "supper served by several slick school girls" and boys, and a good time is promised. Come and encourage the young people in this worthy enterprise. We're aw ays "on deck" from morn till night. In this beautiful town—the town of Dwight. And although of customers we hold our share, We still have room for the clothes you wear. And it's water and soap doth mark the bound'ry At the well known Dwight Artesian Laundry. Try us and see for yourself.

Mr. and Mrs. Koehler and children went to Chicago Tuesday to attend the wedding of one of Mr. Koehler's brothers. Rev. George Swartz, pastor of the Evangelical church, went to Chicago Thursday to attend the wedding of his brother-in-law. All members of the fire company are requested to be at the meeting next Monday evening at 8 o'clock sharp. Election of officers. Mrs. Bollens and children, who have been spending some time with Mrs. Will Hagerty, have gone to Joliet to visit Mr. Bollens' parents. Col. James Morrow and R. M. John, of Pontiac, made this office a pleasant call Wednesday while in Dwight on business. Welcome, gentlemen. Walter Scott is agent for the very best and clearest ice, and contracts can be made with him at any time. Now is the time to prepare for hot weather. Every patriotic resident of this locality should bear in mind that the date of Col. J. M. Green's grand lecture, "Gettysburg," is the 28th of February. D. Heenan & Co. are still at their old stand, and ready to wait upon all who wish to buy anything in their line, and their line embraces almost any article you can desire. Miss Jessie Bradford, of Joliet, is visiting Miss Cora Adams for a few weeks. This is a visit which the family have anticipated for some time, and which is greatly enjoyed. The Leslie E. Keeley Co. have made us—the editresses—their happy debtors by ordering in advance 700 copies of our edition of the STAR AND HERALD. We are very glad to publicly acknowledge their kindness. Mr. Romberger's children are quite sick and he has telegraphed to Chicago for a trained nurse to care for them. Mrs. Romberger has been very poorly for some time. Their many friends hope soon to see them all out again. Do not spend your money traveling to Chicago to find a choice in goods or prices. D. Heenan & Co., of Streator, have what you want and you can bring home goods for the money you would spend for traveling—so saving both time and money. The presentation of "The Princess" and "Feast of Belshazzar," Thursday evening, demonstrated beyond a doubt, that Dwight has plenty of home talent and that it should be cultivated. While all did well, some of them showed so much talent that we are sorry the lack of space does not permit us to do them justice here. The drill and aesthetic exercises were so pretty that we are glad to know that Miss Fyfe, who conducted the play, will return to Dwight later in the year to organize a class in Delsarte.

A Divided Pleasure. You take our remedy, which is pleasant to the taste, and we take pleasure in relieving you of such troubles as constipation, indigestion and sick headache. Try Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. 10 doses 10 cents. (Large size 50c to $1.00) at Barr & Davis.
