KEELEY LEAGUE NEWS.

G. A. McCartney, of Good Hope, Ill., made a few excellent farewell remarks at the meeting Thursday morning.

The club was addressed last Friday morning in an entertaining manner by Wm. Rosser Cobbe, of Chicago, and Carl George, of Michigan City, Ind.

Dr. Leslie E. Keeley has been invited to address the League and executive board of the Illinois Keeley League, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

John Gillispie, member executive board Keeley League, was in Dwight Thursday on business. John is one of the most popular Keeley men in the country.

Secretary Brown read a poem at the meeting Saturday, written by the general Frank Sweeney, of Atlantic, Iowa, and dedicated to Hattie May Morris, of Dwight, the adopted daughter of Keeley League No. 1.

Ex-President J. P. Handley, of Lacon, Ill., and Gus A. McCartney, of Good Hope, Ill., both hard-working club members, have completed the full course of treatment and returned to their homes feeling happy.

Rev. E. F. Wright spoke to a large audience of patients at the club room Thursday morning taking for his subject, "Why I came to Dwight and men I have met here." The address was greatly enjoyed and warmly applauded.

The following officers were elected Tuesday: President, Dr. R. L. Robertson, U. S. A. Fort, Omaha, Neb.; 1st vice-pres., C. F. Annett, Chicago; 2nd vice-pres., Martin Malana, Genoa, Ill. C. B. Jackson, of Dana, Ind., was appointed sergeant-at-arms for the ensuing term.

Messrs. Hugh O'Donnell, Alta Vista, Iowa, class of October '94; D. Wilcox, of Bloomfield, Mo., class of June, '94; Charles E. Blair, of Missouri, class of December '92 and J. A. Murphy, of Thomasville, Ill., class of October '94, each brought in a new patient this week.

There was a large attendance at the song service last Sunday, and the meeting was enjoyed by everyone present. Short but very encouraging addresses were made by Chas. E. Blair, of Missouri and J. A. Murphy, of Thomasville, Ill., former patients who were present as visitors. Secretary Brown presided at the meeting.

Thos. E. Barry, secretary-treasurer of the National League, will be present at the meeting of the state executive boards of Keeley League and auxiliary at the club room at 8 o'clock to-night. He will also be present at the Sunday morning song service to-morrow. Col. Nate A. Reed, of the Banner of Gold, will be present, also all the members of the boards.

While in Chicago Monday we made a call on Thos. E. Barry, secretary-treasurer of the National Keeley League. He has a very pleasant, roomy office at 260 S. Clark St., where he can be found during business hours. The business of the national office is increasing rapidly, and probably no secretary of any national temperance organization has more to do than Mr. Barry. Every step taken by the Keeley League is practical and is sure to bring good results.

Auxiliary Notes.

The auxiliary held a very interesting meeting Wednesday in their hall over treatment hall, where the meetings will be held hereafter. President Mrs. T. R. Barr was in the chair, and the attendance was good.

Arrangements were made for the reception of the members of the executive boards who will arrive to-day.

The meeting of the executive board of the Illinois W. A. K. L. will meet at 8 o'clock to-night at the rooms of Mrs. Dr. Blaine at the Livingston. A joint meeting of the League executive committee and the ladies will be held later in the evening at Keeley League hall.

Business of importance will be transacted at the next meeting of the auxiliary—next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Let every member be present.

GREAT STRIKE IN COURT

Mandamus to Compel Operation of Street Cars.

JUSTICE GAYNOR WILL GRANT IT.

Thomas Carney, the Latest Victim of the Militia, Dies of His Injuries—Linemen of the Trolley Roads Again on Strike—Striking Conductors and Motormen Arrested for Pulling Down Wires—Debs and Associates Released on Bail.

BROOKLYN, Jan. 25.—Justice Gaynor of the supreme court handed down his decision on the application of Joseph Loader, for a mandamus to compel the Brooklyn Heights railroad to operate its cars in sufficient numbers to accommodate the traveling public in the Fulton Street, Putnam Avenue, Greene and Gates, and the Tompkins Avenue lines. He signified his intention of granting a mandamus, the form to be determined on the argument of counsel.

Thomas Carney, the man who while working on the roof of the house 44 Hicks street, was shot by soldiers of the Thirtieth regiment, who were guarding a car which had been started on one of the lines, died at the Long Island College hospital at 2:35 o'clock in the morning.

Linemen Quit Work. A number of trolley wires were cut down during the night, but the cars on most of the lines are running. Reports received at police headquarters up to 8 o'clock in the morning show that the city was quiet all night. The linemen of the trolley roads are out on strike, and at a number of depots not a single linemen has reported for duty.

Three Strikers Arrested. William McGrath, aged 23, conductor, residing at 1840 Broadway, and Richard Lyman, aged 39, a motorman, residing at 7 Hinsdale street, were arrested for pulling down trolley wires at Broadway and Stewart street. Frank Brown, aged 24, a striking motorman, was arrested at Fulton ferry for making an attack, while drunk, on policeman stationed there. When cutting during the night was more extensive than at any other time since the strike began. The wires on some of the lines are so badly mutilated that a large force of men will be necessary to put them in working shape. The wires of the Third Avenue and Troy Avenue lines were cut in several places.

Alleged High-Handed Proceedings. Joseph P. Patton and John Chaplin have applied, through Baldwin S. Straus, to Justice Gaynor of the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus looking to the release of twenty-six motormen and conductors, alleged to be imprisoned in the Halsey street station. The writ was granted. Patton and Chaplin come from Pittsburg. They say that they and the others were brought to Brooklyn under false pretenses, having been given to understand by the railroad company that they were to work on suburban lines.

They got here on Wednesday evening and since that time, they say, they have been confined in the depot. Patton and Chaplin escaped from the depot and reported to the strikers' headquarters.

DEBS OUT ON BAIL. He and His Seven Associates Breathe Free Air Again.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—Eugene V. Debs and his seven associates, who have been confined in the McHenry county jail, arrived in Chicago in charge of United States Marshal Arnold and were at once taken to the Monadnock building, where they were admitted to bail in the conspiracy cases, according to the decision of the United States supreme court, rendered last week. The amount of bail in each case was fixed at $2,000, and this was readily given.

The A. R. U. officials all looked well and in exceedingly happy spirits. While they have received excellent treatment at the hands of the sheriff of McHenry county, they expressed their satisfaction at the prospect of release and consider the action of the supreme court as a preliminary victory in their cause. Judge Woods and Judge Grosscup held a consultation at which Judge Grosscup was empowered to set in the matter of the bond, thus Judge Woods avoiding coming in contact with the men at all. The prisoners were accordingly taken before Judge Grosscup and their bonds made.

The trial of the officials and a number of others on the omnibus indictments will be taken up by Judge Grosscup and promises to consume a great deal of time. Over two hundred jurymen have been called, and from among them it is confidently expected the twelve trial jurors can be obtained. The witnesses, numbering over one hundred, have been subpoenaed and all is ready for the commencement of the trial.

Statement from General Fairchild. CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—General Fairchild, before leaving for home, said at the Grand Pacific that his speech to the Sons of Ohio was, from what he had heard, unaccountably and unjustly misconstrued. He neither uttered nor thought the sentiments charged. His remarks in relation to public violence and disorder were not meant to apply to the strike in Brooklyn, the whole purport and tenor of them being the duty and necessity to uphold the law and order everywhere and at all times. As for himself, his sympathies were with every labor organization legally battling for better conditions.

Aid for Brooklyn Strikers. BOSTON, Jan. 25.—At a meeting of the executive board of the Boston Street Car Men's union 37, A. F. of L., at union headquarters, it was voted to send $300 to Brooklyn for the benefit of the strikers. It was voted to assess every member of the union weekly until the end of the strike and a committee of three was appointed to go to Brooklyn and confer with the executive board of said district assembly 75, K. of L., to ascertain how they can best aid the street car men of Brooklyn.

Brooklyn Strike May Soon End. ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 25.—Mayor Schleron of Brooklyn telephoned to Adjutant General McAlpin that thirty street railway lines are in operation and that everything looks promising for an early and peaceable settlement of the trouble.
